Items of Local Interest

Miss Nellie and Lola Smith, of Sterling, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Smith, Penna. Ave.

This week Miss I. Jewel Simpson, of this city, visited her brothers William and Earl in New York City.

Freight trains over the Western Maryland Railroad yesterday began to move after having been tied up for several days by striking employees.

Mrs. Thomas R. Smith, of New Windsor, was a guest the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Smith, Penna. Ave.

On Saturday last the house and lot situated on East Green street, this city, offered at public sale by Franklin H. Erb, trustee, was withdrawn at a bid of $1700.

Friday last John N. Mackall. chairman of the State Roads Commission announced that the Taneytown—Emmitsburg state road had been completed and was open to traffic

Because of the railroad strike Messrs. Thomas, Bennett and Hunter, contractors building the Westminster and Littlestown state road, are quarrying stone at Roop's Quarry, near Spring Mills, this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis N. Chenoweth of Baltimore, were guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Wimert, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wimert, Penna Ave., on Sunday last.

Sylvester Mathias, of Chambersburg, Pa., a former resident of this county, and one of the three surviving members of Burns Post G. A. R., of this city, this week visited his brother Leander Mathias, of E. Main street, this city His many friends were glad to see him

Roy Hershey, aged 18 years, and his bride who was Mae Hershey, alleged to be 18 but whose father declares is only 15 years old, an account of whose runaway marriage was published in the last issue of the Sentinel, were separated Thursday last at Hanover following the arrest of Hershey and his father, Cletus Hershey on charges growing out of the elopement of the youthful pair preferred by the girls father. The runaway couple obtained a license here and were married by Rev. Chalmers W. Walck, of this city.

Saturday last Benjamin F. Poole, who was convicted of operating an illicit still at Granite, in Baltimore county, and sentenced by Judge John C. Rose of the United States District Court in Baltimore to pay a fine of $100 in each of two cases and be confined in jail for the period of three months, was brought here and lodged in jail by Deputy Marshal Michael Noon, he having requested Judge Rose to send him to the jail of this county. It is the first time a United States prisoner was sentenced to serve a term in the jail here.

This week the following persons from Westminster attended the meet- of the State Teachers' Association at Ocean City, Maryland: Dr. H. M. Fitzhugh, President of the State Board of Education; Prof. M. S. H. Unger, Superintendent of schools; Walter Davis, Principal of Westminster High School; Miss Ethel B. Manahan, Principal West End Primary School; Miss Mary Weagley, teacher at Graceland school, and Charles Reed, clerk to the Board of Education. Miss Manahan read a paper on Language Projects for Primary Grades.

Plans are being made by the authorities of Mount Airy, this county, to float a bond issue of $22,000, provided by the last Legislature and ratified by the voters of the town, for a new water system. The bonds will draw interest at the rate of 5 per cent. and will be serial, $1,000 worth to be taken up annually. The bonds will be exempt from municipal and county taxation and it is thought that the larger portion, perhaps the entire issue, will be subscribed by residents of the town and community. Some time ago a bond issue of $18,000 was floated for street improvement.

Sunday night last Guy Zentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abram N. Zentz, of near this city, was caught under a Ford car, which had turned over on the Washington road, near this city, and his spine was injured. Young Zentz, accompanied by Percy Rainey and two ladies, was driving a Ford car on the Washington road toward this city and, in making the bend in the road opposite the residence of Theodore Zimmerman, he lost control of the car, which ran through a fence and turned over, pinning young Zentz under it. The other occupants were thrown out and one of the young ladies had a rib broken.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dennis Lynch, of Pittsburgh, are visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. Wm. B. Nelson, of Portland, Oregon, who was visiting relatives in this city, Saturday returned home.

The Court House will be closed Saturday and Monday July 3rd and 5th.

Miss Katherine A. Sullivan of this city is spending ten days in Chambersburg, attending a Missionary Conference at Wilson College.

Jacob H. Buffington, formely of Taneytown, but now a resident of New Oxford, Pa., yesterday transacted business in this city.

Yesterday the Maryland State College ceased to exist as a separate unit and became part of the University of Maryland.

Friday last while loading baggage Singleton Doram, colored, of this city, fell from a wagon and broke a bone in his right hand.

Last Sunday's Baltimore American contained an excellent photo of the 1920 graduating class of the Westminster High School.

Milton A. Sullivan, real estate agent has sold the property of Charles Fuhrman and wife located on Pennsylvania avenue to Dorothy E. Harman of this city.

Leslie Wimert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wimert, of this city, now serving in the U. S. Navy is very ill. He is in a hospital at Newport Rhode Island.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crumbacker, of Waynesboro, announce the marriage of their son, Orval to Lillian May Cordell, to take place Saturday evening, July the 3rd at Ringgold, Md.

"Angel's Serenade," played as a flute solo, by J. F. Morrow, at St. Paul's Reformed church last Sunday evening, was well rendered. The solo was beautifully elaborated by St. Paul's organist, Miss Mary Snader.

Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Taylor, of Court street, this city, entertained at dinner Register of Wills William Arthur and Mrs. Arthur and Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Myers and son Arthur Myers, of Frizellburg, in honor of Mrs. Arthur's birthday.

Unless the consolidated Public Utilities Company receives more coal immediately it will not be able to furnish gas next week. The freight congestion, due to striking railroad men, has tied up several cars of coal which the company expected to have on hand.

On Wednesday the county commissioners of this county fixed the tax rate for 1920 at $1.25, which with the State taxes at 36-31|72 cents, makes both county and state $1.61-31|72. Many other counties have increased their tax rates for 1920 from 25 to 60 cents, Frederick county having jumped its rate from $1.22 to $1.50.

Judge and Mrs. William H. Thomas, of this city, left yesterday for St. Mary's county for an extended visit to Mr. Truman Thomas, brother of the Judge, who resides on the old Thomas Homestead. During their absence their residence will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Seman, their son-in-law and daughter.

Miss I. Jewell Simpson, Supervisor of Carroll County Schools, is one of the instructors in the Johns Hopkins University Summer School, which begins July 5 and continues for six weeks. Miss Simpson will give courses in School Management and Rural School Problems and Methods.

The corporation authorities of Mount Airy have closed a contract with the Hagerstown and Frederick Railway Company for an extension of light and power lines to that town. The work will be completed in four or five months. The distance is approximately 16 miles and the company will build a heavy 33,000-volt line and establish a substation in the town.

Mr. McKinley Leister, aged 18 years, son of D. N. Leister, Deer Park Farm, near Reisterstown was taken to the University Hospital by Dr. M. L. Bott. An X-Ray picture was taken, showing the inner condyle of the thigh bone to be broken. He will be taken to the hospital as soon as the swelling subsides; the piece of bone will be removed; a plaster of paris cast will be applied and he will be obliged to remain at the hospital for some time.

CLEAR DALE

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller entertained at their home, on Sunday, Mrs. Chester Klinedinst and daughter, Geraldine and Evelyn, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dull, of Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bair, Sr., of Littlestown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bair and daughter Gladys and son Fred, of near White Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Wallick and daughter, Catherine, and sons Ralph, Acquilla and LeRoy, of near Littlestown, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Miller, Miss Esther Bair of this place, Messrs. Earl and Richard Neith, of Littlestown, and Edwin Heiser of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Myers and sons, Nevin and Preston, of near Harney, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lemmon, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilham Stear and daughter, Grace spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crabbs, of near Blacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crouse, o Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison F. Snyder and children, of this place were guests of Mr. Chas. Crouse and family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthington Crabbs and daughter, of near Littlestown, spent Sunday evening with Mr. Oliver Hesson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Weisensale and children and Mr. Wm. Weisensale, of Hanover, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Myers and family.

CARROLLTON

The pastor's quarterage will be raised on Sunday morning in the Bethel. Sunday School 9.30 A. M. The L. T. L. will meet immediately after Sunday School, we hope a good attendance. Christian Endeavor at 7.45 which will be led by E. C. Ebaugh.

A Sunday School drive is being made for new members. We hope to reach the 200 mark in the next two weeks when each class will report on work.

The aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Clarence Leppo, near Patapsco, Saturday, July 3.

Mrs. Emily Allgire suffered another one of her attacks last Wednesday, but is somewhat improved again.

Mrs. Lizzie Eyler and Vivian Wood, sister and niece of Mrs. W. H. Crouse, of Middleburg, and Miss Mary Neuman, of Key Mar, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crouse.

Mr. and Mrs. "Henny" Freise moved to Manchester, last week, and Mr. Brooks, of Baltimore, moved his family into the home recently purchased from Mr. Friese.

Mrs. Frank Synder and Mrs. Edward Leather spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rill and son Melvin, of Houcksville, Mrs. Monroe and children, of near Wesley, spent Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hughes.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lockard. Mrs. Lockard is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. B. B. Wenger.

Mrs. Wenger is in York, Pa., where she is by the bed side of her husband who is now confined to his bed. A silver tube has been put into his side for drainage. Rev. Wenger is in a serious condition and has the sympathy of his many friends.

Mr. J. E. Evans is still confined to his room.

Rev. and Mrs. Gonso and two daughters, of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Abel and two children, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor and daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Namrod Green on Sunday.

GAMBER

Christian Endeavor at Providence M. P. Church, Sunday evening, July 4th at 7:30 P. M.

Topic: "Our Duty to Our Country" found. Isa. 1:16-20. Leader, Miss Evelyn A. Barnes. All welcome.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Providence M. P. Church will attend a Union C. E. Rally which will be held at Deer Park, P. M. Church, Sunday evening at 7:30 P. M., July 11th. All welcome.

The Annual Sunday School picnic of Providence M. P. Church will be held July 24th, in the grove adjoining the church.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coleman, Thursday evening, June 24. Quite a number of people were present. The evening was enjoyed by all. After the meeting was over, refreshments were served in abundance. The Society was invited to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ashland Stocksdale, July 29th.

Mrs. Florence Barnes, of Baltimore, is spending a few days visiting friends of this place.

Mrs. Clarence Ford and daughter, Margaret, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Garver.

Miss Hollus Prugh spent Sunday evening with Miss Annie Leister.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

Babylon & Lippy Co.

"The Dependable Store"

Summer Time Necessities.

Here you will find the little necessities for your summer comfort: Silk Hose, Crepe de chine Handkerchiefs, Summer Corsets, Union Suits, Voiles Talcum Powders, Soap, Cologne, Waists, Hats, Slippers, Arch Supports, Straw Hats, Writing Paper, Camisoles, Silk Gloves and Socks.

Silk Hose

We have the largest assortment of Ladies' Silk Hose. Prices are from 50c the pair in White Silk Boot-Hose buy to $3.00. In the Black Silk Hose we have them from 79c up to $5.00, value, not to be found elsewhere. These are greatly appreciated for graduation presents.

Talcum Powders.

Colgate's well known and popular odors. Love Joy Talcum Powder in the convenient shaped cans, the large pound cans.

Silk Gloves

They come in short and long Gloves; Prices from 50c for the short gloves up to $2.00 for 16-button length; colors: Black, White and Tan.

Camisoles

Handsome Camisoles in White, Pink, Flesh, at reasonable prices.

Ladies' Waists.

We have just put on sale about 100 Ladies' Crepe de Chine, Geo Crepe. Long and short sleeves in all popular colors neatly embroided, the special price for $6.00 to $7.00 Waists we say $4.98 your choice. These values are town talk.

Ladies' Summer Vests.

Special values in Ladies' Summer Vests; 25c Union Suits from $1.00 up.

Millinery

Greatly reduced prices in Millinery. Special lot of Ladies' ready-to-wear Hats, $1.98, now on sale.

Lace and Embroideries.

Laces that have been in our stock before the war are sold at same prices. These cannot be duplicated at any price. Real Linen Laces, Handsome wide insertions; Torchon all on middle table.
For your Inspcetion. Make selection while assortment is large.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Pleasant Valley P. O. S. of A. Camp No. 7 elected the following officers on Friday evening: president, Howard Petry; vice pres., Earnest Helwig; master of forms, John W. Utermahlen; recording sec'y, Ralph Helwig; financial sec'y., Upton Myers; treasurer, Hollie Myers; conductor, George Helwig; inspector, Benjamin Myers; guard, Edgar Leister; chaplain, John F. Utermahlen; ass't. rec. secy., Theo. Miller; right sentinel, Paul Myers; left sentinel, Lloyd Brown; delegates the state convention, Rev. J. W. Reinecke, Theo. Miller, John F. Utermahlen and Edw J. Myers; alternates, John Ditch, Upton Myers, Harry J. Myers and Paul Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Harner and Miss Bruce and Ruth Harner of Harney and Mr. Howard Harner, of Cumberland, spent Sunday at Mr. John Myers'.

Mrs. Clayton Geiman has a pansy stalk from which she has picked 46 pansies and 52 buds still remain.

Sunday School at 9 o'clock A. M. and Church services in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Evan Zepp, of Hanover, is spending some time with his grandparents, Mr. Noah Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wantz, Mrs. Henry Wantz, Mrs. Gertrude Myers and Miss Ruth Etta Wantz motored to Hanover on Saturday.

Mrs. Philip Humbert had the misfortune to fall and break her hip, and is very ill at this writing.

St. Matthew's Union Sunday school will hold their annual picnic, August 14th, 1920.

Measles are still prolonging their visit in our village much to the regret of the entertainers.

A force of workmen and carpenters are forcing the work on A. Daniel Leister's Garage, which when finished will be a modern, up-to-date structure.

Mr. Uriah Bixler and wife, Mrs. Charles Starner and Mrs. Vernon Smith were visitors at Mrs. Harry Devilbiss's on Sunday.

UNION MILLS

Wheat fields are changing color rapidly and harvest will be on ie 90, next week.

Mr. Milton Bish, of Pipe Creek Valley, who underwent an operation for a serious attack of appendicitis, at the Maryland University hospital, Baltimore, is coming along very nicely and his return home the first of next week is anticipated.

At this writing (June 29,) the state road cement layers have nearly completed the two-mile stretch of concrete that was started at the Silver Run bridge and will be joined to the finished road at the upper end of our village. About 2 1-2 miles of cement will yet have to be put down to reach the Pennsylvania line. A steam shovel is now at work in that section, cutting down the hills.

Miss Mary O. and Robert T. Shriver, recently had as their guests, Miss Josephine and Mr. Harry Roche, Miss Elizabeth Shriver of Boston, Mass., and Miss Fannie Foley, of Baltimore. Miss Shriver is a great-aunt to the Roches.

The B. F. Shriver Co. closed the pea packing season at its Union Mills factory, on the 29 inst. The pea crop was a very good one in this section, averaging a ton or more to the acre.

PLEASANT GROVE & REESE

Children's Day was observed at the church, on Sunday. The children were out in force and did well. A good attendance and collection. The pastor will begin a series of sermons next preaching Sunday, from John 3, 16. All are invited to attend the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckenrode have returned from Iowa to their home well pleased with their trip, but loyal to Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stump have returned to their home in Baltimore after a long stay at the Mrs'. home.

Two of our village boys, Lester Shipley and Francis Tawney are in Md. University Hospital at this time both having been operated on and doing as well as can be expected.

Wedding bells have rung again on the Bethel Road way. Congratulations.

Mrs. Crouse of Carrollton Station was a visitor at home of Mrs. John Magee, on Thursday.

Highest Cash Price

paid for all Cattle, Hogs and Sheep. Good fresh cows and springers a specialty. All stock sold must be as represented or money refunded. Will ship every Saturday. Drop me a card and I will come and look at your stock or phone 55-J
Fattened stock hogs bought at gross weight.

CHARLES E. OWINGS, Westminster, Md.

WANTED AT ONCE

Young man 16 or 18 years of age to learn the Tinning and Plumbing Trade. Must be energetic, industrious and anxious to learn the trade. None other need apply. Bring references or be able to refer to some party who can give reference.

D. S. GEHR

Established 1866 The hardware man on the corner,
WESTMINSTER, MD.

Clerk Wanted

Medford Grocery Co.
Medford, Maryland

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE

Hereafter, and until further notice the County Commissioners of Carroll County will meet at their office in Westminster, every Monday and Tuesday of each week for the transaction of business.

By order,

SAMUEL J. STONE,
Clerk.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2313-0225