Murray family letters

Nov. 12th, 1880.

My dearest Nancy

As the Adda has written a postal card to Cat I will send you a short list of things that I have left behind. I want my music which is on the piano some white worsted which is in the drawer of the book case. Now upstairs in

I am very lonesome. Have not heard from J. L. N. yet, afraid he is dead and am very sad and have lost nine pounds in consequence.

Your loving sister
Emily F. Murray.
