LOCAL RECORD.

Baltimore Markets.

Gold, $1.02¾. Prime Southern Wheat is quoted at $1.30@$1.35. Inferior grades lower. Old White Corn, 62@63 cents; New Corn, 56@57 cents. Oats, 35@37 cents. Rye, 86 cents.

—Life is full of sorrows and disappointments, but the most sanguine hopes of all those who try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup are always realized. It never disappoints.

—To those engaged in sedentary pursuits: You are aware of course that activity is promotive of functional effort, particularly of the stomach and bowels; inactivity induces Dyspepsia and all of its wretched consequences. In the absence of plenty of exercise we can cheerfully recommend that invaluable tonic and alterative, Keller's Vegetable Life Drops, the best remedy known for Dyspepsia and those diseases incident to a sedentary course of life.

—Father Boyle's lecture takes place at the town hall this evening.

—His Honor, Judge Stump, yesterday appointed Nicholas Willis, Esq., foreman of the grand jury.

—Don't forget the trotting race at Hambleton Park on Thanksgiving day. It will afford a fine entertainment to all who may attend.

—The new Methodist E. Church at Ridgely is to be dedicated on Sunday, the 16th of December by Rev. Wm. B. Chapman, of Baltimore.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Md. & Del. railroad will take place at the office of the company in this place on the 12th of December.

—Queen Anne's Court was in session week before last. The Centreville Observer says there was very little civil business before the court at the November term.

—Mr. Henry M. Bennett, Samuel Patchett, Manager, has opened a large stock of furniture at his warerooms on Dover street, and are offering it at prices to suit the times. See his advertisement in the STAR.

—Mr. John H. K. Shannahan's fingers were badly cut by a circular saw while sawing wood Thursday morning. His thumb of the right hand was very shockingly lacerated. Doctors Anderson and Johnson dressed the wounds.

—Mrs. Sarah E. W. Rose, at "Wye Cottage," near Wye Landing, having declined farming, will dispose of her live stock and farming implements on Monday, November the 26th inst. See advertisement in the STAR.

—Mr. Wm. J. Marshall has opened his livery stable and is now running a bus to and from all trains and steamboats. Orders can be left at the Brick Hotel, and will be promptly attended to and satisfaction guaranteed.

—A. A. Pascault, Esq., as agent for Mrs. Agnes O. Tilghman, will sell at public vendue, at "Maryland," in Miles River Neck, on Monday, the 3rd of December, some valuable live stock and farming implements. See advertisement in the STAR.

—While out gunning, one day last week, in getting over a fence, Mr. Samuel Norris dislocated the cap of his knee. He succeeded in getting the bone in place again, but the pain was excruciating. Gunning is a bad business with a bowed.

—We are obliged to Mr. Hughey McGinn for bunch of his mammoth celery, which is the finest we have seen this season. Mac has enough of the same kind to supply the Easton market the coming winter. Those who want fine celery for their Thanksgiving dinner should engage it of him to-day.

—Dr. Samuel C. Trippe has removed from Oxford to Royal Oak, to practice his profession in the field made vacant by the death of Dr. Harrington. Dr. Trippe is well posted in all the late discoveries of the profession, and the people of Royal Oak neighborhood are fortunate in having so good a young doctor to settle among them.

—Phil. Floyd, under the brick hotel, respectfully informs the court, jury, witnesses, attorneys, and other persons attending court this week and next, that they can get a first-rate shave, or their hair cut in the latest style, by calling at his barber shop, and he will be particularly gratified to have a call from his old friends and the public generally, including youths and children needing his tonsorial services.

—The prospectuses for 1878, of the following well-known New York publications, will be found on the first page of this morning's STAR:—Scribner's Monthly, Harper's Magazine, Harper's Weekly, Harper's Bazar. Also notices of the following Baltimore literary papers:—The Saturday Post, The Baltimorean, The Sunday Telegram. Persons wanting either of them can subscribe through this office, of Professor Minnick, or can order directly from the publishers. Special attention is directed to the prospectuses.

—Ex-Governor Groome, of Elkton, met with an accident on Monday week, of such a nature that his escape with slight injuries was truly wonderful. He was driving on the road between Mechanics Valley and Elkton during the heavy rain storm of that evening. A short distance from the first named place, in consequence of darkness, he got off the road upon a ridge between two gullies. He attempted to turn his horses aside to regain the road when they became unmanageable, and before he could get them under control again the wheels of the vehicle were backed into the ditch and the carriage upset. Mr. Groome fell beneath the wreck one of his horses falling upon him, and he was considerably bruised, though not seriously injured.

Sale of the Md. & Del. Railroad.

Ex-Gov. James B. Groome, Trustee, will sell the Md. & Del. railroad at auction in Easton, on the 20th of December. It is advertised in to-day's STAR.

Death of a Physician.

Dr. John C. Harrington, of Royal Oak, died in Baltimore last Tuesday. He went to the city for medical treatment for consumption, and died suddenly and unexpectedly, as he was out riding the day before his demise.

Large Beets.

Mr. William W. Hemsley, of Oxford Neck, has left at this office four Mangel Wurzels, which weigh about 30 pounds. They are rousers. He says they were raised on ground that had no manure on it this season. They are hard to beat.

Fair and Festival.

The ladies of King's Creek Methodist E. Church will hold a fair and festival at Matthewstown next Thursday and Friday evenings, for the benefit of their new church. The public are invited to attend and patronize the festival. Supper, oysters, ice cream, &c., will be served.

Furnaces.

Messrs. Tuthill & Avery are now manufacturing at their large establishment in Easton, a very superior furnace, suitable for family use and for churches. They have just put up two large ones in the Methodist E. Church at St. Michaels. They are warranted to give satisfaction.

A New Enterprise.

Mr. H. C. McNamara, 156 East Pratt Street, Baltimore, has opened a purchasing agency, and will purchase any article to be had in the city of Baltimore, at wholesale price. See his advertisement in the STAR; send him an order and try him. He is well recommended and may be relied upon.

The Cause of Temperance.

The cause of temperance in this State is looking up again. Large weekly temperance meetings are held in Baltimore, and much enthusiasm prevails. At the late election, a vote on local option was taken in Kent county, resulting in a large majority in favor of local option. A vote was also taken in one district in Cecil county, and the vote was almost unanimous in favor of local option.

The Metropolitans Coming Again.

The Metropolitan Dramatic Company, Mr. J. Daymond, Manager, which afforded our people so much pleasure during their late visit, we are gratified to learn, will visit Easton again next week, and on Wednesday evening, the 28th, they will play "Iora, or, The Secret Marriage," and "Rough Diamond;" and on Thursday evening—Thanksgiving day—they will play "Hidden Hand," and "The Cork Leg." They will give a matinee on Thursday afternoon, and play "The Marble Lover," and "Perfection." They have added six new artists to the company, mostly ladies, and are thoroughly equipped to give Easton a first-class theatrical entertainment, and there is no doubt but that they will have full houses, to compensate them for coming so far to entertain our citizens.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR TALBOT COUNTY.

SECOND DAY, MON., NOV. 19, 1877.

HARDY, Monday, Nov. 19th.—The November Term of the Circuit Court for Talbot County commenced its sessions this morning, His Honor Judge Stump presiding. Present, J. Frank Turner, Esq., Clerk; C. M. Gibson, Esq., State's Attorney; Peter Stevens, Deputy Clerk; William S. Grace, Sheriff; William K. Bethell, Crier; and Messrs. Cox and Bostick, Bailiffs. The July term of the court was called and adjourned. The November term opened. The grand jury were sworn, charged by the Judge and sent to their room.

The civil appearance, the appeal, and the criminal appearance dockets were called. The criminal trial docket was taken up.

State vs. Morris Bantum; presented for an assault and battery on David Stanford, in March, 1877. Plea not guilty; Gibson for State. Submitted to the court. Not guilty.

The State cases were then postponed to Tuesday morning, and the appeal docket taken up.

Church Improvement.

Extensive improvements are being made in St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church of Queenstown, over which Rev. Father Hemehy presides. The church is being remodeled and enlarged, and is to be replastered, repainted, and newly seated. When finished, it will afford sittings for 300 people. It is to be dedicated on Saturday, the 8th of December. A new rectory is talked of, when the church is finished. Father Hemehy is one of the most zealous and successful priests on the Eastern Shore. He is really doing the work of two or three priests.

The Pitzjarrell Murder.

J. S. Pontier, Esq., of the State Detective Force, has been here for a week, investing the Pitzjarrell double murder case. He has worked like a beaver night and day, and left no stone unturned to get at the bottom facts; but whether he has succeeded in so far unravelling the mystery which has hitherto surrounded the case, as to carry proof of guilt home to the villain that committed the cold-blooded deed, he is too shrewd and intelligent to disclose to the public, until he has fastened his clamps on the guilty party. We sincerely trust he may succeed in his efforts to ferret out the murderer. If he should not succeed, however, it will not be for the want of diligence or zeal in sifting the matter, for he has worked in a manner to add fresh laurels to his already high reputation as an accomplished detective. Mr. C. M. Gibson, our State's Attorney, has rendered him every possible assistance in his investigation of the case.

A Singular Runaway.

About noon yesterday, Mr. William Potts, from Centreville, drove in town with a horse and buggy, and halted opposite Henry & Goldsborough's drug store. Not knowing that Frank Wright kept a livery stable, where horses can be groomed and fed for 25 cents, Mr. Potts had his buggy well stuffed with corn blades, which projected about half a bundle length in the rear of his vehicle. The horse is a slow traveler, and required considerable poling to get him here. At every curve in the road, as he came down, the horse would sight the corn-blades sticking out at the tail end of the buggy. As soon as Mr. Potts dismounted, the horse started at a full run after the blades, and as the buggy hung to him, it was impossible for him to get at them. Coming up the street at a double-quick, he dashed by the brick hotel between the sign post and the corner of the building, thence straight for the market house pump, and scenting the water in the pump he halted for a drink, by the aid of several persons in front of him hollowing "woe," "woe," "woe!" to all travelers that carry fodder in their buggies, for their horses to run after. In passing the hotel, the right hind-wheel struck the sign post and knocked off about three feet of the tire. Moral—Better pay a quarter and have your horse fed at a livery stable, than to carry blades in your buggy to tempt your horse to run after, and pay $5 damages.

Important to All.

The most general complaint that seems to spare neither class nor condition of person, is seated in the liver. Many, with woe begone countenances, despondent spirits and depressed feelings, exaggerate every event until even suicide has been known to result from this morbid condition of body and mind, yet Simmons' Liver Regulator is known to be a specific for affections of the Liver, Spleen and Kidneys. Unlike most preparations, it fully meets the wants of the patient whose liver or stomach is disorganized and soon restores the emaciated and spiritless dyspeptic sufferer, to a more hopeful condition of life than he could otherwise hope to attain. Purchasers should be careful to see that they get the genuine, manufactured only by J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia.

☞ It is surprising how cheaply one can purchase good music, of all the musical papers of which there are many. THE SCORE, the latest from Boston, can boast of giving the most for the money.

The second number of this Journal contains GAVOTTE by Resch for piano; SILENCE AND TEARS, Allen, base song; Arkansas March by Mack; and the popular song.

"HELPING KATY O'ER THE BROOK," with two pages of very interesting reading matter, all of which will be sent to you on receipt of four three cent stamps.

A FAVORITE REMEDY.

Simmons' Liver Regulator is one of the most meritorious and popular preparations offered to the public. It is entirely free from injurious mineral substances, and as a vegetable preparation made of southern roots and herbs it is a sovereign remedy for all liver and bowel complaints. The merits of this remedy commend it to the public as a standard to be kept constantly in the family. It has the most unqualified endorsement of thousands of our most prominent citizens in all parts of the country, who have used it and testify to its excellent medical and curative properties.

Purchasers should be careful to see that they get the genuine, manufactured only by J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia.
