a victor. He encouraged us by speaking most gratefully of the Comfort & help of the Lady help that he had always derived from the Aux. and asked that he might continue to help him with our prayers.
Mr. Packard, after saying a prayer, left Miss Molly Murray in the Chair. She appointed Miss Thomas, Miss E. H. Morgan & Mrs. J. Hall a Committee to draw up a resolution of the appreciation of the Aux. of Mr. Packards valuable help to us during the time he has been our president.
The Aux. adjourned to meet the 1st Friday of the Month during the Summer.

July 2nd The Aux met on the 2nd of July with five members present. The Sec. being absent the Minutes were not read. The Resolution prepared by the Com. on Mr. Packard's valuable help was read, and is recorded here.
The Ladies of the West Point Auxiliary desire to express to Mr. Packard their heartfelt gratitude for the kindness & interest with which he always presided over their Meetings and for the assistance he gave them by his sympathy & wise counsel.
They also wish to express their deep regret at his departure and to assure him that he will ever be most gratefully & affectionately remembered by them at their Meetings, in their homes and in their prayers.
