1887 [redacted] Emily Hollingsworth incoming letters 1984

Mrs Hollingsworth
248 South Eighth St.
Philadelphia Pennsylvania

BALTIMORE JUL 14 9 30 AM 1887 MD.

Mrs Hollingsworth

Ans. 17. of July
to be Rept. July 13th 1887

age the engine and attend to every thing else that is going on. They are trying hard to find an engineer, but so far have been unsuccessful. Every thing is however going on all right and while all keep well it wont matter. We all of us want to cheer Charley up as much as possible in every way. He hopes to make something out of his horses that he bought - if you see Israel you can ask him if he wants a pair or knows of any one who wants a pair of young and handsome horses, or if you should see Uncle Israel you might mention it to him.

It is boat time so farewell dear Cousin with more thanks than I can write to you from one and all of us.

Your own loving child
Mary H. Murray