1889-1889, n.d. Emily Hollingsworth Incoming Files

SIDE ONE

STEAMBOAT
DUE 2
rec'd at Solitude
Aug'st 11th Thursday
ans same day there.

BALTIMORE
AUG
10
10PM
1887
MD.

Mrs Hollingsworth
520 Tasker Street
Philadelphia Pennsylvania

Seems as if he had taken that for himself. If so has he not been paid in this way for his interest in that part of the land? Has he then any additional claim upon this 1760 acres? Doubtless you understand all about it - and if you do not - it is not worth while to worry about it - I presume Charlie will ask Roller to explain it to him. The most valuable minerals are probably in these "undivided interests." We heard yesterday that Fanny Murray jr expects to sail for England on the 23rd of this month on the Caspian - from Baltimore with Mrs Mercer and Jennie. She will go to a friend who is living in the South of England I think. They hope the trip and visit may do her good - she is wretched here all the time, and they do of course feel anxious as to how she will bear the voyage. The Steamer stops at

Solitude Aug 10th 1887

My dear Cousin Emily

Many thanks for your dear letter received Monday evening and for all the love it contains. I trust you are enjoying this delightful change in the weather as much as we are. I am thankful to be able to report all well. Last Monday Mr Burwell returned from Virginia sick - for which we feel very sorry both on his own account and Charley's. But I hear on all accounts he is really a very sick man. Charley wrote to decide that he would expect him here on Friday or Saturday and would engage rooms at a