Items of Local Interest

Sunday last Mr. Herman Marsh, of Baltimore, visited relatives in this city.

This week Rev. and Mrs. John B. Rupley, of this city, visited friends in Charles Town, W. Va.

Mr. John Shaw, of Baltimore, spent Sunday last with relatives in this city.

Sunday last Mr. Harvey Stem, of Baltimore, visited friends in this city.

Sunday last Dr. James Bond, of Baltimore, visited his parents, Judge and Mrs. James A. C. Bond, this city.

Miss Anna Brown, of Baltimore, was a week end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sereck S. Wilson, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seman and son "Sonny", of Baltimore, visited Mrs. Seman's parents Judge and Mrs. William H. Thomas, of this city.

Mr. C. Herbert Fowler and two daughters, of Washington, D. C., spent Sunday with relatives and friends in this city.

Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stevens, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Taylor, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur, of Frizellburg, this county.

The cold wave Monday which forced down the temperature in this vicinity from 80 to 18 degrees killed the buds of fruit trees and early vegetables.

On Sunday evening the choir of Grace Lutheran Church, under the leadership of Mrs. Noah L. Schaeffer, will render a cantata entitled "Victory Divine". Every one welcome.

On Tuesday a chimney at the residence of Mrs. Emma Royer, W. Main and Union streets caught fire and the flames were extinguished by the fire department. The property is owned by Mrs. Helen Tracey.

The first of a million stamps to be distributed throughout the United States commemoraing the four hundredth anniversary of Martin Luther's "Heroic stand before the Diet of Worms" was mailed to President Harding Friday last.

On Saturday last Messrs. Wm. J. Brown and Joshua Brown, of Myers district, this county, returned home from a visited to friends in California and other Western points. While in California they spent two days with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Starner, formerly of this county, but now residing at Holtsville, Calif.

When they find, after stopping an automobile for any violation of the State laws, that liquor is being unlawfully transported in the vehicle, State police are specifically limited to notifying the Baltimore headquarters of the Federal prohibition agents of the facts, under new rules promulgated by Motor Vehicle Commissioner Baughman Monday afternoon.

On Monday at the annual election of vestrymen for Ascension Episcopal Church, this city, the following were elected: Judge William H. Thomas, Guy W. Steele, Joseph D. Brooks, Robert K. Billingslea, Dr. C. Levine Billingslea, Leeds K. Billingslea, George N. Hunter and John C. Woolfolk. The members organized by electing Judge William H. Thomas senior warden; Guy W. Steele junior warden and register, and Joseph D. Brooks treasurer.

In order that priests of the rural districts in the Westminster section of Carroll and Baltimore counties might do honor to Cardinal Gibbons, a solemn high mass of requiem in which all the clergy participated was celebrated in St. John's Church, this city, by Rev. Thomas E. McGuigan Tuesday. This church was selected because it is the largest in this part of the State and the only one where a high mass could be properly solemnized.

As indicated by reports from several counties at a meeting of the executive council of the Maryland Agricultural Society at the Rennert, Baltimore, Friday last, the cooperative purchase of farm supplies, particularly fertilizer, is being carried on more extensively than ever. Several counties reported that through the efforts of co-operative organizations local prices of fertilizers had been broken.

Mr. R. K. Olver, an evangelist, is in this city, preaching to all persons whose attention he can command.

The Lehrfeld's new store opens today in the Shreeve property, E. Main street, this city. See large ad. in this issue of Sentinel.

The sale of the real and personal property of George W. Magin, bankrupt, of Taylorsville, is advertised in the Sentinel to take place April 23, at 9 A. M. The real estate will be sold by Edgar S. Jenkins, mortgagee in conjunction with the personal property sale by Charles O. Clemson, trustee. See ads. in this issue of Sentinel.

Problems of the rural church in Maryland and parts of Virginia will be widely discussed at the coming annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. This body meets at Newark, N. J., on April 6, and shortly after it has convened President James H. Straughn will present a plan intended to reduce the number of country churches, and thereby increase the interest and enthusiasm in the remaining ones.

Regularly elected representatives of the teaching forces of every county in Maryland, together with a number of county superintendents and school supervisors, were in conference Friday last at the State Normal School at Towson for discussion of the educational program for 1922-23, which has been prepared by the State Board of Education. The program adopted calls for an additional $900,000 for teachers salaries &c. A campaign to get people interested will be started.

MANCHESTER

The company of home talent was greeted by a full house, even to standing room, in the moving picture hall on York street on Easter Monday evening when it gave the drama "The Village Post Office". The cast of characters was good, all of whom played like veterans. The jazz music, singing and dancing was attractive. The home orchestra did their part fine and was quite a feature of the entertainment, with Miss Mildred Hanson at the piano. The play will be repeated on Tuesday evening 5th.

At this writing, when every body was thinking of, and some had shed their heavy weight underwear, a thunder storm broke upon us with a heavy downpour that was followed by a N. W. blow that sent the Mercury down to the 20's. Furnaces were relighted and heavy wraps had to be donned to be comfortable. There is much speculation as to the safety of the fruit crop with peaches &c. in full bloom.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Reformed Church will hold a social in the Sunday school room of the church on Monday evening. An entertainment will be given and and light refreshments will be served. Everybody is welcome. Come and enjoy the evening with them and be nicely entertained.

The forester with his corps of workmen has finished the trimming of the shade trees on our streets. The work has its pros & Cons. From the complete pruning done there will not be much shade from them this year, but no doubt will bring out plenty of new growth that, in after years, will be enjoyed.

There was a large congregation present at Trinity Reformed church at the confirmation services on Easter Sunday evening, by the Rev. R. J. Seeman. The altar and surroundings were decorated in purple and yellow (the church colors) under the new electric lighting was fine. Eight young person were confirmed, one baptism. The preparatory services will be held on Saturday the 2nd. and Holy Communion on Sunday 3rd 10:30.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Masenhimer, of Cleveland, Ohio, and William H. Masenhimer, of New York, were here and spent the Easter holidays with their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Masenhimer.

Mr. John H. Lynerd and lady friend, Miss Nellie Blaney, of Baltimore, spent Easter here with Mr. L's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lynerd at Cottage home, Germantown.

Mr. W. L. F. Bergman, who several months ago bought the lot and coach shop buildings on Oak Tree avenue next to the Lutheran church, sold part of the lot to the trustees of the church on which is a work shop that he will tear down and enlarge the main building for his coach business. He sold 15 second hand buggies that were in first class repair to a party from Portsmouth Va., last week.

The well drillers finished a well at the home of Irvin Shaffer on North Main street that had 35 feet of water in it.

Mrs. Julia M. Teague spent the Easter holidays with friends in Virginia.

Mr. Ross Hoffacker has moved into his new home on York street extended.

Contractor J. D. Deinst changed the interior of the Gotlieb Schmidt home on South Main street, and W. A. Burgoon papered it through out, at which Mr. and Mrs. Seward Schmidt will be host and hostess.

Rev. and Mrs. S. R. Ludwig enjoyed a happy Easter, having with them at their home on South Main street, their daughter, Mrs. B. A. Grayson, of Keyser, W. Va., who is here on a visit and on Easter they welcomed Misses Marion and Gertrude Bickle and Messrs. Paul Clark and H. L. Ludwig, who motored here from Washington and spent the day with them.

The Mayor and Council election will be held on the 2nd in the Firemen's Hall on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Musselman enjoyed having their daughter, Miss Mae, of Baltimore, and their son, Harry, of York, also Captain Walters, of Baltimore, and Miss Sullivan of York, during Easter.

The sale of Edward Steger, on Saturday last, at his home on South Main street, of horses, cows and swine was largely attended and good prices realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and son, of Baltimore, spent Easter here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Loats, on Foundry avenue.

Mrs. William A. Burgoon is spending the week with friends in Hanover.

HAVE IT MADE TO MEASURE

YES?

And not only have it made to-measure but have it made

HERE

If you want your NEW SUIT at NORMAL PRICES!

See the fine grade of all wool fabrics we put into our suits at the lowest price of $27 and $30.

You will be astounded!

We can give you super-quality too at the lowest price on the market to-day our values at $40 and $50 being a revelation in fabric, beauty and charm.

But don't forget that our lowest priced suits are made from pure wool only and are remarkable for the money!

A made-to-measure all wool Suit at $27 or $30 is a positive return to normal price conditions and we're not only proud to be able to sell them at these prices but we are equally proud of their Quality and Beauty.

Don't fail to look over our enormous display.

INTERNATIONAL MADE-TO-MEASURE CLOTHES

Babylon & Lippy Co.

The Dependable Store

For County Commissioner

At the earnest solicitation of my friends and their assurance of support, I hereby announce myself as a Republican candidate for County Commissioner for Carroll County, subject to the primary election.

John H. Repp,

4-1-2t Union Bridge District.

All Kinds of Garden Seeds

THE FARM POWER CO.

Westminster - Maryland.

Public Sale

Of Valuable

Horses, Hogs, Farming Implements, Canning Machinery &c.,

At

Taylorsville, Carroll County, Maryland.

By virtue of an order of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, the undersigned Trustee of George W. Magin, Bankrupt, will sell at public sale at Taylorsville, Carroll County, Md., on beginning at 9 o'clock A. M., the following valuable personal property:

Saturday, April 23, 1921

Two bay horses, one brown horse, one grey horse, each horse of heavy weight and used for general farming work, one sawmill and wagon, one manure spreader, one Packard truck, three and one-half ton capacity with body, made in the year 1919, in excellent condition and ready for use, equipped with good tires, one Delco Electric Light Plant and battery attached to the buildings of the bankrupt estate at Taylorsville, which plant may be removed if the purchaser so desires, the real estate will be sold with the reservation with the right of removal of this plant, fifteen chicken crates, from one to two hundred bundles of corn fodder, ten bags of cotton seed, large size, seven shoats, large size, one lime spreader, one hog scalder and wagon, one low wagon and hay carriage, one thousand bricks, one shovel plow, one spring-tooth harrow, one platform scales, one large table one steam exhauster attached to building may be removed by purchaser, one sleigh, two bags of hog feed if not consumed before sale, two cases of can tomatoes, one case of can corn, eighty dozen cans of Donald talcum powder, one horse clipper, six land slides for plows, five straw forks, two sheep sheering machines, one old stove, one box lamp globes, one glass light outfit, five bags chicken feathers, one tomato pulp machine, one Hebner chopping mill, four bags oyster shells, six gasoline torches, one Ford truck, 1914 make, good condition with body and good tires, one Ford truck with runabout body and top, later make than 1914, good condition with good tires, one lot ensilage, thirty-three bags, one bushel and one-half each sugar corn seed, one tomato stuller, one ice box, one time clock, two large rolls of paper. The right to the use of three canning machines, Canco make owned by American Can Machine Co., and leased to the bankrupt to December 31, 1921 and now on the property at Taylorsville, the purchaser will have the right to the use of these machines but may let them remain on the property and use them if the purchaser of the machines should become the owner of the property, one corn filler, six pockets, made by New Ayers Machine Company, one Sprague corn cutter No. 1238, one fifteen ton Fairbank truck scales installed on the property at Taylorsville, may be removed by purchaser, three Morral corn cutters, one corn conveyor, one lot rubber hoes, one corn silker, one syrup mixer, two out corn conveyors, twenty-seven iron crates used in corn packing, one wood frame harrow, one McCormick self binder, six foot cut, one Superior grain drill, eight hoe, one Deering mower, one eight foot horse rake, one gasoline engine, three H. P., one Atlas steam engine, thirty-five H. P. stationary, one large belt for engine, one vice, one drill press, three wood pullies, lot of bolts, one pair stilyards, one large iron kettle, one steam boiler, 125 H. P., five corn process kettles, one steam hoist, two Morral corn huskers, Nos. 33445 and 33446, lot of line shaftings, one twenty foot ladder, one drag and pullies, thirty tomatoes boxes, one mowing scythe, ten corn baskets, seven and one-half balls binder twine, sixty egg crates, lot of yellow corn, oats and other feed if not consumed before sale, fourteen bags and eight pounds of seed corn for sugar planting, one Walking corn plow, two Oliver chill plows, five pounds salt, one water tank of 1000 gallon capacity, two water tanks of 70 gallons capacity each, one hundred and twenty bags of fertilizer, 167 pounds of sack, forty sacks of salt, one bag truck, about three to four tons of hay in a barrack on George W. Magin farm near Taylorsville, one good two horse wagon and many other articles too numerous to mention used by bankrupt in connection with his canning business and farming operation.

STORE GOODS AND FIXTURES IN THE STORE OF THE BANKRUPT AT TAYLORSVILLE consisting of all and every article in said store will be sold on the same day at public sale to the highest bidder.

The articles that can be grouped together such as Shoes, Boots, Clothing, Brooms &c., will be sold as much in bulk as possible, the sale will continue until all of the articles contained in the store have been sold. The inventory shows the articles usually contained in a general store consisting of Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Boys and Girls Clothing, Clothing for Men, Women and Children, Toys, Jewelry, Canned Goods, Stationary, Poultry Food, Breakfast Food, Spices, Coffees, Powders, Tobacco, Cigars, Sugar, Hardware and all articles contained in said store belonging to said bankrupt.

This will be an ALL DAY sale and two auctioneers will be employed in order that there may be no break in the continued auction.

TERMS OF SALE WILL BE CASH AND NO PROPERTY TO BE REMOVED BY THE PURCHASERS UNTIL SAME HAS BEEN PAID FOR.

The above Canning Machinery and all other equipment used in connection with the Canning Business, including the electric light system, platform scales, boilers, engines and other machinery on said plant in Taylorsville, whether loose or attached to said real estate, will be offered by the Trustee for sale in conjunction with the sale by Edgar S. Jenkins, Mortgagee, the same day and will be sold either in conjunction with the mortgage property and as a part of said mortgage property, or separately, after the offers have been made as shall appear to be to the best advantage of the creditors of George W. Magin, Bankrupt. The opportunity is thus given to the prospective purchasers to buy the entire plant of George W. Magin used by him for canning business and merchandising at Taylorsville, the real estate and all machiery and equipment.

On the land of George E. Wright and of the Taylorsville Band certain buildings and machinery belonging to the bankrupt are located which said buildings and machinery will be sold by the Trustee and delivered to the purchaser without cost to said purchaser.

Charles O. Clemson,

Trustee of George W. Magin, Bankrupt

F. Albert Crawford and William T. Wilson Auctioneers.

Thomas J. Gunn, outside Clerk.

E. O. Weant Att'y for Trustee Nevin W. Crouse, inside Clerk.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2314-0106