1960 Ann S. Mowry

"from Galloway Cleston saying they will be down in a few days & Aunt S. from Hagerstown the first of July so that I shall not be so distressed to have her as when alone - the old servants tell me, 'Mistress is not like the same since you came, Miss Polly'

"Aunt Cleston is the dearest old lady I ever knew, we laugh & say we are like two romantic young girls, the day is not long enough to talk."

"Washington, Wednesday (after a visit to Annapolis
or West River)

— I found Mrs. Cleston confined to her room, where she had been for two weeks, they had been looking for me & had supposed I had gone
