WILD CHERRY.

A TRUE UNCOLICITED TESTIMONIAL.

Mars Bennett, Oxford County, Me., Nov 12, 1876.
Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Sons:
Gentlemen.—I feel it my duty to offer a few words in favor of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In the early part of last winter I took a cold, and shortly afterward a distressing cough, it was added to it. My friends did everything they could for me, but without avail. The best physicians that could be procured did not relieve me, and my cough continued with me all through the winter with increasing severity. I spit blood three or four times a day, and my friends considering my case hopeless, gave me up to a confirmed Consumptive. I was in this condition when I heard of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I beg of its use, and before I had taken half a bottle of it my cough and all my other troubles left me, and I was soon in the enjoyment of perfect health. This great result I ascribe to what it has done for me that I make you this voluntary testimony, hoping it may lead the unbelieving sufferers who are suffering as I was to avail themselves of the same remedy for lung complaints that I ever heard of, and I will be glad to answer any inquiries from my friends.

Respectfully yours,
MELISSA M. BALL.

FURNITURE!

JOHN MASON,

Practical Cabinet Maker and Undertaker,

HAS enlarged and refitted his ware-rooms, and has just filled them with the largest stock of furniture that has ever been brought to Easton, embracing nearly every thing in the furniture trade, from a common stool chair to a fine parlor suite of walnut, and from a common $4.00 bedstead to a fine chamber suite of walnut, nearly all of which have been bought from the maker, and will be sold for better cash prices than ever before offered in this city. Parlors, Chamber, Dining-room and Kitchen furniture, cheap and ample, and I believe I can make it to the interest of all to buy from me their fine as well as common furniture, and I respectfully ask the public to call and see my stock and hear my prices, before purchasing elsewhere.

I return my thanks to a generous public for their very liberal patronage in the past, and hope, by increased effort, to merit a continuance of the same.

UNDERTAKING,

With 20 years practical experience, I still make it a specialty, and will furnish funerals at the following low prices:

$5,000

Worth of Boots and Shoes thrown on the Easton Market.

The daily increasing demand for a certain quality and style of Boot and Shoe, is an evidence of the popular favor in which our stock is held by the community generally. We keep none but the best make, and sell at the very lowest prices, and we venture to assert that

The "Mongomery Boots" and "Plow Shoes"

have not their equal in the market. We have just received the largest invoice that we have ever before ordered of those celebrated boots and shoes, being almost an impossibility to keep the demand supplied, and we are offering them still, at the same low price. Persons in want of a good Boot or Shoe, should examine our stock, and they will be sure to purchase, as they commend themselves to purchasers at sight, to say nothing of the wide reputation by the hundreds who have purchased the same make before. In addition to this class, we have the most complete stock of

Ladies and Misses, Boys and Youths
Boots and Shoes,

of every quality, style and price, and we defy competition Call early and see for yourselves, as our stock is just opened. Our stock of

Fall & Winter Dry Goods

is very large and complete, and goods are marked down! down!! down!!! so that all can buy without embarrassment. Our stock of

was never larger and more complete than at present, and we are selling them very close, indeed. An examination will be all sufficient to prove what we here assert. We respectfully invite our many friends and customers to call and see us at our old stand on Market Space. SAMUEL NORRIS.

than ever before, to those that purchase their goods in Easton.

I am desirous of increasing my sales to an aggregate that will enable me to sell to the trade at a lower profit still, and it can only be done by consumers concentrating their patronage upon the one that already sells the cheapest.

In addition to reduced profits this season, I have made arrangements to control in this market, several makes of very superior boots, each pair of which will be specially warranted to give satisfaction.

Accommodating terms of credit given to responsible and prompt paying customers.

The present large stock is but a foreshadow of what is to come.
