CONFIRMATION AT ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

St. John's Church and grounds presented an attractive scene on Sunday afternoon when the Rt. Rev. O. B. Corrigan confirmed a large class of children and adults. The candidates, followed by the sanctuary boys and clergy, conducted the Bishop from the rectory to the church while the men of the congregation formed a guard of honor along Main street.

The Bishop addressed the children with a simplicity all could understand and then in strong, impressive language told the parents that they must direct the future of their children not only by word but by example.

Among the clergy present were the Rt. Rev. Bernard J. Bradley, D. D. President, of Mt. St. Mary's College; the Very Rev. Wm. J. Stanton S. J., of New York City; Fathers Charles F. Hannigan and James A. Smyth, of Baltimore; the Reverends E. F. Reilly, of Sykesville; Thomas J. Wheeler, of Thurmont, and Harry Quinn of Taneytown. Messrs. N. H. Baumgartner and Robert T. Shriver were sponsors for the boys and men ,and Misses Madeline Shriver and Catherine Sheeler for the girls.

Death of Rev. John G. Noss

Rev. John G. Noss died at New Holland, Pa., on the 15 inst aged 82 years. He is survived by three children, Rev. Dr. Christopher Noss, now a missionary of the Reformed church, in Japan; Rev. Charles L. Noss, Manor, Pa., and Mrs. Emma Burkholder, New Holland, Pa., with whom her father lived at the time of his death. His remains were conveyed to Silver Run on Monday morning, 20 inst., and interred in the cemetery there, beside those of his wife and his two daughters, Misses Mary and Pauline Noss, who preceded him to the spirit world. The funeral cortage traveled in automobiles. The undertaker was B. F. Esbenshade, of New Holland, and the pallbearers, at Silver Run, were members of the consistory of the Reformed Church, Calvin E. Bankert, John F. Maus, William P. Halter, William E. Brown, John W. Flickinger and Alvin G. Dutterer. Those who came from New Holland with the funeral were served with lunch at the home of John F. Maus. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. C. S. Slagle, of Baltimore, a former co-laborer of Rev. Noss's in Maryland classis, and was an eloquent and impressive tribute to the life and character of the deceased. It was followed by a short address from Rev. Dr. Ellis N. Kremer, of Harrisburg, Pa. Rev. John S. Adam, the present, and Rev. S. C. Hoover, a former pastor at Silver Run, also assisted in the services, and Rev. Calvin G. Bachman, of New Holland, officiated at the grave.

Rev. John G. Noss served the Reformed congregation at Silver Run for a period of 18 years, from 1876 to 1894, and it was during his pastorate and under his leadership that the present, handsome church was erected. In his death a man of remarkable ability has gone to his reward. His exemplary chrisitan life and his earnestness and simplicity in preaching the gospel were telling in their effects, and the uplifting influence of his work in this community is felt unto this day. A large congregation, composed in great part of his former parishioners, attended his burial, and it was a sad and solemn hour for many of them, and yet there was a pardonable feeling of joy in the thought that the last and final resting place of this faithful servant of the Master should be in the peaceful confines of God's acre at old Silver Run. We firmly believe that our departed friend always thought of and loved Silver Run as the home of his heart.

Rev. and Mrs. John S. Adam, entertained the Harrisburg, Pa., Reformed Ministerial Association, at an elegant dinner, at the parsonage, Silver Run, last Monday. Those present were: Revs. A. N. Sayers, Homer May and Dr. Ellis N. Kremer, Harrisburg; D. J. Wetzel, Shippensburg, Pa.; Chas. D. Rockel, Mechanicsburg, Pa., and W. W. Moyer, Steelton, Pa. Messrs. J. W. Bowman, and John K. Hull, of Harrisburg, and Louis E. Shriver, of Union Mills, were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E. Bankert and several of their children motored to Frederick, last Sunday, and attended services at Grace Reformed Church, of which Rev. S. C. Hoover is pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Yeiser are making fine progress on their Calimornia trip. When last heard from they were at Springfield, Ohio, and by the last of this week they expect to be in Denver, Colorado.
