The profiteers don't worry about the fellow who squeals on high prices. The one that bothers them is the one that says a thing but gets along without things.

Increased cost of rice bears down hard on two classes of people of about equal intelligence, the degraded Chinese laborers, and the Smart set hoodlums who promote the wedding disturbances.

There are ten times as many automobiles as there were 10 years ago, and they are wearing out the roads 10 times as fast. But you couldn't get the owners thereof to pay double taxes on their machines for highway improvement.

The Pageant given by the Missionary Society of Trinity Reformed Church on Sunday evening was a success and was attended by a large congregation. The regular evening services were conducted by Rev. Paul Rupp, during which Rev. C. Elmer Master sang a solo. After the offerings Rev. Freeman introduced the service that was to follow. The chancel and altar were nicely decorated with plants and flowers that added much cheer to the occasion. Then to the music of the organist, Mrs. Claud Leber, with the full dignity of her personification, marched up the aisle and took a position at the altar where she delivered her introductory address as Mrs. Democracy and with the book of freedom was ready to receive the nation's representatives; Miss Carrie Baker, in costume and carrying the flag of Belgium, marched up the aisle and bowed inspectfully and was given a warm welcome and her name inscribed in the book, having placed her flag in the folder, she took her place in line; Miss Bird, next to follow, in costume of France; Mrs. J. E. Musselman represented Russia; Mrs. Gregory, Portugal; Mrs. Scriminger, Italy; Mrs. Freeman, Syria; Miss Treva Zumbrum, Poland; Beulah Kuhns, Greece; Mary Kuhns, England; all in full costume and carrying their respective flags that were placed in a holder At this stage the organist changed her music and played "The Star Spangled Banner" to which Miss Minnie Zumbrum marched up the aisle with "old glory" robed around her and carrying the stars and stripes, took her place beside Democracy when the audience arose and sang the song. She then placed her flag in the holder which outshown all the others. The music changed and Mrs. John H. Staub, as Christianity, carrying a cross, marched up the aisle accompanied by ten misses, messengers of hope, Isabel Wentz, Hilda Green, Virginia Staub, Altar Zumbrum, Dorothy Stidman, Josephine Rupp, Mable Wentz, Elizabeth Lippy, Ida Brilhart and Madaline Rhodes, who formed in a group and greeted Miss Democracy; heads were bowed while Mrs. Nagle sang an appropriate selection. The audience arose and sang, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," and were dismissed by the benediction.
