LOCAL RECORD.

Baltimore Markets.

Gold has advanced to $1.02. Choice Maryland Amber Wheat, $1.37; Red Wheat, $1.29@$1.34. Corn, 39@44 cents. Oats, 35 cents. Rye, 65 cents.

—The healthy growth of the baby is dependent upon its freedom from the pernicious effects of opium. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is the best remedy known for the diseases of early childhood. Price 25 cents.

—A grand success has been attained by the introduction of Keller's Vegetable Life Drops for Dyspepsia and Liver Disease. Every bottle is warranted to effect a cure. Price 50 cents.

—The late storm blew down several lamps and trees in town, and partly unroofed McGlan's greenhouse, on Chapel road.

—Ex-Judge of the Orphans' Court, Perry W. Stewart, has been quite sick for a week or two, but was better last week.

—We had quite a snow last Wednesday night, followed by high wind and rain on Thursday, which melted the snow before night. "Narry" sleighing.

—We acknowledge the reception from Mr. William H. Wilson of the Easton Steam Mill, of a bag of very nice flour, manufactured at the mill, for which he will please accept thanks.

—Mr. James A. Roe, auctioneer, for Charles E. Shanahan, Esq., trustee, sold Theodore Arringdale's farm, in Beaver Neck, on Tuesday, to Mr. Andrew Gemeny, of Royal Oak, for $1,920.

—The members of the Easton Lyceum are requested to meet in the northeast room of the town hall on Wednesday evening next, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of re-organization. A full attendance is requested.

—The wind during the storm on Thursday morning blew down the frame of Norris' new hotel at Oxford, which had just been raised by Capt. Roberts. It will take some days to repair damages.

—Messrs. Walker, Brother & Co., are talking of putting up a steam flour mill, somewhere near the railroad. We have no doubt that a well conducted flour mill would make money here, and the Messrs. Walker are the very ones to try it, for money appears to come out of every enterprise they undertake.

—The "Earnest Workers," a society of young people connected with Christ Church, gave an entertainment at Odd Fellows' Hall last Friday evening, consisting of Tableaux, Charades, Music, &c. The occasion was one of much pleasure to the large audience that attended.

—By the proceedings of the county commissioners on Friday, which we publish elsewhere, it will be seen that the board has abandoned the attempt to work the public roads by contract, and will to-day appoint supervisors under the old rules and regulations. We think the board has come to a wise conclusion.

—Not disagreeable; hardly more bitter than lager beer; and much more satisfactory and pleasant. Simmons' Liver Regulator can be taken at any time, without interfering with business or pleasure. It is so gentle, safe, and such a good digester, that it is often used after a hearty meal to settle the food and relieve any apprehension that the meal may disagree with you.

—A mare belonging to Mr. Theodore Arringdale was brought to town last Tuesday by Mr. John Saulsbury, to be sold. At the corner of Dover and Washington streets she dropped down, from internal injuries received a few days before, by being kicked by Mr. Saulsbury's horses. It was said she was kicked clean over a fence. She died soon after she fell in the street and was hauled out. She had previously been prized as a very fine animal.

—The steamboats did not reach Easton Point Friday morning, in consequence of the storm. The Highland Light did not leave Baltimore till Friday morning. She sent her passengers for Easton down by the Pents, via Miles River Ferry, and went straight up the Choptank, not arriving at Easton to deliver freight until Friday night. By this means she did not miss her trip. The Maryland Steamboat Company having a boat on each river, affords every facility for travelling, storms or no storms. The Georgeanna missed her Friday's trip, and did not leave Baltimore until Saturday night.

Farm Sold.

Mr. James A. Roe has sold his farm near the Chapel saw mill to his brother, Mr. Edward T. Roe, 70 acres and improvements, for $2,000.

A Good Sign.

"Bobby," alias "Bumper," announces in the Gazette, that since he "stepped down and out" from the stage, he has become religiously inclined. This is a good sign. Another season on the "boards" might improve his manners, and then it would be a good thing for the Republican Church of the African persuasion to hold an extra meeting for his benefit, to help him out of his tribulations. Let us sing.

"Plunged in a gulf of dark despair
Without a flannel shirt to wear."

Bishop Simpson at St. Michaels.

Rev. Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. Church, paid a visit to St. Michaels Saturday week, and preached there the following Sunday morning. The Comet says his sermon was the finest ever preached in the M. E. Church of St. Michaels. After the sermon, subscriptions were opened. And the church debt of $2,500 was liquidated. On Saturday evening there was a Sunday School anniversary in the same church, the Bishop being present. The visit of this eminent church official will long be remembered a great event in the history of the M. E. Church of St. Michaels

On Board Steamer Highland Light,

OFF NORTH POINT, Jan. 31, 1878.

Profoundly sensible of the overruling Providence of God, we, the passengers of the Steamer Highland Light, on the memorable night of January 30th, desire hereby to tender our hearty thanks to Capt. E. T. Leonard, and the other officers and men of the steamer for indefatigable efforts in behalf of the steamer and passengers in a time of imminent danger.

(Signed)—Thomas W. Anderson, W. Wilson Byrn, Rob't Dalrymple, James Brian, Wm. E. Shannahan, Thomas P. Brooks, W. B. Thompson, I. L. Sudlff, L. P. Kirby, Wm. H. Willis, George Rose, Thomas Keen, Joseph Nusbaum, Wm. G. Gorsuch, James R. Willing, Louis Freemen, Wm. B. Townsend, G. Lacy Eaton, and 32 others.

Trappe Items.

There was service in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Trappe every night during last week, except on Thursday night, when rain prevented. Rev. Mr. Hill, Presiding Elder, and Rev. Mr. Smith, of the Southern Methodist Church, have rendered valuable assistance to the pastor, and it looks well that the ministers of the two churches are so christianlike in the interchanging of pulpits and in all the nameless little courtesies which distinguish christians from men. The Southern Church was closed on Sunday on account of the absence of Rev. Mr. Smith, who was called to Easton to fill the place of the minister there. Dr. Ball, we learn from the Baltimore papers, is seriously ill, and will certainly not be able to do any work before conference.

Mr. Micawber's Valentine.

TO THE MAN WHO WANTED TO BE A POET, BUT COULDN'T COME IT,

H—ow I hope your desires are all satisfied,
O—, you very base lump of false oxide.
W—ere you fit to be held responsible,

H—ow much I'd delight to thrash you well.
I—can not do this, as a junior wight—
G—ive respect due to age, and serve you right;
H—owever, I'll read you a lesson or two,

I—f these don't suffice, look out for my shoe.
S—hould ever you cross Micawber again,
H—owever you feel don't resort to your pen;

D—on't, O don't be so silly, my dear, foolish friend,
O—f your weakness convinced, let your last be the end.
T—o your business, if any, give all your attention
?—not, but remember the shoe that I mention.

In my article of the 2nd, I requested any one who might be disposed to contradict to show me the false statements. The Bear of Trappe, while he acknowledges the shoe fits, does not do this, as anybody can see who can read. He has wasted, therefore, two weeks of his precious time and has worn out his book of rhyme at least 25 cents worth. How much better it would have been for him, if he had taken my advice and vented his spleen on his axe-handle. We advise him to go back into winter quarters, we hardly expect such luxuriant verdure in February.

My hope is realized and the ghost-like intellect is all thrown up.

MR. MICAWBER.

The Easton Gazette is responsible for the following capital snake story:—

FIGHT BETWEEN A SNAKE AND A HENHAWK.

On Tuesday, the 22nd inst., the weather was mild and bright and the sun appeared to have withdrawn from a summer day and planted itself in the midst of January. This being the case a tremendous snake, known as the "Cow-Sucker," came from his hiding place on the farm of Mr. Edward Woodall, near Royal Oak, and no doubt was basking in the sunshine, when a huge henhawk espied him and thinking it a rare chance for a hearty meal he would demolish Mr. Snake at a single swoop. But Mr. Snake was not to be trifled with thusly. The hawk went for his prey, when the snake embraced him with a death-like grip. The hawk flapped and squeaked, but the snake held him fast until a man in Mr. Woodall's employ was attracted by the noise The hawk was held fast until killed, and of course the snake afterwards shared a like fate, as it appears to be the duty of every one to kill a snake when it comes.

A New Enterprise.

Messrs. J. J. Jump & Co., whose enterprise in business has so often been noticed in these columns, have just taken "a new departure." They have made a close calculation of the cost, and they find that by buying their cloth at first hands, of the manufacturer or importer, and having their clothing for gentlemen made here, they can not only sell suits cheaper, and thus benefit their customers and draw more trade to Easton and to their own house, but at the same time they can help a great many worthy people by giving them employment. They will therefore hereafter manufacture all the clothing needed for their large sales at their mammoth store in Easton. They have secured a first-class cutter from Philadelphia, and he is already at work on stock for their spring sales, at the same time making up all fine work to order, guaranteeing as stylish a fit as can be put up in the city. We take great pleasure in commending this enterprise, and hope it may grow in time into a great wholesale clothing factory. They have the facilities for filling all orders, and claim that they can successfully compete with the leading city ready-made clothing houses, or the best merchant-tailoring establishments.

County Commissioners.

The board met on the 29th, Messrs. William Willis, C. M. Jump and Joseph Horney, present, W. H. D. Harper, clerk.

William H. Smith, George R. Goldsborough and M. T. Goldsborough, presented petitions numerously signed, praying the board to rebuild and extend the county wharf at Easton Point, representing that the wharf in its present condition is inadequate to accommodate the public business.

R. B. Dixon and C. R. Leonard appeared before the board, and claimed that the wharf facilities at Easton Point are ample to accommodate the public business, and notified the board that they would present a counter petition at its next meeting.

St. Clair Watts and others presented a petition, praying the board to lay down a new public road in Bambury Neck. The board rejected the petition.

The contract for furnishing the court house and jail with wood, for the current year, was given to James A. and E. A. Matthews.

The counsel to the board gave the opinion that the county commissioners had no right to review the action of the Board of Control and Review in the case of Rebecca H. Martin, guardian, who prayed to be released from taxes levied upon mortgages belonging to her wards.

A number of road and other accounts were audited and paid.

The following pensioners were paid:—Sarah Kemp, $32; Eliza Ann Price, $24; Ellen Penfield, $32; Lydia A. Scott, $20; Mary Tucker, $20.

The board adjourned to meet on Friday, February 1st.

FRIDAY, Feb. 1st.—The board met in special session, (all the members present) to open the proposals for working the public roads. No bids were in for Easton, St. Michaels, or Trappe districts. There was one from Chapel for $1,800, and two for Bay Hundred, one for $390 and one for $300. After considering the subject, the board rejected the bids received, and resolved to appoint supervisors under the old rules and regulations. It considered a number of applications for supervisorships, informally agreed upon some, and adjourned to Tuesday, 5th of February, when the list of supervisors will be completed and announced.

Orphans' Court.

The court met, present their Honor Judges Clark, Bartlett and Stewart. C. R. Mullikin, Register of Wills.

Emiline Henry, guardian of Alex. Feraro, presented their 1st, 2nd and 3rd accounts, which were examined and passed.

Hester R. Ford, guardian of Flavia A. and Alfred B. Willis, presented her 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th accounts with each of said wards, which were examined and passed.

Rebecca H. Martin, guardian of her six children, presented her 1st account in each case, which were examined and passed.

F. Carroll Goldsborough, guardian of S. Minnie Goldsborough, presented his 1st, 2nd and 3rd accounts, which were examined and passed. He also presented, and had passed his 1st, 2nd and final accounts as guardian of Walter G. Goldsborough.

John H. Jenkins, guardian of Ida R. Love, presented his 7th account, which was examined and passed.

Philip A. Townsend, guardian of Nellie R. Smith, presented his 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th accounts, which were examined and passed.

Hooper Goldsborough, acting guardian of Mary P., Levin H., Milton and Clarence H. Campbell, presented his 1st, 2nd and final account with each of his said wards, which were examined and passed.

Mary J. Harrington, adm'x Joseph B. Harrington, presented her first account of administration, which was examined and passed.

Mary A. Covington, guardian of John A. Arringdale, presented her 10th account which was examined and passed. She also presented her 9th and 10th accounts as guardian of her son, R. H. L. Arringdale, which were examined and passed.

John W. Baker, adm'r of Frances A. Baker, deceased, presented an account of debts sperate, which was examined and passed.

The court then examined list of delinquent administrators and executors, with a view to issuing citations and compelling them to appear and settled their accounts.

William N. Powell, executor of Samuel Bartlett, presented an account of sales of personal estate which was examined and passed.

The court adjourned to meet again Tuesday, February 5th.

In Memoriam of the late Mrs. Lucy M. Joliffe.

Her death, which may well be called a sleep in Jesus, was as peaceful as had been her life. For many years she had been an earnest communicant in the church, caring not only for her own soul but for the souls of others. At the last her only struggle was to give up those she had loved on earth. At her own request, she received the Blessed Sacrament the day before her death. In the midst of her great weakness and sufferings she never murmured. She only once expressed a longing to be at rest. At the last, she passed away as one would fall into a peaceful slumber, without a struggle. Her body was placed, as in her last hours she requested, before the beautiful altar of her parish church, which she had loved to kneel before in life, and the Holy Eucharistic Sacrifice was offered according to the solemn rite of the church. The impressive burial service followed, and the line of white-robed choristers and clergy preceded, and sorrowing friends—yet sorrowing not as those without hope—followed the remains from the altar. She was buried at Oak Hill Cemetery, Georgetown, D. C. In the Chapel of that exquisitely beautiful resting place of the dead as the funeral anthem, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord" was being sung by the choir of Christ Church, more beautifully and touchingly than we have ever heard it rendered, the sunlight burst with a flood of light through the windows, casting a halo of glorious hues over the casked which contained the fair form from which we could trust the soul had passed into the light of God's presence. She had not left the preparation for death till her last hour, and she was rewarded by being peacefully taken into the arms of Jesus. "May she rest in peace and perpetual light shine on her."

Road Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made for the new road to Trappe district described in the following petition:

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners for Talbot county:

We, the undersigned, taxpayers and citizens of Talbot county, interested in promoting the prosperity of the county and the convenience of the public, respectfully petition your Honorable Board to straighten the public road through Bartlett's Mill farm running from the Easton and Trappe road to the Leading Neck and Trappe road.

The present route is very crooked, running over the Mill Dam, where the water falls and in cold weather freezes, rendering traveling very dangerous, if not quite impossible at times. The object of this petition is to extend the straight road, now leading to the Mill, beyond to the turn where Hardcastle's land commences. This mill make a straight road from the mill to the turn, and will greatly facilitate the convenience and safety of the traveling public, avoiding the Mill Dam entirely. The distance of the road to be made will not exceed 500 yards, and the cost will be inconsiderable when compared with the convenience of the public. Besides the old road can be closed and reduce the expense of keeping up repairs.

The new piece of road will require 2 bridges of about 10 feet in width each, and can be easily and readily made. The cost ought not to exceed $75.

We therefore pray your Honors to hear and grant the petition of the undersigned, and as good citizens we will ever, &c.
