Emily Hollingsworth will

Pg 1

SIDE ONE

~~Will Book~~ 1

Copy of part of my last Will & Testament, relating to Virginia lands & their devise to Mary H. Murray. May 10th 1887. Emily Hollingsworth

Lot in Alex bequeathed to E. H. Wood & heirs forever.

To the said Mary H. Murray, daughter of the said Caspar Morris M.D. and wife of H. McMurray of West Va. I give & bequeath her heirs in fee simple & absolutely all my right, title & interest, property claim & demand which I derive as sole heir & devisee of my father Paschall Hollingsworth deceased & to all the lands real & personal estate in the counties of Pendleton, Rockingham, Augusta & Pendleton or elsewhere in the State of Virginia and West Va. which was devised to my father by Jonathan Hollingsworth & his wife Rebecca & which was my father's property at his death & which I have always seen my desire that Mary H. Murray should own the said lands & have already made sales of them to J. B. Look of Hagarstown & to the Atlantic & Ohio R.R. Co.