Secretary Alice M. Murray

Delegates to the Annual Meeting of the Maryland Branch were elected & are - Mrs John T. Hall, Mrs Galloway Cheston & A. M. Murray.

Mrs C. M. Cheston was also nominated for 2d Vice President and Miss Mary Hall assistant Treas. the latter begged that the Society would respect the wishes of our Treasurer who had asked for an assistant and wished it to be Miss Carrie Murray. It was decided that considering the small amount asked for Japan & Alaska and in view of the urgent appeals of Bishop Rowe for immediate assistance in the work there that the amount in hand Now - $25.33 should be sent to him, and that the work during the rest of the year for Japan should the amount made in latter half of the year exceed the amount now sent to Alaska they are to be equalized. The President thought we had done right in this resolve, and spoke of the importance of the hospital work undertaken by Bishop Rowe and the exceptionable opportunity it gives of ministering to the soul as well as the body. But he considers the work in Japan of greater importance because of the permanance against the shifting population now in Alaska. And spoke of the intelligence & sincere piety of a class mate in the Theological Seminary. Whose Christian character opened his eyes to the importance of work amongst the Japanese. He also spoke of
