PLANNING FARMERS' DAY

State College Of Agriculture Will Hold Demonstrations.

TO CELEBRATE THE VICTORY
Largest Crowd In Years Expected, To Attend Annual Event May 30. Accommodations For 5,000.

College Park, Md., April 18.—Dr. A. F. Woods announced yesterday that farmers' day at the State College of Agriculture will be held as usual on Decoration Day. Plans for the event are not matured, but a general outline of what is to be done has been made. Invitations are being printed and will be sent to all public officials of the State, all the schools and civic and other organizations.

Two features will be the main attrations of the day. One is to be a demonstration of modern cultivating machinery in which labor-saving devices of this character will be shown. The other will be farmers' victory celebration, a commemoration of what Maryland farmers have accomplished to help win the war. Governor Harrington probably will deliver the address in connection with this part of the program. The subject on which he has been asked to speak is "The Farmers' Contribution to Victory and Their Reconstruction Program."

Besides these things there will be an exhibition of all the buildings, laboratories, and the farm. Demonstrations in home economics, canning and drying of fruits, vegetables, etc., will be carried on. Moving pictures are to be shown in the auditorium from 11 until 1 o'clock. A band concert is to be held and the annual commencement exercises of the graduating class of the college also will take place.

It is planned to carry out some actual tests of soil for lime requirement, and samples of soil brought by farmers on that day will be given this test immediately. An explanation of the Farmers' Day Pure Seed law is to be carried on, and explanations of investigations of tomato diseases, brown rot experiments with friuts, hog cholera serum experiments, tests of wheat and vetch, and many other kinds of research being developed in connection with agricurture will be for observation by visitors. Some of these numerous experiments have to do with winter oats, soy beans and cowpeas, variety tests of strawberries, grape training, dwart orcahrsd and priuning of bush fruits, growing asparagus, Irish potoes, fertiliver experiments, opultry and the forest nurseary.

Despite the exigencies of war 20 men are in the senior class to receive degrees and six are to finish the two-year course and receive certificates. Those who receive degrees are: cates for the two-year mourse in agriculture are: Emory Bryan Cockran, Kurt Frederick Menzel, Henry Lafayette Umberger, Thomas ardson and Hugh Roberts Wilmer.

Arrangements have been made for a special trolley schedule from Washington and several express trains from Baltimore to Washington and from Washington to Baltimore will stop to College Park.

To judge by the interest shrown throughout the State by the requests that have come in concerning Farmers' Day, it is likely that the largest crowd that has attended the event in years will be present. Preparations are being made to take care of 5,000.
