CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

MANCHESTER

The young ladies' missionary society of Trinity Reformed church had an active part in the evening service on Sunday last. Rev. R. J. Freeman conducted the opening service, after which he conducted their service according to the following program: Recitation, Valley Brilhart; Duet, Mable M. Wentz and Elizabeth Lippy; Reading, "Scum O'the Earth", Mrs. J. H. Staub. At the singing of "Cold Greenland's Icy Mountains" in the vestibule, Hilda Green marched up the aisle and took a position beside a large cross as "Christianity". Then follow Ed Aldie Zumbrum as "India"; Virginia M. Staub, "Persia"; Isabel Wentz, "Turkey"; Ida Brilhart, "Syria"; Edna Gephart, "China", Myrtle Strevig, "Japan"; Vesta Fridinger, "Africa"; Minnie Zumbrum, "N. A. Indians", and Helen Albaugh, "U. S. Missionary", each carrying a unlighted candle, and made their plea in behalf of their dark and benighted country to "Christianity" who cheerfully lighted their candles from the beautiful light on the cross with words of cheer and encouragement. When all had received their lights they took up the call of the organ and sang a stanza of "Jesus the Light of the World" and moved down the aisles, carrying their song to the vestibule. The exercise was not only interesting but instructive also. Remarks by the pastor, recitation by Myrtle strevig, emptying the thank offering boxes on a stand in front of the altar that, with the collection that followed, amounted to $32.00, to be divided for home and foreign missions, Lord's prayer and benediction. The altar was decorated with flags of the represented countries.

Thanksgiving Day was not generally observed. The bank and stores were closed and the employees of the cigar factories were on a rest caused by a decision of a special deputy from the revenue office who discovered that all the factories had their stripping done at the homes of a number of the citizens, which he said was illegal and called a halt on it that halted the factories and called in their stripping. Messrs. Oursler, Hanson and Hoffman motored to the revenue office in Baltimore on Thursday and presented the matter to the revenue officer that it had been a custom for thirty or more years and if it was taken from them they would have to curtail their business or close. After considering the matter along all lines it was decided that they should continue on with their stripping as before with their regular force.

A representive of Noble Grands with three initiates motored to Westminster on Wednesday evening, November 23 and enjoyed the work of the different teams in the first, second and third degrees of Odd Fellowship to a class.

We had to a Thanksgiving dinner Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wantz and daughters Isabel and Mabel, Mrs. M. E. Gettier hostess, assisted by her daughter Mrs. J. H. Staub.

As the funeral procession of Samuel H. Hoffacker was turning into York street the friends with the remains of N. W. Sellers from York arrived on the square proceeded to the Reformed Church where services were held. Messrs. D. J. Brown, J. W. Warehime, J. H. Blocher, J. C. Frankforter, M. Manchey and W. C. Stick were pallbearers.

Mrs. John Bixler moved from the home on the Alley and Main street two doors North on the same block. The corner home was bought by Augustus Berwager, who will occupy it.

George J. Lorringer moved his cigar factory from York street to the shop on S. Main street, formerly occupied by Geo. L. Maurath coach maker.

The supper and festival held in the Lutheran Church on Saturday evening for the benefit of the blind was well attended for a disagreeable evening. Two blind ladies were present with a fine display of their work that was on sale.
