had sold his landed property to a Mr. Putnam, of Massachusetts, after the close of the war of the Rebellion, in connexion with other gentlemen, built a steam mill and Marine Railway and established a ship-yard at Oxford and engaged in ship-building. In this business with the exception of the mill, he is still interested, though residing in Easton. In the year 1867 he was elected a member of the constitutional convention called for the ostensible purpose of reforming the fundamental law of the State, but really to accomplish certain ends of the leaders of one party as little defensible as the means employed by the leaders of the other to secure the adoption of the constitution meant to be changed. In 1869, and again in 1871 he was chosen by the people of the county a member of the Board of Commissioners, of which he was made President by his associates. Since that time he has held no public office.

In the modest address to the patrons of the Star with which Mr. Bateman commenced his editorial career, he confessed to "a certain degree of timidity and fear in encountering its responsibilities," and he asked the indulgence of his readers, most of whom he claimed as his personal friends and acquaintances, on the score of his inexperience in editorial duty. This diffidence, however becoming, was uncalled for, for he soon adapted himself to his new vocation, and his patrons had never reason to complain of any shortcomings on the part of the conductor of the paper, and his friends had no occasion to apologize for any manifestation of editorial incapacity. In his address he makes no "long list of promises and professions, preferring rather that the paper itself may be evidence of a determination to render it an acceptable visitor to all classes of readers." He does not omit to declare, however, that the Star would "support Democratic principles, firmly and decidedly, yet temperately, and with a proper respect for the opinions of others, who may differ politically or otherwise." It is proper to say this declaration was carried out strictly with regard to the principles, and with reasonable fidelity with regard to the manner of advocating them. He mentions the interesting fact with regard to the business affairs of the Star, namely, that upon his assuming control it had a circulation equal if not superior to, any paper of the Shore—an evidence of superiority it has probably maintained to the present. It is proper to say that this patronage did not decline under the management of Mr. Bateman, but the contrary, increased, so that this journal became in a few years the valuable and remunerative property it has continued to be until the present time. For very obvious reasons it would be improper to give any estimate of Mr. Bateman's abilities as an editor, or of his character as a citizen. That must be left to another time—which, it is hoped, will be remote—when it may be done without wounding a sensibility that fears no blame, but shrinks instinctively from public praise.

In a succeeding article, an account of the Star under Messrs. Robson & Rowlinson will be given.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

—A Pittsburg sexton has fallen heir to $100,000, we are told.

—Horseshoes are made in California of compressed raw hide.

—Stories first told at a mother's knee are never wholly forgotten.

—The juice of green corn is found strengthens and smoothens a voice.

—Fun's advice to gardeners—To destroy weeds; marry widows.

—Almost every San Francisco dwelling has its bay window.

—Most men like in women what is most opposite in their own characters.

—There's a Hawkins county, Ga., spring which flows every two hours.

—Walking dresses six inches above the grounds will be elegantly and stylish.

—Never put a bottle of hair restorer on the shelf with the butter jar.

—The teachers have coined the word "demote" meaning to put back.

—The style of dressing the hair should depend on the quality of neck you have.

—Prayers were recently offered in Newport "in behalf of two kind and courteous ramsellers." Mend-I. If you would be prayed for be "a kind and courteous ramseller."

—During the late heavy rains at Pittsburg, two men who fell into a sewer were swept away and came out at the river. The journey was rapid and fragrant, but both were saved.

—The top of the great dam at Gileppe, Belgium, is to be crowned with a colossal lion cut from 203 huge blocks of stone. A man will be able to hide easily behind each claw.

—Brown, of Slaughterville, Ky., heard rattlesnakes about his house night and day, and after killing twenty-seven without apparently diminishing their number, moved his family and goods from the neighborhood.

—"Papa," said a bright Springfield boy, just home from a sleight-of-hand entertainment, "I wish I was a conjurer." "Why, my son?" "I would turn you into a rat, call up the cat, and wouldn't I have fun."

—Mr. Barnum has made a bid for a portion of Temple Bar, London. He covets the three figures and ornaments.

—A Chinaman in Oakland, Cal., stole a $2,000 diamond and swallowed it to escape detection.

—Kate Field is telling the Londoners who Charles Dickens was, but some of them are still asking who the Dickens Kate Field is.

—There is perhaps no time when an adorable woman looks less like an angel than when she is walking on her heels through a mud puddle.

—A New Jersey clergyman, a rigid economist, has reduced expenses by marrying a second wife, and giving his first wife's three children away.

—The improved Gattling gun can fire 1,000 shots per minute, and one man can feed and fire 600 shots per minute. In an official trial 64,000 rounds were fired from a single gun in rapid succession, and without stopping to clean the barrels.

—The transient or floating population of New York city on any one day is estimated as follows: Immigrants temporarily staying in the city, 5,000; seamen and boatmen, 5,000; visitors at hotels, 10,000; visitors at boarding houses, 10,000. Total, 30,000.

—A man in New York waltzed eight hours night before last, and they do say he has some brains left yet.

—Works of art and science are thrown away on some people. At Washington they have the finest telescope in the world; and yet there are some women living who would prefer to look through a key-hole.

—A Canadian priest lately sued a young man whom he had married, for his wedding fee, which he stated at $15. The jury found for the defendant on the ground that the youth had received no appreciable value.

—"I will not learn a trade!" exclaimed the young Chicago blood to his father. But his business of learning a trade is only a matter of time, for within a year that young man was studying harness-making in the State prison.

—George Francis Train isn't entirely wrong with regard to hand-shaking.—There is too much of it. If you don't believe it, stand by any bar in the city and observe the hands of men who raise to their lips the first morning cocktail.

The qualities of hay are pithily stated in the old saying: "timothy for muscle; clover for milk; corn for fat." Hence timothy is the hay for horses and young stock; and clover for milch cows. People are generally too reckless in feeding cattle promiscuously with whatever they have to give them, without taking much pains to make a proper selection.

—Bishop Clark, of Rhode Island, always will have his joke; and it's always worth having, too. Once upon a time his brother was visiting him, and the good bishop showed him to his bed room in due course of time. "Good night; I'll put my boots outside the door," said his brother. "All right, Sam," replied the bishop, "nobody'll touch 'em!" That same brother of bishop Clark was the wittiest man alive. He once went to see one of his parishioners, a lady with a prodigious family, which had recently been increased. As he rose to leave, the lady stopped him with "but you haven't seen my last baby. "No," he quickly replied, "and I never expect to!" Then he fled.

ASK the recovered dyspeptics, bilious sufferers, victims of fever and ague, the enervated diseased patient, how they recovered health, cheerful spirits and good appetite. They will tell you by taking Simmons Liver Regulator.
The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!
For DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, Jaundice, Bilious attacks, SICK HEADACHE, Colic, Depression of Spirits, SOUR STOMACH, Heart Burn, &c., &c.
This unrivalled Southern Remedy is warranted not to contain a single particle of MERCURY, or any injurious mineral substance, but is containing those Southern Roots and Herbs, which an all wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail. It will cure all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver and Bowels.
PURELY VEGETABLE,
THE SYMPTOMS of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the Back, Sides or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour Stomach; Loss of Appetite; Bowels alternately costive and lax; Headache; Loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility; Low Spirits, a thick yellow appearance of the Skin and Eyes; a dry Cough often mistaken for Consumption.
Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the LIVER, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.
I can recommend as an efficacious remedy for disease of the Liver, Heartburn and Dyspepsia, Simmons Liver Regulator. Lewis G. Wesner, 1625 Master Street.
ASTOR ART PS MARTS, PHILADELPHIA.
"We have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, but none of them gave us more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved, but cured us."—*Ed. Startling! Startling!
Another Serious Outbreak!
ELLIOTT & RATHELL have just returned from the city with one of the largest stock of Boots and Shoes for Men and Boys as well as a heavy stock of all the latest styles of Ladies', Misses and Children's wear that has ever been on exhibition in this market. Prices that have heretofore ruled high, is now but a thing of the past. Present prices, such as are now introduced by us will not only astonish those who buy goods, but even astonish merchants who are engaged in the business. We have not made much noise through the papers about our stock, deeming it unnecessary, and we do not wish to say much now, only when we have bought goods down 50 per cent we want the public to know it and reap the benefit thereof.
Behold the prices and save 25 to 50 per cent. for the same identical goods bought elsewhere. We wish the people to know that we are in business. We are selling Ladies' Gaiters (buttoned), for $1.75.
Men's Fine Stitched, hand made, Gaiters, $5.
Men's Fine Stitched hand made, Boots, $7.50.
And Misses' and Children's wear from 60 cents upwards.
All of the above work guaranteed as represented. Call and see us. Men's heavy wear at astonishing prices. To see, is to be convinced. A $5 Boot for $4, and home made Pegged work for $5. The Old Man still at the head. Repairing in the neatest manner.
P. S.—Leather of all kinds for sale; also blacking for Ladies' wear.

DIARIES for 1878, a nice assortment for sale at Trippe's.

Standard Fertilizers!!!
I would respectfully call the attention of the Farming public to the fact that I am handling for this fall's seeding what I consider the best and most reliable Fertilizers in the market. I have in this sole agency in this locality for acknowledged by many as the superior of all other fertilizers. I would also name in part:
TURNER'S EXCELSIOR PHOSPHATE,
Whitelock's Vegetator,
Lister's standard preparations of Phosphate and Bone,
Farmer's New Method Phosphate,
Popplein's Silicated Phosphate of Lime,
Whann's Raw Bone Phosphate,
Baugh's Raw Bone Phosphate,
Slinglupp's Unrivalled Bone Ash, and many other articles too numerous to detail. I have reduced the price of all the goods I handle, and can offer more liberal terms than ever to purchasers, and think that an inquiry will be all that is necessary to convince them of the fact.
Goods delivered at nearest landing free of freight.

So lend a helping hand my friend-!
And help me with my store,
I'd like right well to pay my way,
And just a trifle more.
I have TOBACCO and SNUFF of the very best brands. CIGARS that can't be beat in town. Confectionery, nice and sweet; to supply the wants of my little friends, which they often come to get. And there are as good farmers around as ever trod the soil, who like myself, are well content to earn their bread by industry and toil.
So lend a helping hand my friends!
And help me with my little store,
I'd like right well to pay my way,
And just a trifle more

$5,000
Worth of Boots and Shoes thrown on the Easton Market.
The daily increasing demand for a certain quality and style of Boot and Shoe, is an evidence of the popular favor in which our stock is held by the community generally. We keep none but the best make, and sell at the very lowest prices, and we venture to assert that
The "Mongomery Boots" and "Plow Shoes" have not their equal in the market. We have just received the largest invoice that we have ever before ordered of those celebrated boots and shoes, being almost an impossibility to keep the demand supplied and we are offering them still, at the same low price. Persons in want of a good Boot or Shoe, should examine our stock, and they will be sure to purchase, as they commend themselves to purchasers at sight, to say nothing of the wide reputation by the hundreds who have purchased the same make before. In addition to this class, we have the most complete stock of Ladies and Misses, Boys and Youths Boots and Shoes, of every quality, style and price, and we defy competition. Call early and see for yourselves, as our stock is just opened. Our stock of Fall & Winter Dry Goods is very large and complete, and goods are marked down! down!! DOWN!! so that all can buy without embarrassment. Our stock of GROCERIES
was never larger and more complete than at present, and we are selling them very close, indeed. An examination will be all sufficient to prove what we here assert. We respectfully invite our many friends and customers to call and see us at our old stand on Market Space.
