The Easton Star.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1878.

LOCAL RECORD.

Baltimore Markets.

Gold resumed its lowest point last week, $1.00¼, but rallied to $1.00¾ after Secretary Sherman issued his anti-resumption order.

Amount of wheat in elevators, 98,128 bushels. Ordinary to common southern wheat, from 80cts to $1; Fulta, $1.02@$1.04; prime to choice longberry, $1.04@$1.07.

Amount of corn in elevator, 103,189 bushels. Prime southern white, 34 cents.

Rye, 55 cents. Oats, 22@23 cents.

—Queenstown vs. Easton. Thursday, at 2:30 P. M.

—Mr. J. G. A. Haddaway has opened a Boarding House over the store of C. W. Cheesum & Co.

—Mr. Levi Yoshell's sale, in Bayley's Neck, takes place to-morrow. He advertises a large amount of valuable property.

—W. A. Michener and Robert Hooper have started a new law journal in Baltimore. It is called "The Maryland Law Record."

—A nearly blind cat with kittens passed over Easton last Thursday night and Friday morning.

—Some holes in the Trappe road need doctoring, notably the big hole this side of Peach Blossom bridge.

—Go North, South, East or West, and you will find coughs and colds at this season of the year. A remedy which never fails to give satisfaction is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price, 25 cents.

—If you want your watch put in good order, go to J. L. Woodcock. He has a fine line of machinery and tools to do it with. Don't fail, if you wish satisfaction.

—Cheesum & Co. arrived home from the city on Saturday with a large invoice of fall goods. It is universally known that their prices are always the lowest.

—J. G. Harris & Co. are pushing ahead in improvements, and proprietors of Easton's big dry goods house, are displaying new novelties in ladies and gents' wear for fall and winter.

—The Frederick County Fair takes place on the 8th, 9th, 10th, and 11th of October. It is one of the best in the State. During the fair would be a good time for Eastern Shoremen to visit the beautiful city of Frederick.

—Seven stacks of hay belonging to John Mason were burned Monday evening week, on his lot on Point road. Two little boys fired them to see if hay would burn. They were too young to know any better.

—Over $600 have thus far been collected in this county for the yellow fever sufferers of the South. The collections will be continued until $1,000 are raised. The purse raised at the ladies' festival at the town hall last week, will be sent to Vicksburg, Mississippi.

—Our readers are referred to the advertisement in another column of Covington & Bateman. They have been receiving and opening new goods for several days, and now have their spacious and handsome store-room well stocked with desirable goods for the fall and winter.

—"I have used several bottles of Simmons' Liver Regulator, and you may record the fact, that my feelings are so far changed that I can eat hearty, and am more like a well man than I have been for years past. I have suffered four years and am grateful for relief. J. Rafferty, Periodical Store, 1836 Market street, Phila."

—The Baltimore Sun has been sued for libel, by a man in the excursion business, who landed a Baltimore rowdy party at Port Deposit some weeks since that behaved so outrageously that a correspondent of the Sun denounced them. From the facts as published, we do not think the suit will ever be tried, if the man that brought it is to pay costs if he does not recover.

—The Third Annual Fair of the Talbot County Agricultural Society took place last week at Hambleton Park, and the society has cause to congratulate itself on its success. In some classes the exhibition was meagre; in others it was very full and satisfactory. The trotting was splendid, and we feel quite sure that all that attended got the worth of their money. On Saturday especially the sport was splendid.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Thos. Atkinson, Esq., an old citizen of Trappe district, died at the residence of his niece, Mrs. Emerson, near Oxford, on Saturday, aged 86 years.

Fertilizers.

The subscriber will freight and deliver Fertilizers at Easton Point at 50 cents per ton.

9,3-3w C. R. LEONARD.

Good Samaritans.

The ladies of Easton held a festival Friday and Saturday last for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers of the South, and cleared about $163.

Two Second-Hand Carriages for Sale.

Will be sold at cost—great bargains—call and see them at the carriage factory of A. H. Larrimore, Washington street, Easton.

Change in the Cars.

After next Saturday, we will have but one train a day on the Delaware & Chesapeake Railway. The cars will leave Easton at 7:20 A. M., and arrive here at 2 P. M.

All Kinds of Carriage Work,

Repairing of all kinds, done cheap, by Ab. Larrimore, Easton. Call and get your carriage repaired by a practical workman. Warrants to give satisfaction, particularly in price.

The Yellow Fever Plague.

There is no abatement of the yellow fever at the South. The mortality continues fearful, and the disease is spreading higher up the river. Several cases have occurred at St. Louis.

That Cutter.

The special attention of our gentleman readers is called to the fact that Jump & Co's cutter from Philadelphia is a very superior artist on gentlemen's work, and will give them satisfaction.

500 Chairs for Sale.

The chairs in the test book of the court house will be sold this morning at 10 o'clock. Price 25 cents each, or $3 per dozen. This is the net cost of them delivered by the 1,000.

Another Gunning Accident.

Yesterday while Dallas Hayward, son of Mrs. Josephine Hayward, of Easton, was out gunning, he had one of his fingers blown off by the accidental discharge of a gun. Dr. W. G. G. Wilson was called in and rendered surgical treatment.

Thanks.

The STAR returns thanks to the Secretaries of Hambleton Park fair, Messrs. Jon. H. Leonard and William Collins, Jr., for the assistance rendered the STAR reporter, in making up the list of entries and premiums in time for to-days paper.

Stealing Pigs.

Two weeks ago, thieves stole two fine pigs from T. T. Martin, and last Friday night they stole from him and butchered on the premises a fine young Berkshire sow. People in this vicinity should look out for their porkers.

Something New.

E. M. Baker, late of Philadelphia, has opened a tailor's shop on Dover Street, next door to the office of the Building Association, Easton, and will accommodate all with a first class fit. Work made in the best style. Special attention paid to cutting men's and boys' clothes. Ladies' sacks cut to the latest and most fashionable style.

The Peninsula Fair at Middletown.

The annual Fair of the Peninsula Agricultural and Pomological Association takes place at Middletown on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th of October. $5,000 will be distributed in premiums, $1,000 of which are in the purses for trotting. Some of the fastest trotters in the country will trot in the races.

Yellow Fever Concert.

A concert given by the best amateur musicians of Easton, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers, will be held at the town hall on Thursday evening, the 19th inst. Such a charitable object as this should bring a crowded house, and a fair sum should be realized for the stricken South, which needs every cent we can give.

Fairs.

The Delaware State Fair, at Dover, commences next Monday, the 23d of September, and will continue all the week. From all accounts, it will be a big thing, and worth seeing. Go if you want to see a fine show and splendid trotting.

The Chestertown fair commences to-morrow. Two fast horses of this county—Mr. B. Hough's Gray Eagle, and Mr. John K. Cook's Lady Wright—are entered for the races.

Several Bee Gathers, built in the best manner, of the best material, for sale by A. H. Larrimore, at his factory, Washington street, Easton.

This Saturday Base Ball Club, of Queenstown, will play the Easton Club, on Thursday afternoon next. The Queenstown club is one of the best on the Shore, and the game will be fine and interesting. Tucker will pitch and Sudlow catch for the Eastons. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged, for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses. This will probably be the best game in Easton this season, and fine playing will be seen. All persons are requested to be present. Game commences at 2:30 P. M. sharp.

County Commissioners.

EASTON, Sept. 10th, 1878.

The board met; present Messrs. William Willis, Charles M. Jump and Joseph Horney, commissioners; Joseph S. Robson, clerk.

Walter H. Thompson was granted permission to erect a meeting tent on the lot in rear of the court house.

Thomas Sewell was appointed examiner to open a private road for Levi Somers, in Bay Hundred district, vice John W. Kemp, excused on account of sickness.

George E. Haddaway, collector for 1878, paid the sum of $2,500 on account of September collections.

The deed for the Miles River Bridge conveying the title to the commissioners for Talbot county, was received and filed in the circuit court.
