LOCAL RECORD.

The Markets.

Gold in New York on Friday was $1.00½. The cotton value of the greenback was 93.15 cents. The New York Sun says business is opening fairly, large number of Southern and Western merchants are filling up the hotels. The factories in Newark, New Jersey, have all they can do filling orders. Good railroad securities advanced 20 per cent. last week, creating consternation among the bears.

There was a marked improvement in the Baltimore grain market at the close of last week. Prime Amber Wheat is quoted at $1.05. Best Southern Corn, 60 white Oats, 35 cents for the best, Rye 65 cents.

—Improper functions of food often cause the blood to become filled with foul humors. Cleanse the blood with Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture and be healthy.

—J. J. Mabbitt, Esq., Prince of Fayette Site, Baltimore, was grievously years a sufferer from rheumatism, and nothing helped him but Keller's Indian Liniment. He recommends it to all who may be suffering, feeling confident that it will give immediate relief and effect a cure.

—There is some talk of extending the Queen Anne's railroad to Queenstown.

—W. W. Busteed, Esq., of the Centreville Observer, has gone to Saratoga for his health.

—The I. P. Thomas fertilizers are strictly reliable. One trial of them satisfies. Try them.

—Without you register, you can't vote in November.

—This is the week to register. Democrats, do not forget to register.

—Our merchants are beginning to display fall goods in their counters.

—Good peaches commanded remunerative prices last week.

—The "Meadow Flats," near Centreville, are now used as a military parade ground.

—The mercury in the thermometer ruled about 90 last week.

—Our farmers are now busily engaged saving their fodder.

—It is said the best peaches sent to the New York and Boston markets this season go over the Md. & Del. road from this section.

—The Md. & Del. railroad has been doing a profitable business since the peach season commenced, averaging from 20 to 30 car loads per day.

—Our public roads were dry and very dusty last week. Some portions of the county have had no rain for weeks.

—Samuel B. Merrick, Esq., attorney, will sell some valuable property at the residence of N. W. Cook, in Bolingbroke Neck, on Saturday, the 15th inst. See advertisement in the STAR.

—The "Alta" Phosphate bids fair to supercede all others. The experience of last season was in the most satisfactory kind. T. C. Nicols is the agent and is prepared to fill all orders promptly.

—Thomas C. Hughes, Esq., formerly of Centreville, but now living in Cumberland, is spoken of as the Republican candidate for the State Senate.

—A little son of Mr. [illegible] injured himself a few days ago by falling from a loaded wagon and being run over by the wheel. He is likely to recover from his injuries we are pleased to learn.

—Jump & Co. advertise in this morning's paper an assortment of carpets bought at a large bankrupt sale in Baltimore last month, which they offer at less than manufacturers prices. Call early if you want a choice Brussels or Ingrain.

—Mr. John Baggs, late clerk of this county, is now with Marshall & Fallon, grocers and commission merchants, No. 4, Bowley's wharf, Baltimore, and would be glad to receive consignments from any of his old Talbot friends. See their advertisement in the STAR.

—The very large quantity of bacon sold by our merchants indicates that our farmers do not raise pork enough to serve them. We call this bad farming. Selling corn at 50 cents per bushel, and buying bacon at 15 cents to carry on the farm, is a losing money business. Our farmers should be sellers, and not buyers, of bacon.

—"I suffered for a long time with goitre, cake or swelled liver, indigestion and general bad health, and after trying many other remedies, nothing did me so much good as Simmons' Liver Regulator. It cured me, and now I have not to take any medicine, for I am well; but I shall always keep it in the house to cure any one else of the family that have anything the matter. It is good for nearly everything. M. T. Witts, Clinton, Ga.

—"The Sussex County Index" is the name of a new paper started in Seaford, Delaware, by T. N. Williams and J. R. Clark. Mr. Clark was formerly employed in the STAR office. We had hoped to make a printer of him, but he mistaken (or other, disappointed our high expectations and turned up an Editor. The Index is very nicely printed, is independent in politics, and its columns evince spirit and enterprise. We wish the publishers success.

—Jesse Hubbard, while in Baltimore last week, bought a quantity of parched wheat, which he is selling for chicken feed, at only 20 cents per peck. He says it is the best and cheapest chicken feed he ever sold. Wonder if the Howard county hen, that laid 17 eggs per day, wasn't fed on parched wheat. If the hens turn out eggs here at that rate, and knock down the price to 10 cents, there will be great rejoicing about Christmas.

—Mr. Walter H. Thompson of the firm of Thompson & Kersey, has returned from a his summer vacation at the sea-side, and has entered into business with renewed and redoubled vigor. He spent the most of last week with the manufacturers in the cities, and as the result, piles upon piles of Carpets are pouring into their new Carpet Rooms. They embrace every variety, and among them are some of the most beautiful styles we have ever seen displayed in this market. They say they are going to sell carpets cheaper than was ever heard tell of before.

—It is said the crop of candidates in Queen Anne's county, including both parties, outnumber the peach crop, counting the peaches by baskets. A Centreville poet, who has been tormented nearly to death by them, sings the following doleful song, expressive of his sorrows:

"The canvassing days have come,
The saddest of the year,
When candidates draw obe saliva
Calling him 'a friend most dear,'
And, holding him still by his coat,
In accents low and mild
Sweetly beg him for his vote
Until they set him wild."

Drying House Burnt.

Mr. N. C. Fitzjarrell's peach drying house has been destroyed by fire. Loss $500.

Stack Yard Burnt.

The straw stacks of Mr. James C. Tarbutton were destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock on Saturday morning. His barn was fortunately saved.

Only Six Per Cent.

The Easton National Bank is now discounting at six per cent. As the bank does not pay any regulates the public conscience on the subject of interest, it is to be presumed that the money lenders of this county will hereafter not demand more than bank interest.

Freezing Beef on the Roof.

Mr. John H. K. Shannahan, butcher, in Easton, erected in the market house, a large refrigerator that will hold a thousand pounds of meat. He lets it from the files, and keep it nice and cool. It is a splendid arrangement for preserving fresh meat.

Great Attractions in Dry Goods.

We invite special attention to the splendid stock of dry goods advertised in to-day's STAR by Mr. Posner, Lexington street, Baltimore. Customers may order what they want by mail, or, when any of our citizens of the city, they should not fail to call and examine their stock and prices.

Second Annual Exhibition of the Talbot County Agricultural Society.

We publish this morning as a matter of interesting news, the list of Premiums for the Second Annual Fair of the Talbot County Agricultural Society, which will be held at Hambleton Park Fair Grounds, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 26th, 27th and 28th of September, inst. The fair will afford a pleasant re-union of the farmers of the county, and it is to be hoped that there will be a large display of stock, poultry, fruits, and agricultural products. The track is being put in nice order, and we are entitled to Fire.

Parsons, the barber has taken the room in the rear of the messages, and will fit it up for a barber shop, with which attached all who have had occasion to visit Parsons will be pleased to visit the new shop.

Fire Insured.

Parsons, the barber has taken the room in the rear of the messages, and will fit it up for a barber shop, with which attached all who have had occasion to visit Parsons will be pleased to visit the new shop.

Off for College.

J. H. Bennett, Esq., leaves here this morning for Westminster, Carroll county, with his son Jay Allen Bennett, to enter him at Western Maryland College, an institution under the patronage of the Methodist Protestant Church. Allen is a fine young fellow, and bids fair to be a bright and useful man. We commend him to our friends in Carroll county, and congratulate the faculty on having such a student and a splendid gentleman.

New Millinery.

Mrs. M. S. Norris has just received from the city a new and superior assortment of fall millinery, comprising hats and bonnets in great variety, ribbons, feathers, insertings, lace, gloves, and everything else appertaining to the trade. She is a first class millinery establishment, all of which have been selected with the greatest care, both in regard to quality and price. See her card.

Opening of the Schools.

Rev. Mr. Sellven's Classical School for boys will open on the 10th inst.

The public schools of the county will open on the 17th inst.

The Female School will open on the 17th.

Miss Eva Roberts' private school will open on the 17th.

The Misses Whitlock's school, for girls will open on Thursday, the 27th inst.

Sale of Building Lots.

We invite special attention to the large sale of houses and lots, this day advertised by Leads Bean by J. F. Salmon, Esq., Executor of Mrs. E. Jennie Ridgely. This property is well located for a profitable investment. Lot No. 1 has on it a new double dwelling house, which is always in demand by good tenants. Those living in the neighborhood ought to be specially interested in the improvement of the lots on South street.

Registration.

The Registration of Voters commenced yesterday, and will last all Friday. Those who have not registered should do so this week. We presume the Democratic Central Committee has a list of all the unregistered Democrats in the county, and will take the necessary steps to have them registered. This is a very necessary part of the Democratic organization, which should be attended to without delay. Without the new voters, and those who have changed their place of residence, are registered, it must not be forgotten that they cannot vote in November.

Hen Robbing.

Mr. H. Myers' meat-house was broken open and robbed on Wednesday night.

On Thursday night a thief entered Mr. William C. Bray's house, chloroformed him and his wife, while asleep, stole what money he had in his pocket book, and a quantity of provisions. Mr. Bray was sick all Friday from the effects of the chloroform.

The Town Commissioners ought to offer a liberal reward for the arrest and conviction of the scoundrel or scoundrels who have been committing these repeated robberies of the pantries of our citizens.

Highwaymen in Queen Anne's County.

Dr. F. S. Wilson was assaulted on the public road one day last week, while riding through a piece of woods, by some one throwing stones at him. Had he not put his horse to a run, he thinks he would have been murdered.

A. Parnell, a young man residing near Sudlersville, had a desperate rencontre with two tramps, who attacked him on the public road in the day time, and attempted to take his horse and buggy away from him. He succeeded in driving off the ruffians, but reached town with his clothes badly used up.

The New Hotel at Oxford.

On Thursday we had the pleasure of examining the plan and drawings of the new Oxford hotel, which Roberts & Sons have gotten up for Mr. Samuel Norris. The hotel will be in the shape of an L, with the gable to the street, 35 feet wide, running 100 feet towards the river. This is the main building. It will have a hall running through the whole length, and will contain the office, soda fountain, barber shop, billiard saloon, and ladies' parlor in the end fronting the river. The wing, which will front the river, will also be 100 feet long, and will contain the dining rooms, kitchen, pantries, &c. There will be porches and verandas all around the buildings. The hotel is to be four stories, and will contain about 120 rooms. The present Willis residence will remain, and constitute a wing, in the rear of which the water closets, &c., will be located. There are to be three stairs, which will afford ample means of escape in the event of fire. Two of them are private, one for ladies and one for gentlemen, the other will be public, in the main hall. The wing will be connected with the new building, and in it will also be a stairs. The stables and ten pin alley will be located some distance from the hotel buildings proper. There will be a tower and belfry on the main building, to assure ample ventilation, as well as to afford ornamentation. The building will present a very handsome appearance, both from the street and the water. It will be most delightfully located, will have a splendid view down the river, and also a view of Town Creek, and if there is any house in Oxford location, the hotel is bound to catch it, as it is on very high ground. On one side is the large two acre lot which belongs to the property; on the other side is the public town square; the two together will prevent any other buildings from crowding it. We know of no more delightful place anywhere for a hotel of summer resort, and certainly there is no more healthy place than Oxford.

DEATH OF BRIGHAM YOUNG.

Brigham Young, the great Momon Prophet died on Wednesday last. What is to be done with his 100 widows? is now the great question in Mormondom. It is said his son will succeed him in the Eldership. In that case the wives will not go with the office; and they will have to be apportioned among the subordinate elders. The young and pretty ones may do well, but the old and ugly ones, will have a hard time of it to secure lovers. Brigham Young was born in Vermont, and was a great, but a most unscrupulous man. But for his great genius the Mormon community would have been scattered long ago. His death will be fatal to it. It will soon be disrupted by internal dissensions.
