PROCESSIONAL "A Mighty Fortress is our God"

INVOCATION AND LORD'S PRAYER — Rev. E. H. Van Dyke, D. D.

ANTHEM: — The College Choir

THE COMMANDMENTS, with Responses, — Prof. E. A. Warfield, Ph. D.

THE PSALTER — Rev. A. C. Day

1 NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy and for thy truth's sake.
2 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God?
3 But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.
4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they but they see not:
6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:
7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.
8 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.
9 O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.
10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.
11 Ye that fear the LORD trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.
12 The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.
13 He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great.
14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.
15 Ye are blessed of the LORD which made heaven and earth.
16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD'S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.
17 The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence.
18 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise ye the LORD.

SCRIPTURE LESSON — Hebrews IX. 1-15 — Rev. C. W. Walck

HYMN:

1. Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom his world rejoices:
Who, from our mothers' arms,
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.
2. O may this bounteous God
Though all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in his grace
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.
3. All praise and thanks to God,
The Father, now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest, heaven;
The One Eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For this it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

BIG NEW YORK AUTHOR PRAISES TELEPHONE GIRLS' BRAVERY

Maryland Telephone Operator Wearing Her "Head Set"

"I was asked a few days ago about the temperament of telephone operators," says Sherman Rogers, author and editor, "and I answered the query by saying that I had married an exchange girl, and that after two years of married life I had never seen her flustered in the slightest degree. I couldn't give them any better recommendation than by vigorously asserting that if I had to do it over again I would certainly pick a telephone operator for my better half."

Mr. Rogers would find more than eighteen hundred young women employed as telephone operators in the state of Maryland, a wide choice from which to pick a wife if he cared to do so again.

The matter of temperament is one which the Chesapeake and Potomac telephone company studies carefully. The training of the telephone operator is one which subjects mind and body to beneficial discipline; and long years of experience has proven that the young women of the switchboard are equal to any emergency. Clippings from newspapers all over the country show that when telephone girls are called upon to face emergencies they show heroism easily comparable with that quality of bravery for which governments confer special decorations and "crosses" in war time.

Telephone girls have been the means of saving thousands of lives and millions of dollars in property in time of flood, fire and other disaster. Operatives in factories have been warned of fire; dwellers in valleys have been called up by the hundreds, to learn that a dam has broken. In hotel fires, telephone girls have stuck through to the end calling up each guest to avert a holocaust.

It takes about one year to produce a thoroughly efficient telephone operator. Painstaking schooling is a part of the preliminary work. Any telephone official or operator can vouch for the statement that a large part of the training is in teaching the beginner to be efficient, and above all to keep her temper in spite of the thoughtless criticism which is sometimes levelled at her from the other end of the line.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

No. 5220 Equity.

In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity.

Agnes May Bell, Plaintiff, vs.
Benjamin D. Bell, Defendant.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree of divorce a vinculo matrimonii of Agnes May Bell, the plaintiff, from Benjamin D. Bell, the Defendant, the bill states that on the nineteenth day of December, 1917, the Plaintiff was married to the Defendant at the Home of Plantiff's parents, New Windsor, Carroll County, Maryland; by the Reverend W. Philip Englar, a Minister of the Gospel of the Church of the Brethren; that from and after said marriage the Plaintiff and the Defendant resided in Carroll County and State aforesaid at the Home of the Plaintiff's parents and elsewhere in said county until on or about March 24, 1920, when the Defendant left his Home and this Plaintiff and went with a woman named Florence Baublitz from New Windsor to Baltimore, in said State of Maryland, and there committed the crime of adultery with said Florence Baublitz; that prior to said March 24, 1920 the said Defendant had on divers occasions committed the crime of adultery with said Florence Baublitz and with women to your Complainant unknown; that since March 24, 1920 the Plaintiff has not co-habited with said Defendant; that said Defendant has not left any property whatsoever in possession of Plaintiff; that of the children born of said marriage, a son, George William Emory Bell, born May 22, 1918 now lives with his Mother, the Plaintiff in this cause; that the Defendant, Benjamin D. Bell, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and when last heard from was a resident of the City of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri.

The Bill then prays,

(a) That the complainant may be divorced a vinculo martimonii from he said Benjamin D. Bell.

(b) That she may have such other and further relief as her case may require.

It is thereupon this 25th day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and twenty, by the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity, ordered that the Plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll County, for four successive weeks, before the 28th day of June, 1920, give notice to Benjamin D. Bell, non-resident Defendant, of the object and substance of this Bill warning him to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the 15th day of July next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
