LOCAL RECORD.

Baltimore Markets.

Gold on Saturday was $1.02⅝. Southern wheat is quiet and steady. Maryland red $1.26@1.45. No sales of choice amber quoted. Corn, 56 cents. Oats, 36 cents. Rye, 65 cents.

—Prejudice often rules in the physical treatment of babies. They are allowed to suffer and scream with pain from Colic, Flatulence, Bowel Disorders, etc., when some simple, reliable and safe remedy, as Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, would give almost immediate relief and perfect ease to the little sufferer. Price 25 cents per bottle.

—Rome was not built in a day, but Keller's Roman Liniment will cure almost any case of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, pain in the back or stomach, tooth-ache, ear-ache, sore throat, head-ache, cuts, bruises, etc., and all cases where there is pain and discomfort immediately.

—The New Year opened with a cold snap.

—The cars are now running regularly to Oxford for freight.

—The skating is now splendid, and the boys are enjoying it hugely.

—The Methodist Episcopal Sunday School of Easton held their annual treat on New Year's day.

—The thermometer was down to 15 degrees above zero yesterday morning. Everybody said, "I, how cold!"

—No delegates have been appointed in this county to the fish convention, which will meet in Easton to-day.

—If the cold weather continues a few days longer, those having ice houses may begin to harvest the ice crop.

—We had about an inch of snow Friday morning, followed by a cold southeast rain. Friday was wintry all over.

—Mr. I. W. Jump will please accept our thanks for a sample bag of his "family flour," made by his new mill at Trappe. It is as fine flour as any one need wish.

—Complimentary tickets for the entertainment, to the editor of the Times, would have saved the "Earnest Workers" the local of last week's Times.

—Roberts & Sons have commenced work on Norris new hotel at Oxford, and expect to have it done by the time the watering season opens next summer.

—On Friday the legislature adjourned to Tuesday, to give the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House time to appoint the standing committees.

—The Denton Journal says almost the entire neighborhood of Potter's Landing has been converted since the opening of the protracted meeting now going on at the M. E. Church at that place.

—After to-day, and until further notice, the steamer Samuel J. Pentz will come to Miles River Ferry Tuesdays and Fridays, and will leave the Ferry at 12:15 P. M., sharp. She will touch at Annapolis going and coming.

—The poem we publish this morning from the Baltimore Weekly Gazette, gives a vivid and true account of Christmas in the old slave times. There are no such scenes enacted now. The happy days for the darkey are gone forever.

—A protracted meeting is in progress at the M. E. Church, (Rev. Mr. Tomkinson, pastor,) which commenced with a "Watch Meeting" New Year's eve. Service commences every evening at 7 o'clock.

—We direct special attention to the sale of that valuable mill property at Royal Oak, advertised by Messrs. Thomas & Bateman, solicitors for Mrs. Scott, which is to take place to-day, in front of the court house. This is a valuable and desirable property, and should command high figures.

—Mr. William W. Busteed has sold the Centreville Observer to Messrs. P. B. Hopper and W. Hopper Gibson. Mr. Busteed established the Observer about thirteen years ago. While we regret his retiring from the editorial profession we cordially welcome his successors into the fraternity.

—F. G. Wright has had a new wrought iron fence put up in front of his lot on Railroad Avenue. The fence was made and put up by Dickey & Davis, Oxford, Pennsylvania. Mr. Wright first saw the pattern at the Middle town fair last fall, was pleased with it, and ordered one put up. It is very neat and strong.

—Dr. Isaac A. Barber has left Easton for Camden, New Jersey, to go into business with his father. He has been successful here by Dr. W. F. Hocking, of Pennsylvania, who will practice homeopathy at his old stand. In making the change Dr. Barber gives up a fine practice, but takes with him to New Jersey the best wishes of many warm personal friends.

—An election of officers took place at Miller Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., on Tuesday night, with the following result:—N. G., John M. Mason; V. G., A. A. Hughes; Sec'y, M. M. Higgins; Treasurer, Joseph Graham; Marshal, Joseph H. White; Chaplain, C. H. Hughes; Hall Keeper, C. H. Collison; Representative to Grand Lodge, Jerome B. Bennett; Sitting Past Grand, Peter Stevens.

—Howard Norris, little son of Mr. Samuel Norris, met with a painful accident last Thursday. While some of his little companions were playing with a pair of scissors tied to a string, his head was badly cut with the points of the scissors, while they were slinging them around. The wound caused the blood to flow freely, but the hemorrhage was stopped, and Howard was himself again."

—Henry E. Chase, Mr. John H. K. Shannahan's confidence man, who lately broke out of the Easton jail and "cut a stick," has been arrested and put in jail at York, Pennsylvania, for practicing his old tricks on a Philadelphian. Chase, at different places, has gone by the name of Col. Bayne, H. C. Burbank, W. H. Howard, W. B. Howell, W. H. Howe, and how many other names no body but himself knows. He is a thorough-bred scamp.

—Long indulgence in over eating or drinking produces a disorganized Liver, and all the evils attendant upon such derangements; depression of spirits, habitual costiveness, nervous costiveness, nervous exhaustion, indigestion; pain in the head, with nausea; fullness of stomach after meals, chilliness, general debility, and languor. Seek relief from Simmons Liver Regulator. "It is a very valuable remedy for dyspepsia, sick headache, torpid liver and such like diseases. W. H. Hall, President of S. W. R. R. Co., of Ga."

—A negro named John Johnson, living on Pond road, was arrested on Friday for breaking open Mr. Thomas Hughlett's meat house, and stealing therefrom a lot of corn. Johnson was tracked from Mr. Hughlett's to his home by his footprints in the snow. The corn was found in his possession. While officer Baker was taking him to the magistrate's office, Johnson broke away from him and escaped. If we are not mistaken Johnson has been in the penitentiary from Cambridge, and it is said he was the biggest thief in Dorchester county.

The School Fund.

The comptroller has just made another apportionment of the school fund, Talbot's portion being, for white schools $2,403.58, for colored schools $823.18.

Important Discovery.

Corn whiskey and rock candy is said to be the best remedy yet discovered for consumption, and is working wonderful cures in the South. One gallon of whiskey to one pound of candy are the proportions.

Lakeside Library.

Nos. 121 and 122 of the Lakeside Library, a double number, just received, contains John Halifax, Gentleman, by Miss Mulock, a first-class novel. Price 20 cents. No 121 contains Poor Miss Finch, by Wilkie Collins; price 15 cents. For sale by all news dealers, or by the publishers Donnelly & Loyd, Chicago.

Job Printing.

The NOVELTY PRINTING OFFICE has been removed to the STAR OFFICE, where all kinds of JOB PRINTING will be done in the best manner, and at short notice. The combined offices can furnish THE BEST ASSORTMENT OF HANDSOME JOB TYPE TO BE FOUND ON THE EASTERN SHORE, and we claim to do just as nice printing, and do it as cheap as city work. Give us a trial.

The Lucky Ones.

Although the fact has not been announced in the Baltimore papers, we understand that three gentlemen of this county will have positions at Annapolis; Mr. Lars Skinner, of St. Michaels district, will be Secretary to the President of the Senate, and Messrs. James H. Ridgeway, of Chapel, and Frank G. Wrightson, of Bay Hundred, will get committee clerkships in the House.

The Burned Mill.

We noticed last week the destruction Mr. William R. Dixon's mill by fire. We understand his loss is about $7,000. He is insured in R. H. Dixon's agency in the following companies:—Lycoming, of Pa. for $1,000, in the security of New Haven for $625, in the Lancaster of Pa. for $625. Total $2,700. The insurance rests on the building, machinery and grain in the mill. Mr. Elben built the mill in 1876, at a cost of $8,000. He will rebuild as soon as possible.

Gem, 1st Book Music.

We have received the first 15 numbers of Stoddart's Musical Library. Each number contains 9 pages of choice music, arranged for the piano and organ by Sep. Winner, the popular Philadelphia composer. Price only 10 cents a number. Published weekly. The publication of the Library marks a new departure in musical publications. Address, J. M. Stoddart & Co., No. 725 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Register of Wills.

Mr. Tilghman N. Chance, Register of Wills for Talbot county, resigned his office on the 1st inst. and on Friday the Orphans' Court met and appointed Mr. Charles R. Mullikin, of Trappe, Register of Wills, to serve until a Register is elected by the people at the next general election. Mr. Mullikin was on the Republican Legislative ticket last fall and defeated for a seat in the legislature, a very fortunate thing for him, as things have turned out.

Hillsborough Grange.

At a meeting of the "Hillsborough" Grange, No 19, held Dec. 29, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—W. M., J. W. Knotts; Overseer, W. E. Barton; Chaplain, A. A. Matthews; Secretary, J. T. Anthony, Jr.; Treasurer, H. S. Fisher; Steward, W. J. Dukes; Assistant Steward, C. R. Wooters; Gate Keeper, C. H. Fleming; Lady Ass't Steward, Miss Belle C. Jump; Ceres, Mrs. Fannie Knotts; Flora, Mrs. L. J. Wooters; Pomona, Mrs. M. E. Fisher.

Singular Occurrence.

One afternoon during Christmas week the family of Mr. Willis Noble, residing near Preston, was away from home, leaving a cow and one sheep in the pasture. Upon their return at night the cow and sheep were found in the pound, the sheep fearfully mutilated, but not dead; and by its side lay a strange dog, dead. So far, there is no way of solving the mystery except by inferring that the cow killed the dog, as it had a rent in the side as if made by some such means as the horn of a cow or a stake. It is seldom that justice is so promptly meted as in this instance.—Denton Journal.

The Delegate vs. the Senator—The Warrior Beats the Civilian.

The contest in the Republican party before the Orphans' Court on Friday for the office of Register of Wills, was between Capt. Charles R. Mullikin, of glorious war record, and R. Tharp, Esq., of Internal Revenue distinction. The contest lasted four mortal hours, and resulted in a great victory of the warrior over the civilian, creating a painful disappointment to the defeated candidate and his backers. The truth is, we Americans are naturally a military people, and there is little chance for a civilian when pitted against a warrior. The chances are ten to one in favor of shoulder straps. We are surprised that Mr. Tharp dared to engage in such an unequal contest.

Hayes and the Fortune Teller.

"Give me thy hand," the beldam said,
He struggled to be calm;
With curious eye the lines she read
Traced in his trembling palm.

He listened while he shook with fear;
"Mark well what seems to be,
Lo! in thy place another year
Another man shall be."

—N. Y. Sun.

Orphans' Court.

The Orphans' Court met on Friday, the Judges all present, E. H. Roe, Register of Wills.

Edward T. Roe, Admr. of Thomas Arringdale, presented his final administration account, which was examined and passed.

William Willis, Executor of Mary Willis, presented a distribution of deceased's estate, which was examined, passed, and ordered to be recorded.

The resignation of Tilghman N. Chance, Register of Wills, was received and accepted, to take effect when his successor shall qualify. Charles R. Mullikin was appointed Register of Wills, to fill the vacancy.

Releases of E. Mattie Grace and Emma M. Grace, to Dr. Joseph E. M. Chamberlaine and John T. Rathell, administrators of James H. Grace, were presented, examined, and ordered to be recorded.

The court adjourned to meet again on the 8th of January.

County Commissioners.

The Board of Commissioners were in session on Thursday, present William Willis, president, and Messrs. O. M. Jump and Joseph Horney.

John I. Hopkins, collector, paid $80. Levin H. North was appointed constable for Tilghman's Island, in Bay Hundred district. A legal opinion from Thomas & Bateman, counsel to the board, was received and filed. It contained an exposition of the law, on the question raised by the bond of Joseph V. B. Wright, late collector. A number of supervisors' accounts were audited and paid. The Maryland Hospital was paid $1,050 for supporting insane paupers for 1878. Dr. Conrad, superintendent and treasurer of the hospital, says Talbot is the most prompt county in the state. Messrs. Thomas & Bateman, counsel to the board, announced that the court of appeals had decided the tax case of Mrs. Franklin Buchanan vs. the county commissioners in favor of the commissioners affirming the legality of the assessment in dispute. There were no supervisors appointed. The board adjourned to meet again on the 8th of January.

A Meeting in Church Broken up by a Riot.

While a protracted meeting was being held at Ivy Town African M. E. Church, in Trappe district, on Monday night week, under the charge of Rev. William Henry Rakes, colored, a local preacher, a disturbance was created at the meeting, by one boy treading on the foot of another boy, which resulted in a fight, a riot, a general wool pulling, and the breaking up of the meeting. It is said there were some ten or a dozen boys engaged in the affray. There was some licks struck, and considerable profane language used by the boys in and outside the church. On Tuesday complaint was made before Esquire Nicols, and warrants issued for the arrest of the following boys, some of them nearly grown men:—James L. Walley, Levi Brooks, Elias Dickinson, William H. Dobson, Charles Chase, Alfred Young, Charles H. Blake, Moses Dickinson, William E. Slow, and Thomas Gibson. All except the last were arrested by Sheriff Griffin and brought before Esquire Nicols on Wednesday, who postponed the trial till Saturday, and held the parties to bail in the sum of $50 each, to appear at the time appointed. Elias Dickinson and William H. Dobson being unable to give bail, were sent to jail and held for trial. On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the parties accused, including Thomas Gibson, arrested since Wednesday were all brought before the squire, who heard the evidence, and fined the ring-leaders, Thomas H. Gibson and Charles H. Blake, each $5 and costs, and discharged the others. It is to be hoped this prosecution will be a lesson for the lads who attend religious meetings for the purpose of creating a disturbance. The offense is a serious one. As this was the first time the parties had been charged with disturbing a meeting, Justice Nicols gave them the lightest fine required by the law. There was a big, black crowd around the squire's office on Saturday during the trial.

FREE TO EVERY READER OF THIS PAPER.

In order to introduce the Diamond Spring Wheat in this section, I will send a small package of sample grains, with special terms to agents, and my Seed Catalogue for 1878, free of charge to every reader of this paper on receipt of a three cent stamp to pay postage. The Diamond Wheat is the largest in the world. It grows and matures in any climate in the United States. The grains average nearly one-half an inch in length. One grain produces 25 to 35 stalks, with heads averaging from 7 to 9 inches, and each head containing about 40 grains. Address

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.

The Easton Mozart Band are preparing for a series of entertainments to continue for five evenings, commencing on Monday evening, Jan. 14th. The services of several noted stage performers from the cities beside the best talent of the Easton Dramatic Association have been secured. The plays selected for the occasion are very choice, and will not fail to draw crowded houses. These entertainments promise to be first-class, as they are gotten up with a heavy expense. The costumes are gorgeous and the scenery beautiful, and the best male and female talent enlisted. We bespeak for the entertainments abundant success, and to the readers of our paper we would say go and see them. Tickets for the season $2, to be had at Prof. Minnick's, where a list of the hall may be seen. Secure your tickets at once. dec25-3t

1877. 1877. X-MAS. 1877. 1877.

HAVING returned from the cities of New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, I wish to assure my friends and patrons that neither pains nor expense has been spared in making my purchases for the ensuing festive season.

I have built up and established a trade in fine and staple Goods never before attempted on this Peninsula, and am determined to maintain the same. In my selection of IMPORTED GOODS (all of which have been purchased direct of the importers) I have made specialties of the following:

Toys in Great Variety.

All grades and kinds, among which are many novelties too numerous to particularize.

REAL RUSSIAN LEATHER GOODS.

Such as Writings desks, Work boxes, Card cases, Portmonnaies &c.

I have now introduced for the first time in this market, a fine line of Swiss Carvings.

Now very fashionable and of exquisite workmanship.

Also a beautiful assortment of Japanese Goods,

so much admired at the Centennial Exposition, and which must be seen to be appreciated.

Genuine French Crystal Ink Stands and Paper weights, very handsome.

DOMESTIC GOODS.

In this line I have the handsomeest styles and the largest stock of boxed papers and envelopes, and general stationery supplies to be found outside the large cities and at prices rendering competition useless.

My general assortment will be found fully up with the times in city or country, consisting partly of gold pens and holders; writing desks, from $1 to $14; work boxes, from 50 cents to $4 00; work baskets, portemonnaies from 10 cents to $2 00; vases and toilet sets, from 30 cents to $6 00 per set.

SILK FLOWERS Under Glasses.

Handsome line of chromos, all sizes, at prices from 5 cents to $1.

Picture frames and Brackets—many new designs in the latter. Stereoscopes and views; Books in greater variety than ever—Bibles, prayer books, poems, popular works of fiction, juveniles in abundance.

Games, Dissected Pictures, Spelling Blocks, Crandall's Blocks,

Musical Instruments,

Sheet Music Music books, and a thousand articles too tedious to mention. Also

LG

1878 THE SUN, 1878.

DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY.

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.

NATIONAL, INDEPENDENT, CONSERVATIVE, THE PAPER OF THE PEOPLE.

THE BALTIMORE DAILY SUN for 1878 will continue, as heretofore, to print all the freshest and latest news, in a condensed and readable form, at the same time giving prominence to that which is most interesting.

In City and state matters THE SUN will spare no effort to continue to maintain its reputation for accurate and punctual reports of things of local interest relating to Politics, Business, Literature and Law, and the public occurrences of the day.

THE SUN is independent of all parties and sectarian; its aim is to state facts in as thoroughly impartial a way as to enable its readers to form their own judgment concerning them, and in all discussions of public questions to put

PRINCIPLES ABOVE MEN.

Reaching all classes of all shades of political opinion, and all sects and creeds, the aim of the SUN is to do justice to all and to be regarded as trustworthy and impartial, printing nothing in its columns that is objectionable in its morals or that shall invade in any way the privacy of the family.

AT HOME AND ABROAD,

the year 1878 promises to be full of incidents and events of peculiar interest. Whatever news it may bring will be given in the SUN with the faithfulness and accuracy that have made it acceptable, not only in Maryland and adjoining States, but throughout the whole country, of all the recurring phases of political opinion and action will keep the SUN promptly and fully informed, both through regular and telegraphic correspondence.

The Financial columns of the SUN will be kept abreast of the times. They will contain complete daily reports of the operations of the Stock Boards of Baltimore and New York, with such remarks as may serve to elucidate the causes of their fluctuations. Its commercial columns will give the correct prices of breadstuffs and provisions, and all the other leading commodities from day to day, not only at Baltimore but by telegraph from all the principal cities.

In all other matters also the SUN represents the progressive spirit of the age. It is a paper for the household as well as the merchant and politician; for the poor as well as the rich; doing justice to all and a favorite with all classes.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM

The SUN is unsurpassed, and its advertisements comprise every variety of subject, are fresh, and are constantly changing, they are sure to be read.
