Here Is Picture Churches Have Chosen As That of the Typical American Girl

SEEKING a poster which correctly presented the typical American daughter in her present day attitude to the Church, the art directors of the Interchurch World Movement chose the painting of Denman Fink.

This serene, calm-eyed, wholesome young woman was selected as the type of the daughters of America being reared under the influence of the Christian Church. Mr. Fink's painting shows her here pausing as though waiting for her parents to join in restoring the complete membership attendance of this place of worship, one of the objectives of the Interchurch World Movement in which the evangelical group of Protestant Churches has joined.

The poster has been prepared for distribution throughout the entire country for stimulating interest everywhere in extending the influence and ideals of the Church to men's daughters throughout the whole world.

BUDGET OF $336,777,572 FOR 1920 ANNOUNCED BY INTERCHURCH MOVEMENT

Thirty American Denominations, Co-operating in Program for World-Wide Extension, Seek Fund to Be Raised in United Simultaneous Campaign From April 25 to May 2.

Co-operating in a program for world-wide extension of religious effort, 30 American denominations have announced their budget for 1920, in which they seek a fund of $336,777,572. Of this sum $175,448,349 is to be paid in this year. Announcement of the financial program is made through the Interchurch World Movement. The raising of the money will be undertaken in a united simultaneous campaign from April 25-May 2. Of the $336,777,572 to be raised $229,000,000 will be expended in America.

Coincident with the announcement of the budget Dr. S. Earl Taylor, general secretary of the Interchurch World Movement, issued this statement:

"In presenting the budget the Interchurch World Movement asks nothing for itself. All of the expenses incurred will be paid by the co-operating agencies, and the Interchurch World Movement is merely the servant of all.

"The budget represents an earnest attempt on the part of thoughtful Christian men and women to make a study of the world's needs as viewed from the standpoint of the co-operating churches and to lay these needs upon the minds, the hearts and the consciences of the people of America, thus placing the responsibility where it belongs—upon the shoulders of the individuals who make up that element of our Republic who believe that the security of our democratic foundations has been because they have rested upon the Christian home, the open Bible, the free school and the free church."

The purposes for which the money is to be expended are: Foreign Missions, $107,661,488; Home Missions, $109,949,037; American Education, $78,837,431; American Religious Education, $5,931,925; American Hospitals and Homes, $5,116,465; American Ministerial Pensions and Relief, $20,510,299; miscellaneous, $8,770,927.

The miscellaneous item of the budget covers expenditures for war relief, temperance, enlistment campaign, etc.

The 30 denominations and the extent to which they participate in the financial campaign follow:

Advent Christian Church, $35,600; Northern Baptist Convention, $130,533,000; National Baptist Convention, $10,250,000; General Baptists, $272,500; Church of the Brethren, $8,219,598; Brethren Church, $200,000; Christian Church, $727,693; Congregational Churches, $16,508,470; Disciples of Christ, $12,501,138; Evangelical Association, $1,394,260; United Evangelical Church, $805,983; Society of Friends in America, $4,532,081; Society of Friends in California, $40,000; Holiness Church, $50,000; Evangelical Synod of North America, Lutheran, $1,846,521; General Conference of Mennonites, $82,000; Methodist Episcopal Church, $34,485,787; Methodist Protestant Church, $1,745,866; Free Methodist Church of North America, $6,234,986; African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, $212,000; Colored Methodist Episcopal, $250,000; Reformed Zion Union Apostolic Church, $17,263; Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., $44,970,000; Presbyterian Church in the United States (South), $7,865,445; Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod, $392,264; Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America, Synod, $529,472; United Presbyterian Church, $31,977,457; Reformed Church in America, $2,136,091; Reformed Church in the United States, $16,916,085; Church of the United Brethren in Christ, $6,546,662.

In addition to the 30 denominations which take direct, active part in the co-operative religious effort, the following additional organizations have indorsed the program of the Interchurch World Movement, but do not this year participate in the financial campaign:

The Foreign Christian Missionary Society (Disciples), the Christian Woman's Board of Missions (Disciples), the Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity (Disciples), the Board of Missions, Methodist Episcopal Church (South); the Freedmen's Board, United Presbyterian; the Woman's Missionary Association, United Brethren in Christ; the Society of the United Brethren for Propagating the Gospel Among the Heathen, Moravian Church.

Of the sum of $34,485,737 opposite the name of the Methodist Episcopal Church it is stated that $21,000,000 already has been subscribed in the Centenary Campaign.

In announcing the details of the financial program Lyman L. Pierce, director general of the united simultaneous campaign, said:

"The 30 denominational campaigns will be conducted simultaneously from April 25 to May 2, each following its own denominational channels and having full freedom of action. In addition, the campaign will be a united campaign as well.

"It is proposed in every community throughout America to call on that great, friendly constituency which is not directly allied with the church as members to take its share in the raising of funds. To this end in every community there will be a United Simultaneous Financial Campaign Committee. This committee will organize a great Citizens' Division, to stand side by side with the denominational divisions in providing the financial objective of each community.

"The raising of the $336,777,000 will be equitably and justly distributed among the states. Each state will make quotas on the same fair basis to each county. The county will make quotas to the communities, and the communities will raise the funds through an organization made up of a number of divisions. Each local church will maintain its identity and be a unit in its denominational division."

After explaining that the Foreign Survey of the Interchurch World Movement is designed to disclose the unfinished task of the church in foreign fields Mr. Pierce says:

"There is now in progress throughout America a Home Survey, which includes an exhaustive study of the problems of the city. Some of these have been completed and are available as demonstration of the thoroughness and system with which these co-operating denominations have sought to face the problems which the Church must meet in the American cities if they are to be met.

"In approximately 70 per cent of the counties throughout America the Rural Survey is under way. Some counties have been completed and can be used as typical of the exhaustive nature of this study of rural problems. It is shown as a result of these studies that, while there are not too many churches, as has been often stated, there may possibly be a better distribution of these churches and of the ministers, who are the great influences back of the Church. This matter of distribution is being referred back to the denominations for a policy to be determined by them."

CHURCHES TO NEED 100,000 WORKERS

This Is Estimate of Force Required by Interchurch World Movement Program.

9,000 NEW MISSIONARIES TO GO TO FOREIGN FIELDS

Burden of Preparation Rests Chiefly on Denominational Schools and Colleges.

More than 100,000 workers will be needed during the next five years in the world campaign planned by America's Protestant churches affiliated with the Interchurch World Movement. More than 9,000 new missionaries are to be recruited for the foreign fields alone, and thousands of other workers, lay and clerical, are to be secured for churches in the affiliated organizations of this country. Where are they all to come from?

It used to be the notion that the only essential equipment needed by a person who proposed to devote his life to the church was a "call." On the other hand, the modern mission worker knows that, while devotion to duty is an absolutely indispensable requisite, it must be supplemented by highly specialized training. As much executive equipment is required, it is commented, to direct a congregation as to direct a business, for the successful clergyman must know modern life in all its many sided phases quite as well as Biblical history. The missionary nowadays must often teach agriculture, carpentry, hygiene or sanitation to pave the way to the gospel.

Most of the church workers of today are trained in church schools and colleges, the Interchurch survey shows. A preliminary survey of education in the United States made by the Interchurch has brought out the fact that 90 per cent of the ministers and missionaries in service have received their education in institutions under the control of the church. To these institutions the church must look, it is believed, for most of its future workers.

Part of the fund that is to be collected by the Interchurch World Movement will be apportioned among the denominational schools and colleges supported by the churches which are taking part in the campaign.

BIG STRIDES IN WOOD CAMPAIGN

Support Coming From All Sections of the Country for His Presidential Nomination.

New York.—General Leonard Wood's campaign for the presidential nomination on the Republican ticket is gathering strength and momentum more rapidly than even his most ardent supporters believed would be possible this far in advance of the National Convention, June 8.

From an humble, informal beginning in the minds of a few of General Wood's friends and admirers a few months ago, the "Wood for President" movement has spread throughout the country and there is a nation-wide demand for him as the next occupant of the White House to pilot the country through the trying days of readjustment which lie ahead.

General Wood's campaign managers are daily in receipt of the most gratifying reports from the thirty-five or more states in which there are flourishing and constantly increasing Leonard Wood Leagues. The movement is spreading so rapidly that General Wood's managers are working night and day to keep up with it. Not only are the states in which there are Wood organizations bubbling with enthusiasm over his prospective nomination, but from the native states of favorite sons, who are opposing General Wood, there continue to come the strongest and most sincere assurances that he is the popular choice of a majority of the voters. All the indications are that the people throughout the nation intend commandeering him as their leader in the White House because of his remarkable record as an executive, his marvelous powers as an administrator, abundantly shown in Cuba, the Philippines and during the world war, and because of his frank and fearless stand on the paramount issues of the day.

Wood Against Field.

"It is a case of Wood against the field," said Congressman Norman J. Gould, eastern manager of General Wood's campaign. "General Wood has a commanding lead because of the great amount of personal, volunteer work done by his friends and admirers before the campaign committee came into existence. The support General Wood is receiving from voters all over the country clearly indicates that they will instruct their delegates to vote for him in the convention and that the number of delegates so instructed will be sufficient to give General Wood the nomination. There will be 984 votes in the convention. General Wood will have 300 pledged delegates when the convention opens, and will need only 183 more to get the nomination."

Following General Wood's victory in New Hampshire, the first state in the Union to hold a primary for the selection of delegates, Congressman W. W. Lufkin, who is directing Wood's campaign in Massachusetts, said a careful canvass of New England showed practically every state in that section would support the general by sending delegates to the convention pledged to his nomination. Governor Milliken of Maine personally assured General Wood in Boston, recently, that that state was solidly for him.

Mr. Hitchcock's affiliating himself actively with the Wood campaign has brought strong support from the South for the general. Mr. Hitchcock has a host of friends and admirers in the South and they have been writing him many letters of congratulation on joining Wood and assuring him that the general will have many, if not all, of the Southern delegations in the convention with him.

Announcement is made by the Wood managers that they will put up an active fight for delegates in Ohio against Senator Harding and in Illinois against Governor Lowden. William Cooper Procter, national campaign manager for General Wood, has issued an unqualified denial that either General Wood or anyone connected with his candidacy will attempt to unseat Will Hays as chairman of the Republican National Committee after the national convention. This statement is official and is made in reply to baseless stories circulated by General Wood's opponents for the obvious purpose of stirring up trouble between the chairman of the Republican National Committee and General Wood.
