IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Mrs. H K. Starner who died Aug. 29, 1919. One year ago today.

My precious Ardean was called away;
The Golden Gates were opened wide
A gentle voice said, "come."
And angels from the other side
Welcomed my darling home.

'Twas hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart.
Darling, so hard to speak the word,
"We must forever part."

Darling Ardean, I have lain thee
In the peaceful grave so cold.
But thy memory will be cherished
Till I see thy heavenly face.

Farewell, Ardean, but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn,
We shall meet to part no more,
On the resurrection morn.
By her husband.

Oh! how I miss thee, dear mother,
I miss thee fro mthy place;
A shadow on my life is cast,
I miss the sunshine of thy face.

I miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care;
Our home is dark without thee,
I miss thee everywhere.

Darling mother you have left me,
Left me, yes, for evermore,
But dearest mother I am going to meet thee,
On that bright and happy shore.
By her daughter,
Eva Harden.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

THE fame of our five-passenger "Glenbrook" has traveled from state to state, city to city, and this car now occupies an unchallenged position of leadership in the field of five-passenger vehicles.

Everyone, apparently, recognizes in this model an engineering and designing achievement of the utmost importance.

Designed and built in the Paige shops and powered with our own new six cylinder motor, it surpasses every standard heretofore accepted as the best in light six motor cars.

Compare it with any five passenger car that the market affords and determine whether it is not, indeed, the greatest dollar-for-dollar value in the light six field.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving but sad remembrance of my dear wife, our mother and grandma, Mary Cook who was called from our home one month ago today, August 3, 1920.

Beautiful toiler, thy work all done,
Beautiful soul, into glory gone,
Beautiful life, with its crown now won.
God giveth thee rest.

Rest from all sorrow, and watching and fears,
Rest from all possible sighing and tears,
Rest through God's endless, wonderful years,
At home with the blest.
By her loving husband, J. W. Cook.

"It was so sudden" our white lips said,
How we shall miss her, the beautiful dead,
Who takes the place of the precious one fled,
But God knoweth best.

Tenderly we nursed and cared for you,
Trying in vain to restore your health.
Sleep, dear mother and take your rest
God called you home, He thought it best;
He saw your suffering had great,
And opened wide the golden gate.
By her affectionate children,
Charles A. and Delya M. Cook.

Dear grandma, we miss you more each day,
'Seems months since you went away,
But we all hope to meet you
When God calls us away.
Her loving granddaughters,
Mary, Jessie and Emma Cook.

Farewell, dear grandma, may your
Slumber be as gentle as your love;
And when God shall call us homeward,
May we meet in Heaven above.
Loving grand-son, Donald.
