LOCAL RECORD.

The Markets.

The railroad revolt and commune riots have not materially affected the price of produce in the Baltimore markets. Choice Southern Wheat is quoted at from $1.35 to $1.38. Lower grades at from 1.25 to $1.30. Corn 65 to 68 cents. Oats from 40 to 50 cents. Rye, 65 cents per bushel.

—It was oppressively hot here last week.

—Hallett & Dean are repainting the Paragon House.

—We had another big thunder storm and rain last Friday night.

—The wheat crop of this county will average between 15 and 20 bushels to the acre.

—Mr. J. Thomas Bartlett, of Trappe district, has our thanks for a lot of superb cultivated blackberries.

—R. E. Chase, alias Col. Bayne, the dead beat, has been foiled by Sheriff Grace, in another attempt to break out of the Easton jail.

—The town commissioners are having the street gutters cleaned out; if they were limed it would be a good thing for the health of the town.

—T. V. Chance, Esq., has moved into the country, and Mr. John W. Cox now occupies the house lately vacated by Mr. Chance.

—The Chestertown Odd Fellows are to give another excursion to Cape May on the 8th of August.

—For wheat and grass the I. P. Thomas Raw Bone Super-Phosphate is guaranteed to more than equal stable manure.

—Between 70 and 80 persons were admitted to full membership in the North East, (Cecil county,) Methodist E. Church, on the 15th inst.

—Mr. J. J. Freedley, of Oxford, is announced as a Republican candidate for the legislature, subject to the endorsement of the Republican county nominating convention.

—In a Nursery wherein all is life and laugh instead of crying and fretting, there is sure to be found Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25 cents per bottle.

—Mr. A. W. Fountain has nearly completed a very nice new dwelling house, on the lot where James E. Cahal had his store, between James T. Kelman's store and A. W. Fountain & Son's carriage factory. The building is a great improvement to the neighborhood.

—The negroes and tramps become so disorderly and threatening one day last week at Dover, that the citizens had to organize and assist the police in driving them out of the town. Every tramp that makes his appearance here should be arrested and lodged in jail.

—The Comptroller has notified the Collector to fail to close his books at once or subject himself liable to the rigor of the law. Mr. Hopkins has extended the time to a number of Taxpayers to the first of August, and to such he requests us to say, that he will be compelled to advertise them unless immediate settlement is made.

—"I have used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator myself and in my family for years, and pronounce it one of the most satisfactory medicines that can be used. Nothing would induce me to do without it, and I recommend all my friends if they want to secure health, to always keep it at hand. R. L. Mott, Columbus, Ga."

—We are indebted to Mrs. William Cole for a bunch of tomatoes, which was a most palatable curiosity. It consisted of a bunch of ten very ripe, round and smooth tomatoes, all hanging on one stem just like so many cherries. It appears strange that the whole bunch, so early in the season, should all ripen together. Mrs. Cole has our very sincere thanks.

—It is not true, as reported by the St. Michaels Times, that the brakemen on the Md. & Del. Strawberry train have struck for higher wages. The employees get all the road earns, and they are not goobies enough to strike for the track they run, and risk losing the good thing they have in hand. It is understood, however, that one of the very clever officials of the road is soon expected to strike for the State of matrimony; whether he will, or will not, make the trip on the strawberry train, has not yet transpired.

—Frank R. Pascault, Esq., living at "Mulberry Hill, near Easton, made a fraction over 40 bushels of wheat per acre on his fallow. His corn and wheat was very fine, but did not yield quite as much per acre. Forty bushels of wheat per acre is considered a big crop. He used last fall 250 pounds per acre of Turner's Excelsior guano. It is said by a Tuckahoe Neck wheat grower that Turner's Excelsior will make five bushels of wheat per acre more than any other fertilizer which is more than the cost of the fertilizer.

Death of a Minister.

Rev. John D. Curtis, one of the oldest members of the Wilmington Conference, M. E. Church died last week. Mr. Curtis was stationed in Easton in 1860 and 1861.

Fertilizers for Sale.

Hannahan & Wrightson announce that they are agents for the well-known Hagerstown guano. They are also selling a number of other good fertilizers at manufacturer's prices. They will give full notice by advertisement next week of their general business. They expect to open their new hardware store on the 1st of October.

Fires.

The dwelling house of Clinton Denny, at Wye Mills, was burned week before last. Mr. Denny lost most of his furniture and clothing of his family.

On the 17th inst, the barn of William Price, on Denver, in Queen Anne's county, was burned, together with about 400 bushels of wheat and all the farming implements.

The Farmers' Excursion.

The Farmers' excursion, which took place on Thursday, was a success. Between four and five hundred persons went to Baltimore. The company return their hearty thanks to the people of St. Michaels district for so liberally patronizing the excursion. No doubt, many were deterred from going by the railroad riots, and the unsettled state of affairs in Baltimore, but enough went to more than pay all expenses.

More Pantry Thieving.

The pantry thieves made a raid on the pantry of John W. Cheezum on Friday night, during the storm, and robbed it of a lot of cooked and other provisions. About ten days ago they went through Gov. Thomas' pantry for the same thing this summer. Is there no way to catch the vamp that is committing these depredations? He ought to be caught and punished.

—Since the above was in type another pantry down has been robbed. On Saturday night John W. Jump's pantry was broken open and robbed of its contents.

No License Required for Sample Clerks.

The Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county at its last term, decided that selling by sample is a sale made at the store of the merchant that sends out the sample clerk, and does not require an additional license. The case decided arose from a prosecution of Mr. Dawson, a clerk of Hopkins & Kersey, who had been taking orders for goods in Queen Anne's county. It was argued at the May term of the Circuit Court of that county by Edward H. Brown, Esq., for the State, and C. H. Gibson, Esq., for Thompson & Kersey. Mr. Eaton may now go for the Caroline magistrate, that fined him some time ago, whenever the costs he was forced to pay. We understand that Judge Robinson delivered a very long opinion of the Court in the case, and his decision is entirely in accord with our views of the law.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR TALBOT COUNTY.

July Term, 1877.

EASTON, JULY 24th.—The Court met, His Honor Henry Stump presiding.

The May term called and adjourned. The July term called by the crier, Mr. Rathell.

The Trial Appearance and Trial Dockets were gone over, and returns of process and judgments by confession entered.

Henry Stump, under the Act of the General Assembly of 1876, appointed Gov. Thomas, C. H. Gibson and I. C. W. Powell, Esqs., a Board of Examiners to examine candidates applying to be admitted members of the Easton Bar.

Joseph R. Seth, Esq., moved the admission of Wm. H. Lowe, Esq., late a student in the Law School of the University of Maryland. The Court adjourned 1 P. M. as the time of examination. In the afternoon the Board of Examiners, in the presence of the Court, examined Mr. Lowe, and the examination being perfectly satisfactory to the Board and the Judge, he was admitted as an attorney of the court and sworn in open court.

Sally Ann Scott vs. John S. Jones and others, attachment on warrant; motion to quash argument and hearing before the Court; motion overruled; Powell and Seth for plaintiff; Gibson and Tilghman for defendants.

The following Jurors for the November term were drawn:

Robert Coulby,	Charles A Jones,
	Perrin H Kemp,
	Edward Lloyd,
	Joseph Bartlett,

Sundry decrees in Chancery were passed, after which the court adjourned.

A Bitter Case.

Michael Martnett, of Easton, has been arraigned before U. S. Commission Bond, in Baltimore, on the charge of selling intoxicating liquors without an Internal Revenue license. B. H. Harrington, Esq., of this place, appeared for Martnett. His defence is, that the article he sold was the Maryland Tonic Bitters, put up, stamped and sold as a proprietary medicine. The case has been postponed for a further hearing, to give the commissioner time to determine whether retailing the bitters by the drink without a license is a violation of the revenue law. Should the decision of the commissioner be against Mr. Hartnett, the case will be sent up to the District Court of the United States for trial. The penalty is a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, or imprisonment not less than six months, nor more than two years.

A Strike Among the Peach Growers.

The peach growers of this Peninsula met in convention at Dover, Delaware, on the 25th inst., to remonstrate against the exhorbitant freight charges of the railroads, for transporting peaches from the Peninsula to Jersey City. Dr. I. N. Adkins, of Easton, was elected chairman of the convention. The railroads were heartily denounced for their unjust exactions, and facts and figures given to show that whilst the peach growers invest all the capital, and take all the risk of the precarious business, the railroads get pretty much all that is made out of it. The convention was very unanimous in demanding a reduction of freights, and growers near the water courses were recommended to charter steamboats and tugs, and ship their peaches to market independently of the railroads. The freight charged on a car load of peaches, 15,000 pounds, or 500 baskets, from Dover to Jersey City is $62; the convention thought it should not be more than $40, or $70 at most. The following resolutions, deliberately reported by an intelligent committee, were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That in consideration of the high charges of transportation between the Delaware and Maryland stations and the cities of New York and Philadelphia, it is the interest of peach growers living within a reasonable distance of water navigation, to charter steamers and tug boats for the purpose of carrying their fruit to those markets.

Resolved, That if our orchards shall continue during the present year to be as unremunerative as they have been for the past four years, it will be a matter of interest to us to uproot them, and to convert the land now occupied by them to the raising of grain and grass.

Resolved, That while we incur all the risks of growing the most uncertain and precarious of all crops—a crop which a change of a few degrees of temperature in the winter or the frosts of spring may utterly wipe out, which the curculio may destroy after all danger of frost has passed by or which may rot down before our eyes when fully ripe, or become utterly valueless from certain conditions of the atmosphere after it has been started to market—the railroad companies on the other hand operate in handling them only on the certain and sure basis of gain, and no matter whether the peaches sell for five dollars or five cents per basket after they reach their market, the freight so taxed, like the laws of the Medes and Persians, knows no change.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend the growers on this peninsula to send nothing to market that will not certainly pay them some profit, and when the price falls below that point to let the fruit rot in their orchards rather than permit railroad companies to reap all the result of their outlay, their trouble and their toil, as was done in 1875.

Resolved, That this illiberal policy which characterizes all their movements in our peach trade, has been extended still further this year by abolishing the chartered car system, for the simple reason, as they allege, that in 1875 some of their cars were not used as industriously as they thought they should have been, and thereby they sustained a trifling loss which, compared to ours, was as a drop to the great ocean.

Resolved, That we regard with displeasure the offer to reduce the freight on the car load of peaches to New York so as to equalize the return freight on our empty baskets, while at the same time there is no similar reduction is made to Boston and other northern points, and we denounce it as unworthy of the men who have charge of the great lines over which the fruit passes.

Resolved, That we recommend to all peach growers and shippers to refuse to sign the form of contract for shipment of peaches prepared and offered by the P., W. & B. R. R. officials, and that we hold them to their duties and responsibilities as common carriers.

Wanamaker & Brown,

In the Old Place at the Old Stand.

All the best talent, experience and advantages we can command, continued at OAK HALL, to produce the BEST and CHEAPEST CLOTHING for man and boy.

For sixteen years we have lived at the old corner of SIXTH and MARKET, and the business done there has been so satisfactory to the public and ourselves, that we have decided not to change or move the Clothing business away. The people like the place and we like to please the people, and we believe that we can do it better than ever at the old place.

The sales of the past year far surpassed anything we ever dreamed of, and this puts it in our power to start the Spring of 1877 with a STILL LOWER SCALE OF PRICES, and a class of goods so excellent that we are not afraid to follow each sale with our warrantee, or receive back the goods unworn and hand over to the customer the money paid.

The store has been largely refitted, and there never was such a splendid stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's clothing under the roof, nor were we ever able to sell so cheaply. Our word for it, and we are your friends of sixteen years.

Our stock of Tile is very heavy, and we sell it very low for CASH; but are prepared to enter into arrangements with farmers, who may want to put in tile, and who may not have the cash, to give them SIX or NINE months credit.
