SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

(©, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 5

THE GROWTH OF THE KINGDOM.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 13:24-33.

GOLDEN TEXT—Fret not thyself because of evil-doers.—Ps. 37:1.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Gal. 6:6-10.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus' Story About Good Seed and Bad Seed.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Story of the Wheat and the Tares.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Wheat and Tares.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How the Kingdom of Heaven Grows.

The parables of this chapter set forth in a graphic way the condition of affairs in the interval between Christ's going away and His coming again.

I. The Parable of the Wheat and Tares (vv. 24-30, cf. 36-43).

1. The Sowers. (1) The Son of Man (v. 37). He is the One who sows the good seed. The field in which they are sown is the world. (2) The Devil (v. 39). He is in a peculiar sense Christ's enemy. He intensely hates Him, and with relentless energy is striving to defeat His purpose in saving men. While men slumber, he sows tares among the wheat.

2. The growing crops. They are not easily distinguished while growing, but the effects produced when eaten are quite different. The wheat is wholesome, but the tares produce illness. The chief danger in the tares lies in their resemblance to wheat. The chief danger of the devil is that he strives to imitate God.

3. The harvests. There comes a time when the fruitage of the growing crops shall be gathered. For the tares there is a furnace of fire where there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. The righteous shall be gathered into the Lord's garner and shall shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of the Father.

II. The Parable of the Mustard Seed (vv. 31, 32).

1. Its important beginning. It begins as the least of all seeds and grows to be the greatest among herbs. The parentage and humble circumstances of the King greatly perplexed the people. That twelve unlettered fishermen should be selected as His royal advisers is still more amazing. The prophet said concerning Him that He should be despised, rejected, forsaken.

2. Its vigorous growth. From very small beginnings the influence of the Christ has gone forth so that there is no power or influence so great as that of Christianity.

3. Its lodging capacity. The birds which find lodgment in the tree do not represent the children of men which find safety and salvation in the church. Birds constitute no part of the tree. The bird is something foreign to and independent of the tree. The branches increase the growth of the tree, but birds are injurious and burdensome to it. They are predatory—waiting to pluck the tender buds or to prey upon the ripened fruit. The effect of such lodging is evil, blighting and spoiling to the tree.

III. The Parable of the Leavened Meal (v. 33).

1. The meal. Meal has a wholesome and nutritious effect. It was used in one of the sweet-savor offerings, which typified Christ (Lev. 2:1-3, R. V.); it was food for the priests (Lev. 6:15-17, R. V.); Abraham had Sarah knead a cake out of three measures of meal for the angelic messengers (Gen. 18:6); Solomon's royal table was provided with meal (I Kings 4:22); Elijah was fed upon a cake made of meal (II Kings 4:41); Elisha used meal as an antidote for the poison of death in the pot (II Kings 4:38-41).

2. The woman. The woman is not the head of the home, but its administrator. Her responsibility is to take the bread provided by the head, prepare and distribute it to the children. In Scripture we find false doctrine being taught by a woman (Rev. 2:20). Dealing with doctrine is forbidden to woman (I Tim. 2:12). In I Tim. 4:1-3; II Tim. 2:17, 18; 4:3, 4; II Pet. 2:1-3, we find that apostasy will be brought in through false teachings within the ranks of God's people. The meaning, then, of the parable is that the true doctrine, the meal given for the nourishment of the children of the kingdom (II Pet. 2:2; I Tim. 4:6), would officially be corrupted by false doctrine. The children's food is corrupted by the mother.

3. The leaven. In Scripture, leaven is invariably a type of evil. Let the following examples suffice as proof: (1) All through the Old Testament leaven is a continual and unvarying type of evil (Ex. 12:15; Lev. 2:11). (2) Jesus himself makes leaven to denote sin (Matt. 16:6, 12; Mark 8:15). (3) Paul uses leaven in its usual biblical sense (I Cor. 5:6-8; Gal. 5:8, 9).

Nothing Too Little.

Our Lord teaches that nothing is too little to be ordered by our Father, nothing too little in which to see His hand, nothing which touches our souls too little to accept from Him, nothing too little to be done for Him. Since the hairs of our head are all numbered, so is every throb or shoot of pain, every beating or aching of the heart. Every tear which starts is seen, and if wept to Him is gathered up to Him. Every secret wish and prayer He hears while yet muttered or unformed.—Dr. Pusey.

CONVINCING TESTIMONY

Given By Many Westminster People

Experiences told by Westminster People—

Those who have had weak kidneys—

Who used Doan's Kidney Pills—

Who found the remedy effective—

Such statements prove merit.

You might doubt an utter stranger.

You must believe Westminster People.

Here's Westminster proof. Verify it.

Read. Investigate. Be convinced. Ask your neighbor!

You'll find why Westminster folks believe in Doan's.

Mrs. Jennie Nagle, 92 Pennsylvania Ave., Westminster, says: "Many years ago I had trouble with my kidneys. My back pained so much I couldn't do my work and my feet were so badly swollen I couldn't put my shoes on. My head also ached constantly. My kidneys acted irregularly and annoyed me greatly. I tried different remedies but they didn't help me at all and when a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills I decided to give them a trial. They helped me immediately. I still use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally getting them at Boyle's Drug Store."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Nagle had. Foster-Milburn Co.,

ANDREW JOHNSON

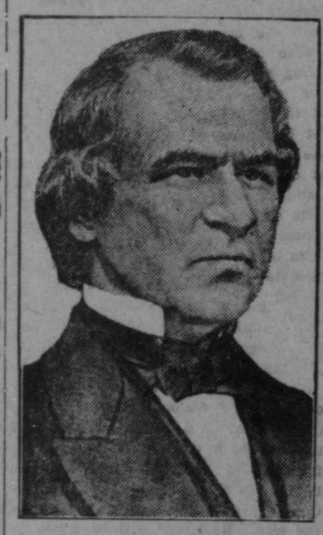

1808—December 29, Andrew Johnson born at Raleigh, N. C.
1826—Opened a tailor shop at Greenville, Tenn.
1827—May 17, married Eliza McCardle.
1830-33—Mayor of Greenville.
1835-39—Member of legislature.
1841-3—State senator.
1843-53—Congressman.
1853-57—Governor of Tennessee.
1857-62—Senator.
1862-5—Military governor of Tennessee.
1864—Elected vice president.
1865—April 15, took the oath as seventeenth president, aged fifty-six.
1866—April, congress overrode his veto of the civil rights bill.

A LOUD rapping on his hotel door in Washington awakened the vice president, Andrew Johnson, to the startling news that the president had been mortally shot. Even before Johnson took the oath the next morning, strong men were laying plans, with unseemly haste, to have him reverse Lincoln's generous policy toward the conquered south.

Power quickly cooled the vindictive passions kindled in Johnson by his long, bitter feud with the southern leaders, and he returned to Lincoln's policy of reconciliation. Wisely, no one was punished for treason. Happily, vengeance for a great war was not wreaked on any individual.

The radicals, who had secretly rejoiced in Johnson's accession, turned upon him furiously. It was easy for them to excite the doubt of the north in this southerner, and to estrange the Republicans from this Democrat.

For the first time even the sobriety of a president was called into question. Johnson's unfortunate condition at his inauguration as vice president had shocked Charles Sumner into starting a whispered discussion of his enforced resignation. When he became president his intemperance in speech lent color to exaggerated reports of his intemperance in drink.

For two years before Lincoln died, the radical leaders had been insisting that congress, not the president, should fix the terms of peace for the southern states. They had angrily denounced him as a despot, an autocrat and a usurper, because of his policy of reconstruction. And congress had persistently refused to admit the senators and representatives from the states which he had reconstructed on his liberal plan.

Apart from the Republican politicians and a mere faction of extremists, the north was in favor of Lincoln's moderate policies. But when it became a question between Johnson and the radicals, the radicals won overwhelmingly in the congressional election of 1866.

With a two-thirds majority in the new house and senate, the Republicans overrode the president's vetoes, and congress took command of the government. The reconstructed states were outlawed. The south was divided into military provinces. The ballot was thrust into the unskillful hand of the freedmen, notwithstanding it was still denied the negro in all but six states of the north. At the same time a large class of Southern whites was disfranchised for disloyalty in the war, which left several states to pass under the corrupt government of northern "carpet baggers" and southern "scalawags," who gained power by manipulating the ignorant black vote and who held it by force of federal bayonets.

As northern "fire eaters" pressed to the front, on one side of the Mason and Dixon line, southern "fire eaters" took the lead on the other side. By night the Ku Klux Klan rode their sable horses in a campaign of terrorism to frighten the blacks from using the ballot.

Party and sectional politics, north and south, still was the marplot of the Union. As it had fostered disunion before the war, it was doing its worst to prevent reunion, now that the war was over.
