The proposed Roosevelt two cent piece would seem reasonable compensation to the sleeping car porter for brushing off six flakes of dust and one cinder, but unfortunately he won't see it so.

It has not recently been reported that you could always locate Col. House by calling up the White House. 'Bout time to send Mexico an ultimatum, notifying them if they don't behave we'll send 'em another note.

UNION MILLS

His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, while a guest of Robt. T. and Miss Mary O. Shriver passed his 86th birthday on Friday, 23 inst. Although there was no formal celebration of the event, it was a day of considerable activity for the Cardinal. His first duty in the morning was to say mass in the chapel in the Shriver residence. Callers were coming and going throughout the day. He gave a lengthy interview on a number of important subjects to a representative of the Baltimore American and was photographed by an artist from Baltimore. Scores of congratulatory letters and telegrams were received. The day was closed by a dinner given in his honor at Avalon, the beautiful home of Mr. B. F. Shriver. Those who called personally to pay their respects to His Eminence were: Bishop O. B. Corigan, Father Morrison and Leonard, James R. Wheeler, Charles Kauffman and Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Shriver, of Baltimore; Bishop Dennis O Connell, of Richmond, Va., Mr. and Mrs. J. Marshall Jones, of Mt. Washington, Md.; Mrs. Leslie W. Brennan, of Utica, N. Y., Father Thomas McGuigan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Shriver, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. S. Shriver, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shriver, Joseph Graham Ridgley and Charles Tilghman, of Westminster; B. Frank Shriver, Misses Madeline and Marian Shriver, Louis E. Shriver and James M. Shriver, of Union Mills.
