LOCAL RECORD.

Baltimore Markets.

Gold is quoted at $1.00½. Wheat, $1.00@1.05. Corn, 49 cents; Oats, 36 cents; Rye 65 cents.

—Suffering will exhibit its presence by the cries of the baby, and should be removed by the prompt use of that highly recommended remedy —Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. It is free from Morphia. Price 25 cents.

—As words are the bodies in which ideas live, and their appropriate use creates the grandeur of language, so Keller's Roman Liniment is the body in which is carried more remedial efficacy than is any other preparation of its nature known. Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Tooth-ache, and all that vast host of nervous and painful diseases yield at once and finally to its wondrous powers.

—Thanksgiving day—next Thursday.

—Court is still in session, and will probably not adjourn until the last of the week.

—The rain storm on Saturday was very unpleasant to those attending court.

—Try our 5ct two-button kid gloves. They cannot be beat at the price.—Jarrell, Nichols & Cox.

—Thursday next being Thanksgiving-day the Easton Postoffice will be open from 8 A. M. to 9 A. M., and from 1 P. M. to 4.30. P. M.

—Jarrell, Nichols & Cox have a complete line of Nottingham lace, which they are offering very low.

—John F. Wiley, the member of the legislature elect from Baltimore, whose illness we noticed last Tuesday, died last week at his late residence in Baltimore.

—Prof. Minnick left here yesterday morning for the cities of Philadelphia and New York, to purchase his holiday stock. His advertisement will appear later.

—Charles E. Shannahan, Esq., Trustee, advertises in to-day's STAR, a valuable farm at auction, the sale peremptory on the 19th of December.

—The Prospectus of the Galaxy for 1878 will be found on the first page of this morning's STAR. The Prospectus of Lippincott's Magazine will be found on the 2nd page. They are both first-class monthlies.

—The cars on the Maryland & Delaware railroad now leave Easton at 7:30 A. M. and arrive at Clayton at 10:10 A. M. They arrive at Easton at 2 P. M. as formerly. The new arrangement commenced yesterday.

—Mr. Theodore Arringdale, in King's Creek neighborhood, will sell his live stock and farming implements at public auction on Wednesday, December 12th. See advertisement in another the column.

—Money must be very scarce, for during the whole of last week, although there were a great many people in town attending court, we collected but one single subscription, and not one dollar on printing or advertising accounts. We think our friends ought occasionally to remember us, and call and pay what they owe us. We can't take the time to run after and dun a thousand subscribers.

—The new M. E. Church at Ridgely, on Hillsborough circuit, will be dedicated on Sunday, December 16th. The services will be conducted by Rev. Wm. H. Chapman, of Baltimore, and Rev. E. Stubbs, of Smyrna. There will be service at 10:30 A. M., 3 P. M., and 7 P. M. From the great popularity of the two reverend gentlemen whose services have been secured for the occasion, and from other circumstances, we anticipate a day of great interest.

—The miserable five hours "lay over" at Clayton, to wait for the 2:20 afternoon train on the Delaware railroad, thanks to Mr. John L. Caldwell and the managers of the Delaware road, has been done away with. Our cars now make close connection at Clayton with a new train established on the Delaware road, and passengers leaving Easton at 7:30 A. M., arrive at Philadelphia at 1:45 P. M., and at Baltimore at 3:35 P. M. This is the best winter arrangement for our people that the managers of the two roads have ever made for us.

—A gentleman came into the STAR office one day last week, and after looking at the big beets left here by Mr. W. W. Hemsley, turned to us and said: "these are very fine beets for this country; but would you believe it if I tell you, in California I have seen beets that would weigh over 100 pounds; some of them large enough for one of them to give ten cows a good meal. They grow about four feet out of the ground, as thick as a man's body, and the leaves are so rank they may be tied over a man's head. Riding by them in the cars, they look like a field of stumps of trees cut off very high." He assured us what he said was every word true; and as we know him to be a truthful man, we believed him, but hereafter shall say nothing about big beets growing in Talbot county.

—The Dramatic Entertainments to be given by the Metropolitan Dramatic Company, of Baltimore, in the town hall on next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, promise to be unusually attractive. Since their last visit to Easton the troupe has been increased by the addition of several eminent artists from the city theatres, and our citizens may rest assured of a fine dramatic treat. The thrilling drama of "Dora" will be presented on Wednesday evening, followed by the farce of the "Rough Diamond." On Thursday evening the great sensational piece "The Hidden Hand;" and the "Cork Leg." A grand matinee performance will be given on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, of "Michael Erle or the Maniac Lover," and "Perfection." The charming versatile actress, Miss Ella De Bune, will sustain the role of Capitola in the "Hidden Hand," and Mr. Wm. H. Bokee will appear as Black Donald. The characters of Cousin Joe in "Rough Diamond" and Wool in "Hidden Hand," will be taken by S. B. Hopkins, Jr. Doors open a 7 o'clock P. M., performance to commence at 8 o'clock. Admission, 35 cents; children, 25 cents. Reserved seats 50 cents, to be had at Prof. Minnick's, who has a plat of the hall. Don't fail to attend.

Personal.

Judge Wickes arrived here on Tuesday, and joined judge Stump on the bench. Judge Robinson arrived Thursday. Judge Stump was indisposed with a bad cold, and did not sit on the bench Friday and Saturday. All three of the judges were in court yesterdry.

The New York Sun.

The prospectus for 1877 of the N. Y. Sun will be found in our advertising columns. It is one of the cheapest and one of the best papers published. Take it for 1878; you cannot fail to like it. Its editorials are written with a force and a directness that are unrivalled. It has no mercy on fraud, extravagance, and political corruption and is a terror to evil doers.

Mancha's Delaware Land Agency.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. J. F. Mancha's Delaware Land Agency has proved a decided success. In the last ten months he has sold 7,-214 acres of land, for $221,020, and his agency has had in that time 501 visitors. For the last three months he has averaged a sale for every other day. We doubt if all the other land agencies on Peninsula can show as good a record.

Special.

We take pleasure in again announcing to our readers, that Mr. H. C. McNamara, No. 158 East Pratt street, Baltimore, will purchase for them any article that can be had in Baltimore, at the lowest city prices. We advise them to order what they may want, of him, and are satisfied they will be glad they took our advice, as they will save money on all goods purchased through him.

Omnibus in the River.

The horses of Mr. William J. Marshall's omnibus accidentally backed over the wharf on Friday morning at Easton Point, and precipitated the bus, horses, and driver into the river. One horse was drowned, and Mr. Marshall's little brother, who was asleep in the bus when the accident occurred, made a very narrow escape. By the aid of the steamboat hands from the Highland Light, the boy, driver, bus, and one horse were rescued.

A Woman Hater; By Charles Reade.

This interesting novel—Charles Reade's last, and one of his best stories—is complete in No. 114 and 115, vol. 4, of The Lakeside Library, published by Donnolly & Loyd, Chicago, and sold for 20 cents. The Lakeside fully meets the great popular want of the day, by giving the public a plentiful supply of CHEAP AND GOOD LITERATURE. Only think of George Eliot's "Middlemarch" for 20 cents, "Tom Brown at Oxford" for 20 cents, and "The Castaways," by Jules Verne, with 20 illustrations for 20 cents. The issue of The Lakeside Library is excellent. In this respect it is vastly superior to all imitators and competitors. The Lakeside series of good books is rapidly supplanting the "Dime Novel" of the past.

Notice.

In our advertising columns is noticed Studdard's Musical Library, a serial publication, now under way which from its extraordinary cheapness will effect a revolution in the music publishing interest. Messrs. Studdard & Co. agree to give for the low price of one dime, a collection of the most popular instrumental and vocal music, printed on full size music paper, of the best quality. The same amount and quality in fact as would cost $1.50 if published separately. This is a step in the right direction, and one which will find instant and hearty favor with those whom it is intended to benefit.

[COMMUNICATED.]

MR. EDITOR:—Please call the attention of the Town Commissioners to the fact, that some of the lamps on West street are not regularly lighted. If any ordinance has been passed forbidding the lighting of these lamps, I have not heard of it. If the lamp lighter is paid to light them, the commissioners should see that he does it.

CAN PAYER.

In connection with the above, we would also call the attention of the commissioners, to the lamp on Railroad avenue, near the Chapel gate. It has not been lighted any Sunday night for a long time. Several ladies have spoken to us about the matter, and asked why Mr. Tyler does not attend to this lamp when he lights the others. Last Sunday night when service let out, it was dark as pitch at the gate.—[ED. STAR.]

TROTTING.

The trot between Joe Baxter and Rob Roy takes place at Hambleton Park next Thursday afternoon.

The New Officers.

The old Board of County Commissioners retired yesterday. The new Board qualified and entered upon their duties, and organized by electing William Willis, esq., President of the Board.

Sheriff Griffin has received his commission and is expected to bond and qualify to-day.

The Trotting Match Between Whalebone and Lightning.

TIOGA, N. Y., Nov. 14th, 1877.

Match for $1,000, mile heats, 2 in 3 in harness.

G. Finnicum, b. h. Lightning,	1	1	2	2	1
J. M. Fowers, b. h. Whalebone,	2	2	1	1	2

Time, 2:31, 2:30¾, 2:28, 2:30, 2:34. Yours, C. W.

The above is from Turf, Field & Farm, of Nov. 23.

Whalebone was beaten, but not on his merits. Here is a correct account of the race as I can give.

1st heat. Lightning went off with the lead and was at least 60 yards in the lead this first half, when whalebone began to gain on him, and come out on his wheel in 2:31.

2nd heat. About the same as the first, only both horses came home under the whip. The heat was given to Lightning by two feet. Time 2:30¾.

3d heat. Lightning went off with the lead, Whalebone collared him on the last quarter and beat him home one length in 2:29.

4th heat. Lightning led again to the half, when Whalebone passed him and beat him home two lengths, in 2:30.

5th heat. When called for this heat, the Ontario boys put in the plea that it was too late to trot. The judges decided in their favor, although I protested against it, for I knew I then had the race. I wanted them to put out patrole judges, which they declined to do, and the race was postponed until next morning. I knew my chances were gone. The next morning we came out, under a pelting rain. The track was very muddy. At the word go, Lightning took the lead and kept it until coming home, when Whalebone collared him, and they were head and head past the stand, in 2:34. Judges gave the heat to Lightning.

Now, Mr. Star, let the people judge for themselves which is the best horse.

J. M. FOWERS.
