"FOR STOMACH AND NERVE AILMENTS, USE TONALL," SALS ULRICH

Isaac Ulrich is a well known cigar-maker, living at Schaefferstown, Pa., and he speaks in the highest praise of Tonall which he used for stomach troubles and nervousness. He says:

"I had used only one bottle of Tonall when I began to feel better at once. I have great faith in the medicine. I can sleep well now and eat plenty without any evil effects. Before, I could not sleep good and did not dare to eat what I wanted. Now I am like a new man."

This testimony was given Jan. 18, 1918.

Tonall is sold at Chas. W. Moore's drug store, Westminster, and McKinney's drug store, Taneytown.

CHURCH DEBT CANCELLED

The Immanuel Lutheran church of Manchester has been making great financial strides the past two years, but an enviable climax was reached at the Easter Sunday offering.

About two months ago the pastor Rev. C. G. Leatherman asked his members for a special Lenten Thank offering of $5100 to cancel the church debt. The suggestion conveyed, to every one present, but the pastor, an idea of impossibility.

After an explicit and reasonable explanation on his part showing how it could be done and why it should be done, the idea took root in the hearts and minds of his people.

Soon pastor Leatherman and about thirty earnest and faithful solicitors were busy making an every member canvass. The hearty and loyal support of the members and many friends gave hope and courage to the solicitors and made possible the abundant harvest of the Easter day.

The cash offering for the day was $4950 with pledges enough to go "over the top".

The community cannot help but rejoice with pastor and people in the success of their great undertaking.

THE CIVIC LEAGUE PLAY

The play is "A Couple of Million."

The time is Friday night May the ninth at the hour of eight.

The place is the Westminster Opera House.

"Oh, Mistah Sheriff, Mistah Piper, come quick, dere's a dog fight ovah on de public square. 'Bout seben million dogs all mixed up together." That's just one of the many excitements in the Alabama town of Opaloopa where a crowd means three people and a dog. The other excitements include the coming of a circus with a ring-tailed rhinoceros, the escape of a prisoner from Sing Sing and the strange fate that befalls unwary souls who seek rose gardens in the moonlight!

Our own home folks are going to do all the acting. You'll be mighty proud of them. They've been working hard for weeks and are going to give you all one of the jolliest evenings Westminster has had in many a long day. So get out your calendar now and put a red circle around the ninth of May.

FREDERICK COUNTY DEFIES TAX ORDER

Frederick Officials Refuse To Make Reassessment.

Frederick, Md., April 21.—The County Commissioners today voted to refuse to comply with the order of the State Tax Department to reassess all properties in this county that have changed hands since January 1, 1918. This action was taken upon the advice of Attorney to the Commissioners Reno S. Harp. At a conference in Baltimore last week between the Commissioners and their attorney and the State Tax Commission the County Commissioners were given until today to proceed with the new reassessment. After deciding not to comply with the instructions from the Tax Department the Commissioners addressed a letter to the Tax Commission setting forth reasons why the order was not obeyed.

It is expected that legal action will be taken which will bring a clash between the State and county officials. The County Commissioners have fortified themselves with arguments and reclare that they will fight the State Tax Department in Court to a finish. It is understood that about 800 properties are due for a reassessment under the plan of the State Tax Department. The order of the Tax Commission is to tax properties that have changed hands since January 1, 1918, to their sales value. In some instance this would increase the present assessment 50 per cent.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, Herbert B. Greenwood who departed this life three years ago April 25th, 1916.

Oh, for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is stilled;
Could I but be with the one who has gone.
Whose place can never be filled.
Time cannot heal the wounded heart,
Nor fill the vacant chair.
I miss my boy all the time,
I miss him everywhere.

By his mother, Mrs. John Greenwood.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, John W. Ogg who departed this life April 26th, 1910.

Gone but not forgotten.

I cannot forget you dear husband,
Though long may seem the year,
And often in the lonely hours,
I wipe away the tears.
I cannot understand why I had to part
With him whom I loved so dear.
But God who doeth all things well,
Will some day make it clear.
Oh! how sweet it will be in that beautiful land
So free from all sorrow and pain;
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again.

By his loving wife.

Weighed 90 Pounds Before Taking PERUNA

Recommends it to Her Friends

"I don't need Peruna any more. I am all well. I have taken six bottles. I weighed ninety pounds before I started with Peruna. I was just as poor and so weakly, I had given up hopes of ever getting well; such a cough and spitting, and could not eat anything. Now since taking Peruna I weigh one hundred and thirty-five pounds. All my friends said I would never get well. I was just a shadow. I have surely recommended your Peruna to many of my friends, and they are using it. I will recommend Peruna, for I am so thankful for what it has done for me."

Among the people who kick on the slow progress of the peace settlement, are those who next month won't buy any bonds to bring the soldiers home.

When it was announced that peace conference business had been referred to the drafting committee, many people thought that drafting committee was what was meant.
