1894 - 1904 Christ Church Branch Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Society Minutes

blankets for his Indian School - St Mary's -
It was decided that blankets would be too expensive for us to contribute but Mr Plummer suggested that we might make comforts instead - this was moved, seconded & carried and the Sec. was directed to write to Bishop Hare & ask if they would be acceptable.
Mr Plummer said that he would appreciate the collection taken up in church on the following Wednesday - at the service specially for Missions, to the purpose of purchasing materials for the comforts.
After singing a hymn & prayer the Aux. adjourned to meet on the 19th.
There was no meeting on the 19th.

Nov. 1st The Woman's Aux. met on the 1st of Nov. Vice-president Miss Molly Murray was in the chair and opened the meeting with prayer. There were 10 members present. The minutes were read & approved. Miss Molly Murray stated the collection on Wednesday which Mr Plummer gave to the Aux. for materials for the comforts was $7.25. The material cost $5.25 & this left $2.00 for the 2nd cotton for the lapel. Miss Mary Hale - our delegate to the Triennial Meeting made her report - telling very interesting addresses from the Bishops of Indiana & Spokane and from Miss Leuda the Japanese lady sent to this meeting by request of the Empress of Japan. Our delegate was very much impressed with the importance of our sending delegates to these meetings.
Delegates were appointed to the annual meeting in Baltimore on the 9th.
A good deal of work was done on the comforts and while this was being done Miss Elizabeth Murray read interesting letters about the St Mary's School for Indian girls - and about the Convocation held in Dakota - these were sent to us by Bishop Hare when he wrote to say that comforts would be acceptable in place of blankets.
The Society adjourned to meet on Monday -

Nov. 14th A special meeting was held on Monday to make the comforts 10 members were present and 3 comforts were made.

" 16th On the 16th the regular meeting was held with Vice-president Miss Molly Murray in the chair who opened the meeting with prayer - 8 members were present and Mrs King a visitor. 4 comforts were made this - making 10 in all for the Indian School - The Sec. was directed to write & tell Mrs Devries the Chairman of Indian Aid Com. that they would be sent to her on Friday's boat.
The Society adjourned to meet on the 7th of Dec.
