My dear Forbes

I think you gave quite as much pleasure to each member of the family at Ivy Neck – as you could possibly have had yourself in giving us a visit! I know you did to your old Grand Mother, who hopes you will repeat it whenever you can do so, without interfering with any other duties! We are all of us looking forward with much pleasure to seeing your Father this afternoon but feel sorry he should have such

Aunt "Pauline" was here one night – these are the only visitors we have had since you left us! So you see I have no news to write about to you from here either so you must excuse a stupid letter that has however a great deal of love – more than I can write – and dearie the earnest hope that you may be guided aright in all things especially in making any change of Occupation! I feared in thinking over what you said to me of what you had had offered to you – it might be only a position of "Travelling Salesman" as I believe they are now called, and I wondered if that was what it would be wise for you to take! Always your own loving Grand Mother
