those of gnostic Psalms — & realize what the going up of the Redeemed to the New Jerusalem will be for no doubt typical this was you of course have read that book & if not you must Do you follow the "advanced thinkers" (as they call themselves) of the day — the periodicals are so full of their doubts & their difficulties their criticisms & their unbelief that one is forced to read what they have to say — I am particularly shocked at Henry Newton he is I believe a son of the Rev Newton of Philadelphia Beecher ~~when~~ I expected nothing better of — Mr C. has been reading in the "North american Review" to us a number of papers on the revision of the creeds from clergymen representing the different denominations and a very remarkable paper by a R. Catholic Bishop on the "Decay of Protestantism" I should like to hear what you would say — to them I must close my dear Cousin with much love to Sophie & to yr "angel" Mainy & believe me always yr true & loving
E. H. Murray
~~Infatuation~~
