Murray family letters

#494

in devoting Mrs. of the one of my own family instead of helping to entertain two of my children. Robert took her with him and hurried home to Adelaide who is uneasy on account of a supposed case of diphtheria in the house with her. She is afraid little Robert will get it. I am anxious for you to know Adelaide I am sure you will like her so very much & dear little Robert you will delight in. Old Robert looks remarkably well & is in good spirits. He is going out to Chiswick Hill to engage lodgings for the summer. He will take Adelaide on to Mount Land before they go out.

I suppose the boys have told you about Mr. Dillon's being here. I have only seen him once. He was going to spend this afternoon and evening with him at Dr. Morris'. I am glad to hear Lally is so well & happy. Catherine wishes very much that you would come & spend a visit now while Lally & Bohlen is here. They expect a few days after and will stay till July. I am anxious that Murray should make the most of the time he is here & hope he may take a fancy to her & Lally & to Sophy. He has not seen her yet. The
