STAR THEATRE
WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

THURSDAY & FRIDAY
APRIL 29 and 30th.

The Photoplay With An Amazing Soul

MAYFLOWER PHOTOPLAY CORPORATION Presents

GEORGE LOANE TUCKER'S

PRODUCTION

"THE MIRACLE MAN"

From the play by GEORGE M. COHAN. Based on the story by FRANK L. PACKARD

To Physicians and Surgeons

Have you a case you can not cure? See this picture.

To Grocers

Can you solve the high cost of living? See this picture.

To Auto Dealers

Did you ever drive a car that wasn't tired?

To the Lawyers

Have you ever heard of a man who never lost a case?

Well, See This Picture.

The Best Photo-Plays Made In The World

Will be Shown at The STAR The Special Attractions will be Shown Thursday and Friday Each Week

TO THE PUBLIC:—Do you remember when butter was 20c a pound and eggs 10c a doz.? A surprise is in store for you in this picture.

Afternoon 22c. 2 & 4 P. M.

Night 28c. 6.30, 8.00, 9.30 P. M.

UNION MILLS

The funeral of our late venerable townsman, Martin Yingling, took place on the morning of the 17 inst, interment being made in Silver Run cemetery. Rev. John S. Adam, pastor of the Reformed Church at that place, had charge of the funeral services. The pallbearers were relatives of the deceased, as follows. Russell Zacharias, Monias V. Bankert, John C. Bankert, H. Wirt Reinecker, Charles Gerwig and Paul Buckey. H. Bankard and Son, of Westminster, were the undertakers.

Mrs. Walter L. Frazier, who resides in Cincinnati, Ohio, came home to attend her father's funeral. She was formerly Miss Lizzie Yingling.

The cement layers have completed work for the present at the stone bridge and will next commence operations at the culvert near Daniel Oratin's, and work south, through the village. The fourfoot cut at the M. E. Church, is nearly finished.

The first of this week Miss Marian Shriver returned home from her European trip.

The intermittent rains now so prevalent, are greatly retarding the already long delayed spring work on the farms.

UNIONTOWN

Mrs. Addie, wife of Alfred Yingling, who died at her home in Bark Hill, last Friday, was buried in the Lutheran cemetery, Tuesday afternoon, after services held in the Bethel near her home.

Miss Nettie Starr, Westminster is a visitor at the home of Solomon Myers.

Mrs. Clara Crabbs, Hagerstown, is visiting her sister, Miss Anna Baust, this week.

Mrs. George Crumbacker, Waynesboro, visited her son, Charles Crumbacker and family, last week.

Harry Yingling, wife and son, Elmer, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at L. F. Eckard's.

Mrs. M. C. Cookson, and Mrs. Annie Babylon, have returned to their homes after being away for the winter.

Mrs. and Dr. J. J. Weaver, have opened their home for the summer after spending the winter in Washington with their daughter, Mrs. E. K. Fox. Miss Lena Dunsing, Baltimore, will be with them, as usual.

Miss Mabel, the adopted daughter of Rev. C. H. Dobson, is suffering from the effects of a nervous breakdown, this week.

PLEASANT GROVE AND REESE

The new pastor, Rev. Sadofsky, was present on Sunday and preached to a fine audience taking for his theme, "Jesus is Calling" He will move to his new home on the State Road, Mr. Chas. Bell's house, on Tuesday next. It is hoped the members of the churches will remember this date and be on hand to assist in every way. The parsonage has been cleaned and made ready for furniture &c.

Mrs. Arch Mancha of Baltimore, was home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mancha for a few days. They are recovering from Grippe and at this time able to be up and about.

Mr. N. Evans of Baltimore, is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Theo. Shipley.

Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Barnes called on friends in our village on their way back to their home in Thurmont for another year. Their many friends will be glad to know they are well and happy to go back.

Rev. Field and family also former pastor were guests at home of Mr. and Mrs. Butler Gorsuch, on Thursday.

CARROLLTON

Rev. J. A. Saxten preached a very interesting sermon in the Bethel on Sunday morning, to a large audience. Sunday School was reorganized which resulted as follows: E. C. Ebaugh was re-elected superintendent; W. H. Long, assistant superintendent; Jennie Hughes, secretary; Emory Evans, assistant secretary; Ethel Hughes, organist; John Houck, chorister. The class of fifteen little girls taught by Gussie Blizzard raised $22.85 in their Easter Bells.

There will be Sunday School at 9.30 on Sunday morning, services afterward; Missionary Christian Endeavor on Sunday evening 7.45. Come out and help make these services interesting.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Sue Keller, May 1st. Mrs. Keller requests each member to bring an extra dime along as in her position she will be unable to do any "basket work" as she has Mrs. Buckingham, who is an invalid, with her at present. A good attendance and "be on time" is requested.

Rev. B. B. Wenger continues the same, let us try to cheer him up by writing or sending him a card. His address is John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder visited Ernest Snyder and family, of Houcksville, on Sunday.

Mrs. T. Arthur Smith of Washington, is visiting her mother and father-in-law, on Bethel Heights.

Mrs. Bowman, of Middleburg, is spending sometime with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Crouse.

While burning rubbish from a wood box Mrs. Wesley Pickett had the misfortune of having an exploding bullet to lodge above her ankle. She went to the University Hospital for an examination. Prof. Bay says he thinks it will work out itself in a couple weeks.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Jazz music and shows said to be luring farm hands into the cities, where they hear the landlady quite frequently perform her far famed song and dance act entitled "More money for board".

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving remembrance of my dear son, Herbert, who departed this life four years ago, April 25, 1916.

Dear son, I am lonesome and sad
To think how soon you passed away,
My heart is heavy,
My grief's my pain,
When I think of you, dear son,
That death had to claim.

We did our best, God only knows,
Save his life we could not do,
For some good cause, we cannot tell,
He took him home with Him to dwell,
From a world of pain and sorrow
To a land of peace and rest.

By his mother,
Mrs. John Greenwood.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, James A. Aldridge, who departed this life on February 21st, 1909.

The eleventh year has past since we laid him to rest.
Oh, the sadness with in my breast!
The time will come when we can meet.
I pray it will be at Jesus feet.

Heart of our life is buried deep
Under the sod where our dear Jimmy sleeps.

By his loving, mother.

PUBLIC SALE
OF VALUABLE
PERSONAL PROPERTY

Having sold my farm I will sell at public sale, where I now reside, 3 miles North of Woodbine at J. M. Pickett's stone on the Sams Creek Road,

THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1920,

at 12 o'clock, sharp, the following personal property, to wit:

One sorrel horse; brown mule, works in all harness; good cow, heifer, 3 sows and pigs, 3 brood sows, boar, 2 sows and boar are thorough bred Duroc, entitled to be registered, and 2 fine shoats.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS

3-horse XX Oliver seed plow, 2-horse 40 Oliver, Syracuse lever harrow (new), 18-tooth Perry harrow, 2 single shovel plows, 2 corn and potato coverers, 2 3-shovel drags, double shovel plow, potato digger, (John Deere), 2-horse walking cultivator, single row corn planter, Bickford Hoffmand grain drill, Johnson mower, grain cradle, 2-horse Sterling wagon and bed, new; low down iron wagon with bed and brake, small wagon, hay carriage, dump cart, Jersey wagon, top buggy, heavy slide, light slide, set breechbands, 2 sets lead harness, 2 sets plow harness, set cart harness, lot single harness, set spring wagon harness, lot collars, bridles and halters, 3 sets fly nets, 2 pr. check lines, 4-horse lead line, 2 pr. buggy lines, about 10 tons oyster shells, ton fertilizer, sack Kainit, about 1 ton hen manure and ashes, 5 sacks Hydrated lime, grind stone, garden plow, lot grain rakes, garden rakes, shovels, hoes, mattocks, spades, 2 digging irons, 2 crow bars, 3 log chains, lot other chains, lot large grain boxes, lot empty bbls., large sack box, 200 grain sacks, lot potato sacks, lot white grain sacks, lot shingles and flooring boards; 30-foot ext. ladder, 20-ft. ext. ladder, corn by the bbl., oats, rye and buckwheat, by the bu., hay, by the ton; fodder by the bundle, lot seed potatoes, lot chicken coops, lot hog troughs, large dinner bell, large iron kettle and stand, 10-gal. churn, 2 bu. baskets, 3 half-bushel baskets.

HOUSEHOLD AND KITCHEN FURNITURE

Large range, good baker; No. 8 cook stove, large chunk stove, 10-ft. ext. table, drop leaf table, tin safe, china cupboard, large bureau, small stand, couch, 6-dining room chairs, 6 kitchen chairs, 2 rocking chairs, 2 old-time bureaus, 2 beds and bedding completed, lot quilts, comforts, blankets, pillows, bolsters and cases, 2 good clocks, 2 mirrors, lot pictures and frames, large clothes basket, 3 large home made egg baskets, a large assortment of dishes and glass ware of all kinds, lot knives and forks; lot cooking utensils of all kinds; 2 wash tubs, washing machine, wash boards, 2 fruit cupboards, lot canned fruit, preserves, jellies, etc., molasses by the gallon, sugar by the lb., lot empty gars, lot milk crocks, 2 10-gal. stone jars, 6 sad irons, ironing board, lot matting, lot rag carpet, lot linoleum, lot table linen, lot towels. In fact, everything I have will positively be sold.

TERMS OF SLAE: All sums of $10, cash; on all sums above that amount, a credit of 6 months will be given on notes with approved security bearing interest from day of sale. Payable at Woodbine National Bank.

CHAS. H. BUCKINGHAM

F. A. Crawford Auct.

T. J. Gunn and O. T. Buchman, Clerks.

PRIVATE SALE

Intending to reduce my stock of cattle I will offer at Private Sale

4 Registered Jersey Bulls
6 to 12 Months old also

20 Jersey Cows
Graded and Registered

ROBERT GIST

PHONE 821-F12 Near Westminster, Md.

While the country is asking if the spring weather is getting the soils in good shape, the sporting element are anxious to learn if the sun is drying out the ball grounds.

Towzer complains that he never gets a taste of trousers, now that tramps have disappeared. The boys who steal fruit should still offer him some fodder.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2313-0154