My dear Cousin Emily

You will be surprised to hear, that I took a sleigh ride to day and went to Mary's! Rob came home yesterday with the report that the sleighing was very good and offered to take any one yesterday afternoon to take tea with Mary. But the wind was so high that we concluded it was best not to try such a long drive, so he took Miss Erwin and Nan over for the mail. This morning however the wind had subsided very much, so Rob took Nan, Miss Fanny, and myself, and Mary begged that we would stay to dinner; so we did and then in the afternoon I paid
