The hundred wind storm we had Saturday evening fortunately it only lasted a few minutes, and here nothing was blown down but three dead branches off the old oak.
But at the Ridge one barn was partly unroofed and an end of it blown in and several trees blown down at Andre Pieta and we from trees were blown down. Last night Mr Stewart came here and said two trees had been blown down there one struck the edge of the house knocked some of the bricks off the chimney some shingles off the roof and broke the coping, and his feet as I thought the house was in good repair. At your Aunt Sally Morris two trees were blown down.
I had such a nice letter from your brother mailed at Glasgow. I think they are both splendid sailors and had better apply for positions. With ever so much love and wishing you were
