Murray family letters 1994

"If you have any convictions give them to me but I don't want your doubts" some of as perverse seeker after truth exclaimed, to one of these blind guides – who now fill so many of our pulpits. So I feel & then when I think of them I like to fall back on our friend Maurice. He seems to find the solid rock under his feet.

I think he was too earnest a man to lift up his voice as a guide until he did. but I dare say he passed through much darkness before he came to the light. I am crazy to trace his life have you? & what is it?
