When our esteemed contemporary, the Democratic Advocate, turns over its editorial columns to Democratic politicians one may expect to read just such exaggerated and misleading statements as have appeared in the last two issues of that "beacon of truth".

The day is past when offices are given out simply to reward the faithful. Now efficiency counts most, and any candidate lacking in that particular need not feel disappointed if the voters elect the other fellow, who happens to be more efficient. In some cases party lines have little or no bearing with many voters.

STONE CHAPEL

Sunday school 9:30 A. M. Revival services 7:30 P. M. October 30. Revival services are well attended, excellent sermons and good singing. We had with us Misses Erma and Katharine Fowler and Mrs. Tom Fowler, of New Windsor, who sang beautiful selections. Miss Katharine Fowler will be with us during this week. Three of our Sunday school boys came forward Sunday night and expressed a desire to lead a christian life. We expect to have Rev. Edward Parrish, of Walkersville, a brother of our pastor, preach on Sunday night October 30. A number of our Sunday school men will be in the parade of the Men's Adult Bible Class in Westminster Sunday afternoon, October 30. The women can encourage the men by looking at the parade, after which they will attend the mass meeting in the M. E. Church. We will not have the pleasure of hearing the Georgia Cyclone, yet we know we will hear something good from Mrs. Heilman, of Baltimore.

The Mite Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Clifton Cook, November 12, Saturday afternoon at 2 P. M.

The ladies of the Mite Society and church will hold an oyster supper in the hall November 11.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

Never attempt to relieve your baby with a remedy that you would use for yourself.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
