THE EASTON STAR

EASTON, MD.

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1879.

T. K. ROBSON, Editor

HON. HENRY SNYDER, formerly President of the Maryland Senate, died in Baltimore last Wednesday.

REV. MR. D. L. MOODY has closed his meetings and left Baltimore for Massachusetts, where he will spend the summer and recuperate.

ARCHERY is being revived at the North and West. Archery clubs are becoming numerous, the rifle being discarded for the bow and arrow.

THE race for the Derby stakes run at Epsom Downs, England, last Wednesday, was won by Lord Norres' brown colt Sir Bevis, by three-fourths of a length, John Trotter's chestnut colt Pallbearer second.

IT is now openly proclaimed that Secretary Sherman is the administration candidate for President against Gen'l Grant. All the Federal office-holders are expected to support the aspirations of Mr. Sherman.

Parole Again Victorious.

Parole continues his great triumph on the English turf. Last week he won the Epsom gold cup, a stakes worth $4,500, easily beating some of the best English horses.

HON. CHARLES FOSTER, the administration candidate, has been nominated as the Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio, over Judge Taft, the Grant candidate. The friends of Secretary Sherman are highly delighted at this result, as Foster's defeat of Taft is expected greatly to help the cause of Sherman, the administration candidate for President. It begins to look as if Grant will not be allowed to walk over the track on velvet.

Everybody knows the stupefying and deadly qualities of Opium; still there are large quantities of this dangerous drug sold as a soothing medicine for children. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup contains nothing injurious and will relieve your baby of pain and all disorders of the Bowels. Price 25 cents.

The Bishop of Springfield on Cathedrals.

The Cathedral is an idea inherent in the system of the church. It must exist wherever the church exists; for, wherever the Bishop sits to teach, to confer orders, or to exercise jurisdiction, there for the time being is the Cathedral, the Bishop's seat. It may be migratory, like the tabernacle in the wilderness, but where God's people have a settled habitation, there the Bishop's seat is enshrined, and we call the shell the Cathedral. Years ago, and perhaps even yet in some places it lingers, there was felt a strong prejudice against the word Cathedral, because men did not understand the meaning of the term, and imagined it must be something mischievous because they had never seen it, or seldom heard of it. A Cathedral may be the humblest building in the diocese; it may be the grandest; this is a mere accident. The Bishop in his seat, the forces which he gathers around him to germinate life and action throughout the length and breadth of his jurisdiction—this is the reality. When once this organization is secured, the shelter will be provided spontaneously.—The Churchman.

Destructive Fire at Hagerstown.

The Washington hotel at Hagerstown, Md., was destroyed by fire about 2 o'clock last Thursday morning. The fire originated under the stairs, on the first floor, and it well nigh covered the first floor before the alarm was given. Then followed a scene of consternation that baffles description. Court being in session, the hotel was full of people, there being 75 guests besides the proprietor's family and servants. Means of escape by the stairs being cut off by the flames, the boarders, servants, &c., had to descend from their rooms through the windows by rope ladders, &c., some jumping out to escape the fire, for to remain was certain death. A great number of persons were injured, some fatally. Several were burnt to death in the building. None of the guests saved anything but the scanty clothes they had on; many escaped in their night clothes. Judge Pearre lost his clothes, a gold watch and $500 in money. The building was valued at $25,000. The adjoining property was very much damaged by the fire. The loss of the hotel and adjoining property is fully covered by insurance.

After Years of Sufferings.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mock, of Salem, N. C., writes under date of March 20th, 1878, that she suffered for many years with dyspepsia, complicated with neuralgia. The pain was so severe that she could not rest day or night. Several physicians attended her without benefit, or even relief. She was considered incurable. By reading the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, she learned that Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., successfully prescribed his Golden Medical Discovery in such cases. She commenced its use. The pain gradually subsided and digestion became mere natural. She persevered, and in a few weeks was perfectly and permanently restored. Her case is a wonder to all who know her. In the face of such testimony, is it not foolish to condemn Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines, simple because some almost unknown nostrum has failed? Suppose you have purchased shoddy goods of one or two merchants, is it fair to condemn all merchants as swindlers, and all goods as shoddy? Those who once try Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines ever afterwards speak in their praise.

My "Millinery Opening" of this spring was such a GRAND SUCCESS that I desire now to renew my request to those who saw the display of Hats and Bonnets, and to the public generally, to call and examine my stock of Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets and trimmings for the same. I have left nothing undone (in my selection of stock) to please the most fastidious, and can to-day show a stock (in variety and cheapness) equal to any in this town. This being the first town on the shore in spring opens, I make no boast of superior stock, nor skill, nor cheaper goods, nor any thing else, for I believe that others have equal facilities with myself; but while I do not claim superiority, I do emphatically deny that others have superior facilities to mine. The favor with which the Trimming done at my establishment has been received by those fully capable of judging, the amount of trade accorded me this season (although working under disadvantages for want of room, &c.,) and the compliments passed by those who have examined my stock, all satisfy me that I am not behind any one in my display.

I keep every kind of goods usually kept in my line of business, and cordially request all to call and look.
