1844

SIDE TWO

in the blood of the Lamb."

Though you will be farther off from us, and therefore we cannot have the pleasure of seeing each other, I hope you will still remember that you have few friends who love you more sincerely than I do; and, though absent, I shall not be forgotten.

I enclose two 5 dollar notes for the porcelain candle shade, which I hope you will not have much trouble in procuring.

With the Dr's kind regards and best wishes for your happiness, believe me to be, as ever, your attached

Hettie

Wednesday evening.