Ann Galloway & James Cheston

~~as Daniel~~

This should be ~~Ann~~ b. 1776, d. unmarried 1811

b. Francina Augustina b. 1777 d. unmarried 1859

c. James Cheston b. 1779 d. 1843

From there on it seems to be correct born in England and married there Robert Bensley, an actor and "lived happily ever after" — She was only in this country for a short while when about 10 yrs old — Charles Lamb in his Essay on the Theater devotes pages to enthusiasm Mr Bensley in the character of Malvolio)

The second daughter of James and Ann (Galloway) Cheston was named for that aunt — She was very bright but subject to periods of mental depression when she would be in a hospital —

It must have been at one of those times 1836 that Polly Lynn was visiting her to (I have no doubt) their mutual pleasure — At that time my grandmother Ann Cheston Morris was in England for ~~about a year~~ in search of health —
