NOTICE TO OUR PATRONS

I wish to announce to my friends and patrons that I have purchased the entire stock and fixtures of the Undertaking and Furniture Business of F. A. Sharrer & Son.

I have been connected with the Business as a partner with my late uncle, Mr. Frank C. Sharrer, for the past three years and have had complete charge of the Business for the past year.

I earnestly request the support of our many friends and hope to give satisfaction through courteous treatment, efficient service and square dealing.

Very Sincerely,

J. F. REESE

Plant Corn On Time

The owner of a "Frick Tractor" never worries over a late season. When the time comes he can have his fields ready for the planter before the neighbor with horses is well started.

The value of a Tractor which can be depended on, at critical periods of the year is hard to estimate, for a days work may at times hold in the balance hundreds of dollars.

We are prepared to make emergency deliveries.

Full information on request.

Shoe manufacturers oppose labelling shoes that contain inferior material, but when they put in anything of superior value they feel it is their duty to have it properly tagged.

Motto of a large part of the population: If you don't do any work today, you are sure to have something to do to-morrow.

A Plucky Woman

won't be imposed upon by a dealer who sends her inferior coal. She will return it and buy from a merchant who gives good value. We are noted for the quality of our coal and for giving full weight. The extra heating value of our coal makes it more economical than the ordinary kind.
