LOCAL RECORD.

Baltimore Markets.

The price of wheat is a shade lower, Prime Maryland Red, $1.34; fair to common, $1.28@$1.30. Prime Southern Corn is worth 50 cents. Oats are dull at 34 cents. Rye is quoted at 60@68 cents. Gold is steady at $1.00½.

—How often do we hear a people say, there seems to be something the matter with my blood, I have pimples all over. We would recommend Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture.

—If you would be healthy, avoid constipation, as its continuance is sure to bring on many dangerous diseases. The most potent remedy for this condition, is Keller's Life Drops.

—The thermometer registered 86 here last Thursday.

—Mr. B. Frank Harrison has assumed charge of Oxford Ferry.

—The Chesapeake fisheries have not been remunerative this season.

—Mr. Stephen V. Leonard is going into the livery business at Oxford.

—Centreville is to have an iron railing around the court house green.

Mr. Peter C. Killen advertises to repair all kinds of harvest machinery.

—The May term of Queen Anne's court commenced at Centreville yesterday.

—M. M. Higgins has received his summer stock of mackinaw and other straw hats.

—Mr. Robert Soulsby has sold his farm, Peck's Point, to a gentlemen in Baltimore for $7,000.

—Mr. Stephen V. Leonard had his pocket picked of $950 while in Baltimore a few days ago.

—There is to be a M. E. camp-meeting in August, on the old camp ground in Broad Creek Neck.

—Mr. Stephen V. Leonard has sold his farm, Benoni's Point, to his brother, Perry S. Leonard, for $7,000.

—Mr. Zimmers has been driving a heavy business at his fish wagon lately, selling sturgeon at five cents per pound.

—The Monumental Dramatic entertainment at the town hall last week proved a failure. Mr. Bokee did not play.

—Robert B. Dunning has just bought and put in his factory machinery for working flooring and weatherboarding.

—Wheat is rapidly heading out all over the county. It will be ripe by the 10th of June. The crop promises to be a good one.

—E. F. Boyer & Son's store, in Centreville, was broken open and robbed of 4 pair boots and $14 in cash, on Saturday night week.

—Strawberries made their first appearance in town last Saturday, from the patch of Rev. Mr. Everest, near St. Michaels. They sold at 20 cents per quart.

—The heavy storm on Saturday night, prevented the success of Sanford's troupe. Many who fully expected to see them were prevented by the rain from going to the hall.

—The county commissioners have refused to pay the Kent Narrows claim presented by the commissioners of Queen Anne's county, and we suppose the matter will be litigated.

—Rev. A. W. Lightburn, son of Rev. J. H. Lightburn, D. D., has been ordained deacon of the M. P. Church, and stationed at Mount Lebanon Independent Church, Baltimore.

—The editor of the St. Michaels Comet did not start to the West Indies with Capt. Tyler, as was expected, on account of the alewife season coming so much earlier this year than usual.

—Mr. L. C. W. Powell is talking of building a new dwelling house on his lot, corner of Dover and Aurora streets. A neat cottage there would be a great improvement on the present surroundings.

—Capt. Samuel Traverse, of Dorchester county, a member of the last legislature, has been elected by the Board of State Fishery Force, commander of the oyster navy, vice Capt. William E. Timmons, removed.

—We again call the attention of our acquaintances, to stop at the New York Clothing House when in Baltimore, to buy their goods. Every garment we know is of the best make, and it will be safe for you to leave your money with them.

—We conclude to-day the publication of all the public general laws of the last session that were enacted to go into effect from the date of their passage. By giving them to our readers in supplement form, they can be better preserved, and more easily referred to.

—A seal lately appeared in the Upper Choptank river, near Greensborough, and gave Mr. Andrew Baggs and his family a big scare. They thought it was the mythical sea serpent, and took to their carriages, and made ready to leave, had the monster showed a disposition to land.

—The new circulating library being instituted by Prof. Minnick, is assuming important dimensions. It will be ready in a few days to commence with about three hundred volumes of the most popular literature of the day. Subscription price only twenty-five cents a month.

—There was a perfect rush of travel to Baltimore last week by the steamer Highland Light, to hear Booth at Ford's Opera House. Friday night the Maryland Steamboat Company's wharf at Easton Point looked about as lively as New York generally does at Jersey City Ferry on the arrival of a train.

—"I wish I was dead," is an expression not unfrequently used by the dyspeptic and sufferer from liver disease; the depressed spirits unfitting the mind for anything, and almost driving him to despair. Be of good cheer; there is life and health left for you yet. Take Simmons' Liver Regulator. It regulates the liver, dispels despondency and restores health.

—John Satterfield desires his old friends and customers to know that he is still at his old stand cutting and making coats, pants and vests, in the most fashionable styles, and in the best manner, and warrants all clothes made by him to give entire satisfaction. He says please call and leave your measure. Cloth can be bought in Easton as cheap as it can be bought in the city, and he makes up work much below city prices, and makes it as well as it can be made anywhere.

—The high character of the different enterprises undertaken by J. J. Jump & Co., have always insured them success; and when they undertook the merchant-tailoring business they did not lose their reputation, for the cutter they have is indeed a first-class man, and the result is that they have four tailors from Philadelphia and Baltimore making suits. Our dressy young men should remember this enterprise and support the efforts made by this firm and others to keep Easton up to high water mark. Suits bought from other merchants are also made to order.

Sale of a Farm.

F. Carroll Goldsborough, Esq., has bought the Haskins farm, in Bailey's Neck, of Charles P. Craig, Esq., Executor of Barclay Haskins, 372 acres, for $18,675, cash.

Town Election.

An election for Town Commissioner took place in Easton yesterday. The candidates were R. J. Tripps, present incumbent, and Eli H. Furniss, opposition. 236 votes were cast. R. J. Tripp was elected by 60 majority.

Forward Wheat.

Hon. C. M. Jump, of Chapel district, on Tuesday last, the 30th of April, left at this office a specimen of his Texas wheat, 4 feet tall, in full head and in blossom. He says some of it was headed out on the 20th of April. The head is long, and promises a large yield.

Thanks.

Walter H. Haddaway, Esq., of Kansas, will please accept our thanks for late Kansas papers.

Alfred Kemp, Esq., of Texas, will please accept our thanks for late Texas papers.

Hon. D. M. Henry, M. C., will please accept our thanks for the Congressional Record.

The American Farmer.

The American Farmer for May is received, replete with interesting articles on farming and kindred subjects. Price $1.50 per annum. Address S. Sands & Son, Baltimore.

The Maryland Farmer for May, published by E. Whitman, Baltimore, at $1.50 per annum, is at hand. It abounds with matter that cannot fail to interest farmers.

New Methodist E. Parsonage.

The trustees of the M. E. Church of Easton have determined to build a new parsonage on their parsonage lot on Dover street. The old part of the present parsonage on the corner next to Mr. M. M. Dawson's is to be taken down and the cellar filled up; the new part of the parsonage is to be turned round, and moved back, for a kitchen; and a new two-story building, with four rooms and a hall on each floor, is to be built. The buildings are to be placed in the middle of the lot, giving a handsome yard in front on Dover street. It will be a fine improvement when completed. The church has needed a new parsonage for a long time.

Election of Railroad Officers.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Q. A. & E. railroad held at the station house in Centreville, Wednesday, May 1st, 1878, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Hon. B. T. Biggs; Treasurer, Robert Craven; Directors, Jacob Tome, Joseph Bringhurst, T. Morris Perot, B. T. Biggs, Edward Larkins, William Crawford and Jacob Hinkley. A special train was run over the road for the accommodation of the stockholders and others interested.—Centreville Record.

Farmers Look to Your Interest

by calling at Shannahan & Wrightson's, or J. C. Tarbutton's, and getting a Champion reaper and mower for the coming harvest, so you may not be delayed any in your harvest field. There are 500 in use in Talbot county. Don't fail to examine the Chicago Pitts thresher that is made for this season's trade. The Eclipse and Sprynx engines, Hagerstown and Taylor wheelrakes, etc., which are sold at lowest prices by Shannahan & Wrightson. They also sell Star Bone Phosphate for corn crops. Do not fail to give them a call before buying, as it will pay you.

The Almshouse—Election of Officers.

The new board of trustees of the poor met at the almshouse last Wednesday, to complete their organization; present Messrs. Solomon S. Hopkins, John W. Kemp, Charles M. Bigby, John W. Cheesum and James Cox. Mr. Hopkins was elected President of the board, and Mr. Cheesum Treasurer and Secretary. Dr. E. M. Hardcastle, of Trappe, was elected Physician to the almshouse, Mr. John Wyatt was elected overseer, and Mrs. Sarah E. Dyott, matron. There are 45 inmates. The board adjourned, after looking over the farm, to the 6th inst.

Trout.

Farmers of the Peninsula, and especially of the Eastern Shore, who want trout from the Delaware bay, put up in the best manner fresh from the nets early in the season, will do well to send their orders at once to James H. Reed, Bowers' Beach, Delaware, who keeps a store there and makes it his business to cure and repack these fish to order, at the low price of $5.25 per barrel, and $2.75 for half barrels, (twenty-five cents off this price when the barrel or half-barrel are furnished by purchaser). Half the price must accompany the order from those he does not know and the balanced paid when the fish are removed. Where neighbors club together and send their empties with their orders, and part of price in advance as above stated, the team and driver will be entertained over night free of charge.

Spring Opening of Millinery.

Last Saturday May 4th, was one of the days set apart and advertised by Mrs. E. V. Higgins for a special display of fashionably trimmed hats and bonnets, and it has never before been our pleasure to witness such a beautiful array of such goods. We learn from Mrs. Higgins that the success attending this opening was as surprising as it was gratifying. To-day is the last day set apart for a continuation of the opening, and she by advertisement invites all to call and see for themselves that it is useless to go to the city for a fashionable bonnet. After to-day she will have a full line of untrimmed hats and bonnets, and trimmings for the same. The styles this season are universally admitted to be unusually beautiful. Those who have not done so should call and see the fashions.

Spring Hill Cemetery.

An important meeting of the Stockholders, lot owners, and others interested in Spring Hill cemetery, will be held at the cemetery on to-morrow week, Wednesday, the 15th, at 9 o'clock A. M., when an opportunity will be afforded to all to purchase lots who may want them, and we think every white family living within ten miles of Easton should secure a lot in this beautiful city of the dead. Farms now-a-days change hands so frequently, that private burying grounds are no longer desirable; hence all should secure a lot in this public cemetery, where the graves of their friends will be sacred, and be preserved from cultivation for all time. This is a matter that should specially interest people living in the country, and they should secure lots while they may be had at a small price. Don't fail to attend the meeting to-morrow week.

The Highland Light Aground.

On her return trip from Easton to Cambridge Sunday morning about 9 o'clock, the Highland Light was blown ashore between the two wharves at Oxford, and the wind being heavy, and the tide low, she could not be gotten off. She remained there fast aground all day Sunday and Sunday night. The steamer was full of passengers. Finding it impossible to get off, Capt. Leonard dispatched a small boat to Cambridge for the Kent, which arrived about noon, and conveyed the Trappe and Dorchester passengers to their homes. Sunday evening the Kent arrived again, on her regular trip, and tried to pull her off without success. She then made her trip to Easton Point, and returned to Oxford for another trial. Both boats remained at Oxford all night; and at high water about 6 o'clock Monday morning the Kent succeeded in getting the Highland Light afloat. The Kent then left for Baltimore, and the Highland Light started for Cambridge, and neither boat lost a trip by the accident.

Sudden Death of Mrs. Capt. Leonard.

Capt. C. R. Leonard and his wife returned from a visit to Baltimore last Wednesday morning. Mrs. Leonard was apparently in her usual good health and spirits. After breakfast Capt. Leonard came up town to attend to business. About 10½ A. M. Mrs. Jacob Williams called on Mrs. Leonard, to ask her to go with her shopping up town in the afternoon. While the two ladies were talking pleasantly in the parlor, Mrs. Leonard was suddenly taken ill, and asked for a physician. Dr. Willson was sent for and called in a few minutes. A messenger was also instantly dispatched uptown for her husband. Learning that his wife was ill, Capt. Leonard hurried home as soon as possible, only to find her speechless. She died of heart disease, sitting in her chair, soon after she was attacked. Everything possible was done to relieve her, but without avail. Mrs. Leonard was a most estimable lady, and was a daughter of Mr. William Mason, of this town. She leaves three little children to mourn their irreparable loss. Captain Leonard was almost heartbroken by his sudden and great affliction. The event cast a gloom over a large circle of friends and relatives, as well as over our town generally. The funeral took place at Capt. Leonard's residence Friday morning, Rev. Mr. Reed officiating. A large number of our citizens attended. The interment took place in Spring Hill Cemetery, and the services were solemn and impressive. All seemed to feel that in the midst of life we are in death.

Forgery—Arrest and Release of the Forger.

For about a year past a man going by the name of Charles B. Smith has been canvassing Talbot county, selling to farmers a receipt for making fertilizer. He has been selling the receipt for $10 on time, taking notes, and then disposing of the notes at a liberal discount to dealers in paper. His operations have enabled him to make a large acquaintance of both farmers and paper shavers, and also with the signatures of farmers. Whether or not his receipt is good for anything we do not know. On Thursday week he was down in Bay Hundred, and returned to Easton that night, when he offered for sale to Mr. A. A. Pascault a note purporting to be drawn by James E. McDaniel, Esq., of Bay Hundred, at ten months for $212.60, stating that it had been given for a wheat thresher he had sold Mr. McDaniel; that although it was for ten months, he said Mr. McDaniel would pay it after harvest. He offered it at 20 per cent. discount. Knowing that Mr. McDaniel is as good as the bank for whatever he contracts to pay, and having bought paper of Smith before, Mr. Pascault thought it a good speculation, and bought the note for $250, giving his check on the Easton National Bank for the money. As the bank was closed, Smith had to wait until the next morning to get the check cashed. Soon after 9 o'clock on Friday morning of the 26th of April, the bank paid the check, and procuring a horse and carriage from Luther W. Covey, Smith immediately started for New Market via. Dover Bridge, Mr. Covey's brother John driving the carriage. A few hours after Smith left Easton, Mr. McDaniel came to town, and Mr. Pascault told him he had been buying some of his paper and although the note was not due, he would like to have him pay it, if convenient. At first, Mr. McDaniel thought he was only joking, but finding Mr. Pascault was serious, and produced the note, Mr. McDaniel denounced it as a forgery, stating that he had bought no thresher of Smith—that he had not given him any note—and that he was a fraud. He said that Smith visited his place on Thursday in search of wheat, and that he had such a contempt for him, he scarcely treated him civilly. Finding he had nothing but a forged note for his money, Mr. Pascault at once went to C. H. Gibson, Esq., State's Attorney, to make complaint, and advise what was best to be done to catch the absconding forger. The telegraph was resorted to, and dispatches sent to Baltimore, Annapolis, Cambridge, Clayton, Seaford and other places. Detectives were engaged to look out for him at all points. Late in the day Covey's carriage had not returned, which made it pretty plain that Smith had gone farther than New Market with it. The Steamboats were examined Friday night at Easton Point, but the forger was not on board. On Saturday morning Mr. Pascault received a telegram from Seaford, Delaware, informing him that Smith had been caught there, and would be held until he could be heard from. He telegraphed back to hold him, and he would be there with the evidence of his guilt as soon as he could get there. About noon on Saturday he had his horses hitched to his carriage, and he and Sheriff Griffin started for Seaford. The announcement of the forgery created considerable excitement in town. After Mr. Pascault had started for Seaford, a telegram came to Mr. Gibson from that place, asking if Charles B. Smith was the man he wanted arrested, stating there must be some mistake. Mr. Gibson not being in town, and Mr. Pascault having left, the telegram was not answered. Before Mr. Pascault reached Seaford, however, the man that arrested Smith released him, and the forger started for Georgetown, thence to parts unknown. It is supposed that he was released for a consideration, as he had been arrested without a warrant. He is still at large, and is said to be respectably connected in Carroll county, Maryland, and about Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. It will be a case for the grand jury to investigate when court meets at the May term.

This article was prepared for last week's STAR, but was withheld at the request of Mr. Pascault, who thought he might catch Smith if the matter was kept out of the papers a few days.

Covington & Bateman's New Store.

Covington & Bateman expect to move into their new store the latter part of next week, and it will be a beautiful room and no mistake; perhaps the handsomest storeroom on the Eastern Shore. The front is glass, iron and walnut. There are six counters, with beautiful cherry tops. The shelving and cornices are of the most modern style. The room is 34 feet wide by 64 feet deep, with 12 feet ceiling. The upper floors and walls are supported by iron columns. The front is lighted by French plate glass windows, two glasses in each window. The front glass is 9 feet long by 5 feet 6 inches wide. The side lights are 9 feet by 3 feet 6 inches. The front glass is the largest in the State out of Baltimore, and few in the city are so large. There is a recess front door finished in walnut, ornamented with a very handsome patent combinad lock and latch. The ceiling and walls are white-coated in plaster. The cellar doors are of iron and will be level with the pavement. A soft eastern and northern light is secured from a skylight, which will make goods show to the greatest advantage. The counting room is located at the back of the store, and is lighted by a large window, which will also afford ample ventilation in summer. There is a side door at the back part of the store, letting out into the alley. The front has been improved by new large windows, and handsome cornices above and below. Everything about the store has been designed with admirable taste, and the carpenters' work has been done in the very best manner. Messrs. Roberts & Sons have done themselves credit by this excellent job. A large dwelling 16 by 30 feet has been put up in the rear of the store, which connects with the upper part of the main building. Mr. Covington will soon occupy this building as a residence. When Messrs. Covington & Bateman get their new stock in their new store, they will enlarge their trade and will possess facilities for doing business equal to any house on the Shore, and it is their purpose to keep a full line of fine goods, especially in the ladies' department, and not to be undersold by anybody. Their enterprise in putting up this splendid improvement certainly merits an enlarged patronage. It affords us great pleasure to notice this additional evidence of the thrift and enterprise of Easton. No other town of its size in the State can boast of such handsome stores or fine stocks of fine goods, and we are quite sure that in no other town are goods sold so cheap.

County Commissioners.

EASTON, April 30th, 1878.

The board met; present Messrs. William Willis, Charles M. Jump and Joseph Horney. Wm. H. D. Harper, clerk.

Rev. William H. D. Harper resigned as clerk to the board, he having accepted the appointment of pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, South Baltimore. His resignation was accepted, and Joseph S. Robson elected clerk to the commissioners to succeed him. Mr. Robson bonded, swore in, and entered upon the duties of the office.

W. H. Bostick was authorized to sell at auction some old desks in the court house.

Collector John L. Hopkins made a final return of his assessments for 1878.

The report of the examiners to lay down the connecting piece of road in Chapel district through the lands of Messrs. Edward Woodall and Robert H. Jump, was taken up and ratified, and the road ordered to be made as laid down. The clerk was ordered to advertise it for sale.

The petition of S. S. Yeo, R. H. Jump and others for a road to Lewistown was dismissed.

Sundry accounts were paid.

THURSDAY, May 2nd.—The board met by adjournment; present the same as on Tuesday; J. S. Robson, clerk.

John L. Hopkins, Esq., collector for 1876, paid $500 on account.

The clerk was directed to give notice for persons to fill claims for the next levy.

The clerk was directed to call the attention of magistrates to the law relating to inquests, and request them to hold none except where necessary.

Joseph H. White's proposal to build an archbridge on the Easton Point road, near his residence, was accepted, and the work was ordered to be done.

Sundry bills were passed and some were paid.

William B. Rowe and Caroline Jones, of District No. 2, were placed on the county pension list.

The board were engaged the balance of the day examining the alienation list and making transfers of real estate.

BUSINESS FOR LADIES.

Our attention has been called to a new article for the use of ladies, the invention of which has conferred an everlasting blessing upon every lady. We refer to the Queen City skirt suspenders for supporting ladies' skirts, the most desirable and beneficial article ever invented for the relief of women, many of whom have suffered years of miserable health caused solely by carrying the weight of a number of heavy skirts, completely dragging them down. Something to support ladies' clothing is absolutely necessary. These suspenders are recommended by our leading physicians to all ladies and young girls. Every lady should have them. They are sold only through lady agents. A splendid opportunity is offered to some reliable lady canvasser of this county to secure the agency of a pleasant and profitable business. For terms and territory write at once to the Queen City Suspender Company, 273 Clark Street, Cincinnati, O. may7-4t

OUR STATEMENTS DENIED BY COMPETITORS;

BUT

Verified by the People!

The great reason why we have sold more silks than any other house in Easton, is because our great variety, at popular prices, can't be equalled by competitors. Large quantities always insure lower prices, and as no House in Easton operates to the extent that we are doing in these goods, we are prepared to offer special inducements!

The outcry made by competitors may attract customers, but when they examine our styles we have the gratifying assurance that our stocks are larger and more varied, than can be found in town. Many regrets have been expressed at our counters over purchases made elsewhere! Our summer silks and black silks have been pronounced the cheapest in Easton. In the

Carpet Trade

We consider no competition. We are the only house on the shore that buys exclusively from manufacturers, and are offering

The Champion Grain Thresher

IS THE

MACHINE FOR THE FARMER.

All who use it are Enthusiastic.

No other Thresher has ever Pleased them so well.

Wet grain and damp straw are no hindrance to the Champion.

It works right along in the rain, when other Threshers must stop.

Those who have used it will have no other, because it does better work, gets out the straw cleaner, does not scatter the grain, and when once started there is no delay.

Farmers who know the Champion will wait weeks for it rather than get out their wheat with any other machine.

It is light running, and will thresh more grain than any other machine.

The Farmers of Talbot have only to try it, to give it the preference over all other machines.
