1875-1880 Emily Hollingsworth morning letters 1984

SIDE ONE

Ottobine V.a Sept 4, 1883

Miss Hollingsworth;

I write you agin in relation to the land where I live to know if there is any chance to purchase enough to make me a home I am a old man and put up the buildings and paid for the land once not knowing but what the title was good when I bot of Koogler & Dundee I paid them fifty cents per acre for it and built the home and cleared off some it — if you will sell me the land please write and let me know what you will charge me per acre and I will pay the expence of surveying it —