Murray family letters 1994

1104 Spruce Street -
Tuesday -

You are quite right dearest Polly - where you say how hard it is to write regularly if one has not fixed days & hereafter I shall strive to keep to my former plan of studying. If my reply to your Tuesday's letter fitch as soon as it comes. It is to have to have your dress made I am also in an "agony of doubt" as to mine - a white & purple the legislature others prefer sister mother - But suppose you had bitter lace in trimmed with black velvet & white lace.

If I can find any pretty plates I will send you one by mail & copy.

The wild excitement of the present has begun but faintly as yet. Not more so than has already reached our body - Mildred & Les. sent her the large Shaak clay - Dick - a perfect set of Bossuet bound in calf - Harry Kelly a piece of R. Vincentes - extremely pretty & delicate - Mrs Cadwalader & Sally a repeater coffee pot (made for after dinner coffee) & sugar bowl with tongs
