MARYLAND ODD FELLOWS PLAN BIG CELEBRATION

Every Lodge In State To Be Represented At Centennial Convention In September.

Every lodge of Odd Fellows in Maryland will be represented at the Convention and Centennial Celebration at Baltimore in September, for Maryland, the home of American Odd Fellowship, is going to do itself proud on that dual occasion.

Prominent men from all parts of the world will attend the celebration and every branch of Odd Fellowship will be represented. From all parts of the United States they will journey to Baltimore for the greatest event in fraternal circles that ever was staged.

The week of September 14 to 20 has been set aside and 50,000 visitors are expected to attend. Each day will be crowded with events of interest not only to the members of the order, but to Marylanders in general.

It was on April 20, 1919—just one hundred years ago last April—that American Odd Fellowship was born. At the invitation of Thomas Wildey, a few men met at the "Seven Stars" Tavern then on Second street, Baltimore. (Second street is now Water street.)

Five men were the original members of the order in the United States. They were Mr. Wildey, John Welch, John Duncan, John Cheatham and Richard Rushworth. Wildey was installed as Noble Grand and Mr. Welch as Vice-Grand. They had been called to the meeting by this quaint advertisement in the Baltimore American of March 27, 1919:

"NOTICE TO ODD FELLOWS!

"A few members of the Society of Odd Fellows will be glad to meet their brethren for the purpose of forming a lodge, on Friday evening, 2nd April, at the 'Seven Stars,' Second street, at the hour of 7 P. M."

Out of this meeting grew Washington Lodge No. 1, the parent lodge in America, a charter having been granted February 1, 1820, from Duke of York Lodge, London, England.

Thus, from this humble beginning, grew the order in America until today it is one of the most powerful and prosperous of all fraternal orders, with its present membership of more than 2,300,000; with 17,698 subordinate lodges; 3,450 encampments; 9,953 Rebekah lodges. It has paid out in reliefs and benefits the grand total of $179,727,445.88.

ILLINOIS WOMEN WILL BE ACTIVE IN THE CAMPAIGN

Plans Formulated for Their Participation in Work of Organization

45,000 Will Aid the Party.

The first state gathering of the Illinois Republican women was held in Chicago on Tuesday. District chairmen already appointed by Col. Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, Ill., chairman of the Republican state central committee, were called to a luncheon and conference by Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns, state chairman.

Plans were formulated for so thorough an organization that eventually a "block system' will be perfected to assure an accurate can... in each community. As soon as the list of district chairman is completed county chairmen will be named who will in turn be assisted by township and city chairman. Thus, by early winter, it is planned to have at least 45,000 Illinois women actively engaged in the Republican campaign.

District Chairmen

Among the district chairmen who participated in the Tuesday session are: Mrs. John T. Mason, Aurora; Mrs. J. A. Sterling, Bloomington; Mrs. John K. Ball, Carmi; Miss Anne Forsythe, Mrs. Leonard Brundage, Mrs. Irene Pease Mantonya, and Mrs. Myrtle Tanner Blackledge, Chicago. Mrs. Douglas Harvey, Dixon; Mrs. Ernest D. Griffin, Grant Park; Mrs. L. H. Dennison, Galesburg; Mrs. G. E. McMahon, Olney; Mrs. Alice O. Curran, Macomb; Mrs. Walter Forbes, Rockford; Mrs. H. M. Dun... Savoy, and Miss Sallie Perkins, Springfield. Mrs. Medill McC... Republican national leader ... the chief speaker.

Mrs. Dobyns' Views

Politics demand the same wholesouled support as did the war, in the opinion of Mrs. Dobyns, who was an ardent worker in the Red Cross and headed the speakers' bureau in Liberty Loan campaigns.

"The greatest antidote for bolshevism is the patriotic interest that home-loving women, as well as men, can display in their use of the ballot," she declares.

Aside from the women chairmen there will be no separate organization for women in the Republican ranks, the leaders believing that the heartiest co-operation is secured through a "fifty-fifty" working basis.

Printer's Ink.

The greatest service rendered by a local newspaper, therefore, is not merely the publication of interesting news, vital as that may be. It is to rally all forces in the community in behalf of civic progress.

A good home newspaper keeps constantly urging the public to join in measures of co-operation. It suggests progressive ideas. It opens its columns to people of all shades of opinion, who can propose ideas of their own. It keeps its eyes wide open to learn what other communities are doing, so that its own town shall be inspired to emulate progress achieved elsewhere.

It is the purpose of The Sentinel to work in every issue for the advance of the Home Town Cause. If anyone can suggest any practical line of action calculated to advance the interests of Westminster. The Sentinel will gladly support the idea and give it all possible prominence.

At the present level of prices, any merchant who advertises a bargain in The Sentinel is going to get it read, even if he made an effort to place it in the most obscure corner of the paper.
