Steamer Ruggles.

Choptank River and Baltimore.

WE beg to announce that we have placed the good Steamer RUGGLES, Capt. Townsend, upon the Choptank River as a Freight Boat to and from Baltimore, and solicit the patronage of farmers and others to sustain the enterprise. This is exclusively a Freight Line for transportation of Grain, Fruit, Truck, Meachandise, &c., at reasonable rates. A good wharf has been secured in Baltimore, foot of Commerce street, for delivery and receipt of cargo. The RUGGLES will leave Choptank River on MONDAYS and FRIDAYS, leaving Coward's Point at 10 A. M., and stopping at Reese's Landing, Griffith's Point, Kingston, Dover Bridge, Hog Island, Lloyd's Landing, Medford's Wharf, Cliff, Cabin Creek, Jamaica Point.

Will leave Baltimore on TUESDAY and SATURDAY evenings.

Every effort will be made to satisfy the patrons of the Steamer and merit success.

No Quinine!

Dr Berg's German Ague Pills!

Are strictly Vegetable, being entirely free from Quinine, Mercury and all other deleterious substances. They have been tested for years in private practice, and have never been known to fail to cure Fever and Ague in its worst stages. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Foul Stomach, Want of Faith in the Month, Nightsight, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility and all diseases arising from a change of climate and impurity of the blood, greatly benefitted by their use. All I ask is a trial of these valuable Pills, and they will convince the most skeptical of their merits. Ask your Druggist for them and if he has them not, inclose 50 cents by mail to us, and they will be sent free of charge, by the next mail, with full directions for use.

KELLER'S VEGETABLE LIFE DROPS

In the introduction of Keller's Vegetable Life Drops, a new departure has been instituted. Instead of appealing to the credulity and desperation of the sick, the judgment of all is addressed in "A Brief Manual of Purgative and Depurative Medicine,"—(to be had of druggists free of charge, and given with every bottle of the Drops,)—written for those who, having a perception of their diseases, can intelligently apply the principles therein contained, with the assurance of relief and cure of

Diseases of the Blood

LIVER AND STOMACH;—

INDIGESTION,

Dyspepsia, Constipation, &c.

Keller's Vegetable Life Drops

by their peculiar alterative and purgative influence, act especially upon the BLOOD, purifying it, and removing such diseases as

Liver Complaint, Biliousness, Ulcers, Rheumatism, Pimples, Skin Diseases, Blotches, Neuralgia, Boils, Eruptions, Headache, Nervousness, Jaundice, Fever & Ague, Colds, Loss of Appetite, and KINDRED DISEASES, resulting from impoverished or vitiated BLOOD.

DYSPEPSIA.

The possession of pure blood depends upon good digestion; for where derangement of the digestive function exists disease inevitably results, and Dyspepsia, with all of its terrors and tortures, becomes established.

Keller's Vegetable Life Drops

are a specific for DYSPEPSIA, or INDIGESTION, FLATULENCY, HEARTBURN CRAMPS, NAUSEA and VOMITING, Pains in the Head, Side and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Hypochondria, and all that class of diseases arising from Indigestion.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

When from any of the numerous inciting causes the Liver begins to act abnormally, the bile remains in the system, vitiating and perverting every vital process, and causing Boils, Carbuncles, Blotches, Pimples, Coughs Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, Dysentery, Kidney and Bladder diseases, and many other disorders, all originating directly or indirectly from the Liver. Keller's Vegetable Life Drops induce the healthy action of the Liver by providing for the removal of the biliary constituents by the Bowels, Kidneys and Skin.

CONSTIPATION.

The suppression and retention of the contents of the alimentary canal produce Foul Breath, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Piles, Chronic Headache, Skin affections, and very many other diseases referable to the insidious influence of Constipation. Keller's Vegetable Life Drops promptly cure this disease, and all the bad effects attending upon or resulting from it.

Keller's Vegetable Life Drops

are the safest remedy for those peculiar diseases arising from the structural differences between the sexes, and known as Female Complaints.

The use of Keller's Vegetable Life Drops has been thus only partially indicated; their range of application is very great, and their work is always more than satisfactory. Their remarkable efficacy, as already shown, is particularly exhibited in diseases of Blood, Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

Keller's Vegetable Life Drops are recommended as being the best and cheapest FAMILY MEDICINE ever offered, and are sold by druggists and dealers at 50 cents a bottle, or five bottles for $2.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY FOR 1877-'78.

Without recalling the excellence of the past, the publishers of SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY announce, for the year to come, the following papers:

THE PICTURESQUE SIDE OF AMERICAN FARM LIFE.—This subject will be treated in a series of separate papers engaged from writers who stand in the front rank among Americans, both in qualities of style and in keen insight of nature. Mr. R. E. Robinson, author of a delightful paper on "Fox-Hunting in New England" in the January number, will represent the same section in this series. John Burroughs, whose papers on similar topics have been a highly prized and popular feature of SCRIBNER will write of Farm Life in New York. Maurice Thompson, the poet-naturalist, will decribe the characteristics of Western farming, of which but little has been written. It is expected that the illustration of this series will be of a refined and typical character commensurate with the subject-matter. It is thought that no paper or series of papers yet issued in Scribner will so fully realize the constant desire of the magazine to keep out of the ruts, and, both in text and illustrations, to obtain quality rather than quantity, and to print fresh, strong and delicate work from original sources.

"Roxy,"—by Edward Eggleston (author of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," &c.). This new novel will doubtless be the most important American serial of the year. The first number was published in November. Those who have read it in manuscript declare Roxy to be much the most striking and remarkable story this author has ever written. It is illustrated by one of the ablest of the younger American painters—Mr. Walter Shirlaw, President of "The American Art Association."

American Sports.—Some of the most novel and entertaining of these papers are yet to appear, the scenes of which will be in the West, the Middle States, the South, New England and Canada.

Out-Of-Door Papers.—by John Burroughs, author of "Wake Robin," &c., will contain not only articles on Birds, but on "Tramping," "Camping Out," and kindred topics. Mr. Burrough's papers will begin in the January number, the first being entitled "Birds and Birds," and illustrated by Fidelia Bridges.

Architecture of Birds.—Dr. Thomas M. Brewer will contribute four exquisitely illustrated articles on birds'-nests, which every lover of nature will delight in. Dr. Brewer has probably the finest collection of birds' eggs in the world to draw upon for the illustration of these papers.

The Saddle-Horse.—Col. George E. Waring, with whose excellent work of various sorts of our readers are familiar, contributes two illustrated articles on the horse. He treats specially of saddle-horses and their use for pleasure and for sport, including road-riding, fox-hunting and racing. The nature of the English thoroughbred and that of his Eastern progenitor (the Arabian) are fully considered in relation to these uses.

Saxe Holm.—New stories by this popular writer will be given in early numbers of Scribner, beginning with "Joe Hale's Red Stockings," to appear in January. This "novelette" chronicles an episode of the late war for the Union.

Literary Portraits—Richard Henry Stoddard, not only one of the most eminent of our poets, but also distinguished for his knowledge of English literary history, will contribute a number of literary portraits, including those of Keats, Shelley, Mrs. Browning, &c.

More Old Letters,—By Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, of the Philadelphia Press. This series is a very promising one, as Dr. Mackenzie is perhaps, of Americans, the best informed and most widely acquainted in all matters personal to his contemporaries among English authors. He will present notes on and letters from, Miss Barrett (Mrs. Browning), Sir William Hamilton, Disraeli, Wordsworth, Southey, &c.

Robert Dale Owen.—The last work of this remarkable man's life was devoted to a series of political reminiscenses written for Scribner's Monthly. He has left the series incomplete, but we have at least three intensely interesting papers on political men and political events connected with the history of his early life, written in a style as pure and forcible as that of his best days.

Some Old Masters,—By Clarence Cook (author of "The House Beautiful"), will consist of a series of papers superbly illustrated, on Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael, Michael Angelo, etc. These papers will have interest and value different from the ordinary magazine article, as they will give the results of the studies of life-time by an excellent writer, who is now the most prominent art critic in this country.

His Inheritance."—By Adeline Trafton, so well began in the Midsummer Holiday number, will be continued nearly through the year. It will be found to be of increasing interest to the very end.

"A Knight of Fortune"—Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen's new novel—will be begun in Scribner at the conclusion of "His Inheritance." It will reveal a phase of American society undreamed of by most of our readers, and will be certain to increase the reputation of the writer as a master of English and of his art.

The Editorial Departments will continue to employ the ablest pens in America, and will include the present admirable summary of English publications. Besides the special articles above enumerated, the magazine will contain Poems, Sketches, Essays, Reviews, and shorter Stories of the highest character. A large practical reduction in price is made by an increase in the number of pages.

The Illustrations of the Magazine, in variety and excellence of design and in typographical execution, will continue to be in advance of those of any other popular magazine at home or abroad.

Subscription price, $4.00 a year, payable in advance to us or any book-seller.

No club rates or other discounts to subscribers. The Magazine is worth all it costs, and its circulation is increasing in a constant and steady ratio from year to year.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press.

The Bazar is the organ of the fashionable world, and the expounder of that world's laws; and it is the authority in all matters of manners, etiquette, costume, and social habits.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fire side enjoyment it affords, and has become an established authority with the ladies of America.—N. Y. Evening Post.

BALTIMORE LITERARY PAPERS.

The Saturday Post is a new literary paper just started in Baltimore by John S. Wirt and Frederick Emory. The initial number, issued on the 10th, is excellent. It is an eight page paper, and sparkles with poetry, stories, news, gossip, and well-prepared editorials. Such a paper ought to command a large circulation.

The Baltimorean, published by Crutchfield & Haas, has reached No. 24, Vol. VI, and is in all respects a first-class paper. It abounds with news and excellent stories and gossip, and well written editorials on all the current topics of the day. It never looked more prosperous than at present. It is a good paper and deserves the liberal support it is receiving.

The Sunday Telegram, J. T. Ringgold editor and proprietor, is an old favorite. It is now in its XVII volume, and is as lively as a cricket, giving weekly the cream of the news, interesting stories, poetry, gossip, &c. During the war, and for sometime afterwards, the Sunday Telegram was the only literary paper published in Baltimore. It has been a successful paper from its first issue.

TURKISH REINFORCEMENTS.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Bucharest says strong reinforcements are reaching the Turks at Orchanie.

Acquittal of the Baltimore County Judges.

It will be remembered that Judges Gunson and Yellott, were indicted in Baltimore county last summer for malfeasance in office, because they discharged the grand jury against their consent, after they had been in session six weeks. It was the last of June, and many of the jurors and witnesses desired to be discharged, in order that they might go home and attend to their harvest. The grand jury was at the time investigating the books and accounts in the County Commissioners' office. The incriminated Judges made every effort to secure a speedy trial in Baltimore county, but on motion of the State's Attorney, the cases were removed to Anne Arundel county. Last week they were tried at Annapolis before Judges Miller, Hammond and Hayden and honorably acquitted. The following is the decision of the Court. After the conclusion of the argument on the part of the prosecution, Judge Miller said:

"In deciding this case the court does not intend to go into any matters argued by the counsel. The question of law which the court will decide is as to the power of the court to adjourn the term pending the session of the grand jury. In deference to the able argument of the attorney-general the court will say a few words, though they will not go into the questions argued as to the general powers of the grand juries in investigation of cases before them. The constitution prescribes that two terms of each Circuit Court shall be held yearly at which juries shall be summoned, and two term at which there shall be no juries. The Judges may also appoint special terms to suit their convenience. The Legislature says the terms of court shall commence on such days as the law names, but the length of the terms, the time of adjournment, &c., is nowhere fixed, and is left to the judicial discretion of the judges.

Now what is a term? It is so long as the judges determine. From time immemorial the judges have exercised the power to adjourn the terms of court, and the Court of Appeals have decided they have the power. We have therefore no doubt as to the power of the court to adjourn the term during the sessions of the grand jury. But this is a judicial act in which they may be held liable for corruptly acting. If the judges cut short the course of the grand jury for the corrupt purpose of stopping an investigation, or if they continue a session and refuse to adjourn a grand jury to procure indictments by them for corrupt purposes, the judges may be tried and punished. But the authorities are full and clear to the effect that the corrupt intent must be specifically charged in the indictment. There have been too many decisions on this point by the Court of Appeals to leave any doubt of it now. The judges are as much entitled to have this allegation a part of the indictment against them as the humblest individual in the land. It must be alleged and proved as alleged.

But the court has no hesitation in saying that the charge of corrupt motives if properly made is totally unsupported by the evidence. There is no sufficient proof in the whole case to support such a charge. A verdict of not guilty and a discharge will therefore be entered. The court thought no blame attached to the judges under the second count for not trying certain cases.

A STRANGE COMBAT.

Fight Between Two St. Louis Men While in a Turkish Bath.

The St. Louis Republican of the 3rd instant contains the particulars of a fight between a bank cashier and a doctor in the Turkish bath-house of Dr. Adam's, 311 North Seventh street, of that city. The two men, who were enemies, met accidentally in the bath, both being nude and recumbent upon the lounges. Harsh words became harsher between the two, and, finally, one of the men said something not to be listened to quietly, there was a quick blow and then a desperate struggle. The hottest room of the Turkish bath is one where the tile of the floor is so heated that bare feet must be burned which come in contact with it, and where strips of thick carpet protect the feet of the bathers. Along the front of the row of couches in the room a heavy strip of this carpet ran, and here it was that the battle was carried on. The doctor struck his opponent in the face, cutting open a little vein in the forehead and filling one eye of the cashier with blood. At the same time the cashier returned the blow, and snatching a hold upon the doctor's flowing beard tore out what "Can," one of the attendants, calls "a double handful, be gob!" At the same time in the struggles of the men the long broad strip of carpet beneath them was pushed aside by their feet, and the next instant the two men were capering about upon the heated floor. It was an astonishing spectacle. The men were naked, they were perspiring violently and they could not clutch each other
