Murray family letters

T9941

the gentlemen of the families are Pulley is very well & looks little & is in better spirits. Murray as lovely as he can be.
I had a short letter from Cousin Lizzie to day about assisting this days meeting is not very well. & she has a bad cold.
I got a letter from Anna yesterday she says they are all well but Morris who has a bad sore throat. Do you hear from Sally often?
Miss Evans was here a few days ago with one of her babies. She enquired particularly for you but no one remembered your message to her. I am sorry to say Mary & Nelly are as sweet as ever Bessie grows & is very bright.
I have not seen Harry's children for some days. I believe Emily was to be baptised to-day by Mr Dillon. I have not heard of Harry's arrival. I hope dear Lizzie
