Republican County Central Committee Meeting.

Wednesday evening the Republican County Central Committee for this county, held a meeting at Republican headquarters in the Main-Court Inn Building, this city In the absence of Edwin M. Mellor Jr., chairman, Walter R. Rudy, of Mt. Airy district presided. The several districts were well represented and much interest and enthusiasm was shown in the work mapped out from now until election day.

In view of the fact that women will be given the right to vote plans were adopted to secure their registration and to secure a complete list of all voters of the county.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas the nineteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America has been duly ratified, thereby extending to the women of this country the right to vote at every election hereafter to be held: and

Whereas we welcome the assistance of the women in promoting the principles of the Republican party and in advancing the interests of its candidates; therefore

Be it resolved by the Republican County Central Committee of Carroll County Maryland, that the membership of this Committee be and it is hereby increased from three men from each precinct in the county, as heretofore constituted, to three men and three women from each precinct in the county; and

Be it further resolved that the present committee fill said Committee as now and hereby constituted by the appointment of three women members of said Committee from each precinct, and also by the appointment of such additional men members as are required to fill the vacancies now existing on said Committee, such members to serve until the Primary Election to be held in Carroll county in the year 1921, at which time and thereafter the members of said Committee as hereby contributed shall be elected in the manner in which the members of this Committee were elected before the passage of this resolution.

OX ROAST AND CLAM BAKE

On Saturday last Messrs. O. D. Gilbert, A. E. Campbell, Walter H. Davis, George E. Baughman, Joseph T. Hunter, Frank Leidy, John D. Bowers, Otto Deffenbach, H. Lee Stoner, W. Frank Thomas, V. H. Harbaugh and Leslie Smelser, of this county, members of Crusade Commandery No. 5, Knights Templar, of Baltimore, entertained 120 members of the commandery from Baltimore, and also members of Royal Arch Chapter, of this city, at an ox roast and clam bake at the Firemen's Building, this city. Grand Master Homer and Grand Inspector Seipp were invited but failed to attend, but Potentate of Boumi Shrine Barrett attended. A large number of the Knights first visited the swimming pool on the farm of W. Frank Thomas, and also indulged in a game of base ball before partaking of the dinner. After dinner a number of addresses were made and every one had a "bully" time.

William Curry, the butcher, dressed a steer in eleven minutes and thirty five seconds and J. Howell Davis had charge of the clam bakery and the roasting of the beef, 120 lbs. of which were consumed.

MEETING OF THE W. C. T. U.

A profitable and interesting meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was held Thursday evening, August 19th, at the home of Mrs. John Bowers. The devotional exercise was passages of scripture given by each lady present and prayer. After the devotional the president spoke of the recent home going of three of the members of the society. Mrs. Shreeve Mrs. Marriott and Mrs. Gilbert. The secretary read from the New York Christian Advocate short accounts of the life and death of Ex.-Gov. Hanley who had for years been a national worker for prohibition and whose life was so suddenly blotted out in an automobile accident. These persons "rest from their labors and their works do follow them." The August meeting is always the closing meeting of the year and the annual reports are read and delegates named for the county convention which is held in September. The reports read show the society in very good financial condition aid much work done especially among the colored people. Mrs. Margaret Peck Hill, National Organizer and Instructor for colored people, was in the county four days recently and spoke in all of the colored schools and many of their churches, to large audiences. The delegates named to the convention to be held next Thursday in Manchester are Mrs. Howard Koontz, Edward Little, David Geiman, Joseph Baust, John Saylor, J. D. Bowers, S. Luther Bare, D. F. Shipley, C. E. Forelines, Martha Shaw, Maggie Cassell and Miss Mary B. Shellman.

REPUBLICAN PARTY WELCOMES THE WOMEN OF MARYLAND

Mr. Galen L. Tait, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Maryland, comenting on the ratification of Woman's Suffrage by the Tennessee Legislature, said:

"The Republican party of Maryland heartily welcomes the women of our State of political equality, fully endowed with right to vote. Our party has consistently led in this great movement, now so triumphantly successful. Representing Maryland Republicanism, as Senator Jackson's proxy at the recent Columbus meeting of the National Republican Committee, I had the pleasure of voting for the committee's resolution calling upon the Republican members of the Tennesee Legislature to ratify the suffrage amendment. The Democratic State machine of Maryland has steadily contested this advance in human rights. The platform of the last Democratic State Convention bitterly rejected equal suffrage, and the Maryland delegates of the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco strongly opposed the principles of extending to women the right to vote. But in vain. The hand that rocks the cradle will help to rule both State and Nation.

We invite the women of Maryland to enroll themselves in the ranks of the Republican party—the party which for 60 years has advocated human rights and promoted progress and prosperity in our land."

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Seabrook have moved into the residence on East Main street vacated recently by Mrs. Fred. D. Miller and family.

Harding, Coolidge, Weller & Blakeney Campaign Club Organized.

STARTS WITH A WHOOP.

Wednesday evening a large number of enthusiastic Republicans of this county met at Republican headquarters in the Main-Court Inn Building, in this city, and organized a Harding-Coolidge-Weller and Blakeney Campaign Club. William L. Seabrook was elected president. Theo. F. Brown secretary and John H. Cunningham treasurer, with the following vice-president: Preston B. Englar, J. Elmer Myers, Harvey F. Morelock, Calvin R. Chew, William Melville, John K. Miller, Herbert R. Wooden, Thos. Barnes, John W. Retzel, Dr. J. S Geatty, William Wood, Walter R. Rudy and John S. Bushey.

The following were named as an executive committee: Robert S. McKinney, Myers Englar, Herbert J. Motter, Jarrett W. Shauck, Walter Frizzell, Emory A. Berwager, O. D. Gilbert, Howard R. Lippy, Andrew P. Frizzell, Dr. Roland R. Diller, M. Dallas Reid, McClellan Keefer, David W. Smith and Herbert F. Leatherwood.

Tuesday evening of each week until after the election was fixed as the regular meeting time of the club.

LOW GRADE FERTILIZERS

The County Agent has received a number of inquiries in regards to a fertilizer made from dead animals, etc. Several farmers have also brought in samples. Owing to the low price of $10 per ton the fertilizer has made quite a hit in some sections of the county.

The samples brought in, although not official samples, were sent to the State Chemist at the University of Maryland for examination and analysis. They were tested for ammonia and gave an average of 16 per cent with a value of $1.28 per ton. According to the guarantee on the tag we have a value for all the fertilizing elements at $2.29 per ton for which many are paying $10.

It does not pay to use a cheap fertilizer. This fertilizer would require 10 tons to get about as much fertilizing value as is contained in a 1-9-2 which sells for $40. Let us compare the value per acre. Using 400 of the 1-9-2 would cost $8.00, while the same fertilizing value in the $10.00 goods would cost the farmer $20.00 besides the extra labor in handling ten times the bulk.

Why not use a high grade fertilizer, in which case you have little or no filler, less labor and freight. In proportion you pay less per unit of fertility than you do in the cheaper grades. Buy good fertilizer and save money. The County Agent can help. Call on him.

A SURPRISE PARTY

Quite a surprise was given Mrs. Clematine Conaway at the home of Mr. E. S. Conaway, Monday evening, August 23, it being her 79th birthday. The guests began to arrive about 7 o'clock. They seemed to enjoy themselves playing the victrola and games. About ten o'clock all were invited to the table laden with good things, consisting of ice cream, cake of various kinds, lemonade and bananas. Mrs. Conaway received some useful presents. About twelve o'clock all left wishing Mrs. Conaway many more happy birthdays. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames William Conaway, Columbus Conaway, Alvin Conaway, Edwin Conaway, Thomas Conaway, Jay Conaway, Mrs. Oliver Davis, Howard Reck, Frank Barnes, Misses Myrle Reck, Edna Davis, Mamie Conaway, Ruth Davis, Rose Conaway, Helen Davis, Clara Conaway, Elva Conaway, Ethel Reck, Evelyn Barnes and Pearl Conaway; Messrs. Frank Conaway, Ralph Reck, George Conaway, Wilbur Davis, Herman Davis, William Davis, William Conaway and Francis Barnes.

And the laborers are hollering for a dollar an hour and potatoes 25 cents a peck.

Pretty hard to persuade a boy to study scientific efficiency, when he has a chance to tend a soda fountain.

The only thing oily about a lot of these oil properties is the tongue of the promoter that sells 'em.

Many people are helping relieve the shortage of labor, by working their jaws very energetically.
