THE EASTON STAR

EASTON, MD.

TUESDAY, JUNE 8, 1880.

T. K. ROBSON, Editor.

For President

Hon. Thomas F. Bayard,

OF DELAWARE.

THE Republican National Convention met at Chicago on Wednesday. Don Cameron, who was going to rush things through rough-shod for Grant, had his comb cut before the Convention met, and he had to beg to be retained as chairman of the National Committee. Had he not succumbed, he would have been deposed, and William E. Chandler elected in his place. The dispute was terminated in the committee by Cameron consenting not to rule in favor of the unit rule; to withdraw John A. J. Cresswell as temporary chairman, and accept Senator George F. Hoar. Consequently Hoar was made chairman. The convention and all the committees were organized against General Grant. The contested seats was the tiger in the convention, which both sides had to fight. The report of the committee on contested seats, turned out a large number of Grant men, giving their seats to Blaine men. It was a shrewd stroke of policy in Blaine to secure for his side a majority of the National Committee. The convention was very noisy throughout the week; Conkling, full of irony and sarcasm, leading the Grant forces, and Frye and Hale making the fight for Blaine. The war between the friends of these two champions has grown so fierce and uncompromising, it is now believed that neither of them can be nominated, and that either Edmunds or Sherman will be the nominee. From all accounts the Chicago convention was a perfect bear garden, a disgrace to American politics. No ballot had been taken up to the adjournment at eleven o'clock on Saturday night. The Grant faction under the lead of Conkling, labored to delay the nomination as long as possible, expecting to buy up the Southern colored delegates as soon as their hotel bills emptied their pockets The Blaine men, however, were on hand with Jay Gould's money, to take advantage of any opening that might occur among the impecunious Grant delegates. A more corrupt set of men never met together in convention. The Republican party has past its usefulness. Its mission of hate and destruction has ended, and it has elected its last President. Putting Hayes in by fraud is the end of it as a national party. Neither Blaine or Grant could be elected; Edmunds is as cold as an iceberg, and could not enthuse the party; and Sherman engineered the counting in of Hayes by fraud, and could not command public confidence. Garfield is the strongest man in the Republican party, but he could not command the Republican vote, because he voted this session to promote fair elections.

Democratic County Convention.

EASTON, TUESDAY, June 1, 1880.

The Democratic County Convention, composed of twenty-five delegates, five from each of the election districts in Talbot, elected at the primary elections, on Saturday, May 29th, under the call of the Democratic State committee, met at the Town Hall in Easton to-day, to elect three delegates, to represent the Democratic county in the Democratic State convention, which meets in Baltimore city on the 9th of June, to elect delegates to the National Democratic Convention, which meets at Cincinnati on the 22d of June, to nominate Democratic candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, and to appoint Democratic Presidential Electors for the State of Maryland.

The convention was organized, on motion of William Collins, Jr., by calling Hon. John Charles Adams, of St. Michaels, to the chair.

On motion of J. Thomas Kirby, William Collins, Jr., was elected Secretary. The president stated, the first business in order was the appointment of a committee on credentials, and suggested that each delegate name a member of said committee. The following committee on credentials was then appointed, with A. H. Barnett, Esq., chairman.

Easton—James H. Covington,
St. Michaels—James Cox,
Trappe—A. H. Barnett,
Chapel—Chas. R; Wooters,
Bay Hundred—Edward N. Lomax.

The committee retired, and after a short consultation, returned and reported the delegates elected and entitled to seats in the convention. The list is the same as published in the STAR of last Tuesday.

The convention being organized, the President stated the object of its assembling, and read the call of the State Committee.

Nominations having been declared in order, the following gentlemen were put in nomination as delegates to Baltimore: J. Frank Turner, William S. Merrick, John C. Harper, David C. Trimble, Jas. M. Lowe and Oliver P. Sparks.

The convention having decided to vote by ballott, Joseph P. McKnett and E. P. Sparks were appointed tellers. 25 ballots were cast, with the following result; Turner, 19; Merrick 19; Harper 14; Trimble, 10; Sparks, 6; Lowe 6. Thirteen being a majority of the whole, and necessary to a choice, and Messrs. J. Frank Turner, William S. Merrick and John C. Harper having received a majority they were declared by the chair elected delegates to Baltimore. The following gentlemen were then elected alternates: O. Hammond, C. R. Leonard, and William Collins, Jr., the vote being 27 for Collins, 20 for Hammond, 14 for Leonard, and 6 for J. E. McDaniel. On motion of Mr. Lowe, the vote for all was made unanimous. Capt. Edward S. Harrison, of Trappe, offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, after which the convention adjourned.

RESOLUTIONS:

WHEREAS, the assembling of this convention is a preliminary step to the selection of a standard bearer for the great Democratic party of this country at the approaching contest in November next; and

WHEREAS, in our opinion, it is essential to good government that the Democratic party should be successful, and that to secure this end, a gentleman should be taken who would command the respect and admiration of the American people, therefore be it

Resolved, by the Democratic party of Talbot county in convention assembled, that the Honerable Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware, is a gentleman in every way qualified to fill the position of President of the United States, and one who would be a credit to his party and to his country.

Resolved, That we pledge to the nominee of the Cicinnati convention the hearty support of the Democratic voters of Talbot county.

Protestant Episcopal Convention---Diocese of Easton.

CENTREVILLE, June 5th, 1880.

The annual convention of the Diocese of Easton met in St. Paul's church in this city to day. It opened with morning prayer and an eloquent sermon by Rev. A. R. Walker, of *W*hite Marsh Parish. The convention was then formally opened for business, committees appointed and reports received. Bishop Lay's annual address was delivered on Wednesday evening. It strongly advocated a reduction of representation in the General Convention of the church, on account of the unwieldiness of the body and the great expense. The address represented the condition of the church in the diocese as in a flourishing condition, a number of new churches and rectories having been built, and several repaired, during the past year. On Thursday the committee appointed by the convention held at Elkton two years ago, to consider and report on that portion of the Bishop's address of that year, relating to the Provincial System, reported unfavorable After ter considerable discussion the report was laid on the table. The committee consisted of Dr. Wilson, Dr. Stearns, and Judge Carmichael. On Thursday the Convention elected the standing committee, as follows: Rev. Dr. Barber, Rev. Dr. Barton, Rev. Mr. Dashiell, Rev. Dr. Wilson, and Rev. Mr. Mitchell.

The General Convention of the Church assembles in New York city next October, and it being necessary to elect delegates to represent the Diocese of Easton in that body, the convention, on motion of Rev. Mr. Beaven, proceeded to the election of lay and clerical delegates. The following nominations were made:—clerical—Rev. Dr. Barber, Rev. Dr. Barton, Rev. Mr. Dashiell, Rev. Mr. Watson, Rev. Dr. Wilson, Rev. Dr. Stearns, Rev. Mr. Walke; laymen—Dr. I. L. Adkins and George R. Goldsborough, Esq., of Talbot; William S. Walker, Esq., of Kent, and Henry S. Coudon, Esq., of Cecil. On the first ballot, the above named laymen were all elected and the following clergymen: Rev. Dr. Barber, Rev. Dr. Barton, and Rev. Dr. Dashiell. On the second ballot the vote was scattering, after which Rev. Mr. Walke withdrew his name. On the third ballot, the contest was between Rev. Mr. Watson and Rev. Dr. Wilson, and Rev. Mr. Watson was elected by a vote of 21 to 16.

On Thursday afternoon Judge Carmichael offered the same resolutions against ritualism offered at the Snow Hill Convention last year by Rev. Dr. Evrett and expressing sympathy with Bishop Stevens, of Pennsylvania, in his warfare on St. Clement's church in Philadelphia. The resolutions were advocated in a lengthy speech by the Judge, and opposed by J. F. Bateman, Esq., of Easton. They were divided, and one referred to the committee on canons, which made an unfavorable report; the other was indefinitely postponed, on the ground that this diocese had enough to do to manage its own affairs.

The subject of diocesan missions was considered on Thursday night. The discussion was opened by an able address from the Dean of the Middle Convocation, Rev. Dr. Barber, of Cambridge. Rev. Mr. Watson and Rev. Mr. Dashiell and others made brief addresses on the necessity of keeping up and fostering the mission work in the diocese, after which pledges were asked of the several parishes, as to the amount they would contribute to the mission fund the coming year. The amount pledged was about $1,100.

The convention was closed with an eloquent address by Bishop Lay, in which he congratulated the convention upon its peaceful sessions, and earnestly invoked the laymen to stand by the clergy in the work of the church.

M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders have been used with astounding results in the stables of Mr. Pierre Lorrillard, so much so, that the Englishmen have been ordering it in large quantities; since Parole, Wallenstein and other american horses, have won thousands of dollars for their owners.

(COMMUNICATED.)

There are many aspirants for the Democratic Presidential nomination. All are pure and upright men, and against whom not one word can be said:

Bayard, Thurman, Hendricks, Seymour and others are the foremost statesmen in the Democratic party. We are of the opinion that neither of these gentlemen unites the elements of an available candidate for the present year. We have advocated the claims and fitness of Mr. Bayard; we think that there is no purer statesman than Thos. F. Bayard, but we are of the opinion that he will not receive the nomination at Cincinnati.

There seems to be a growing sentiment in favor of Gen'l Winfield S. Hancock. We do not hesitate in saying that the Democratic party is fortunate in having at hand a suitable man in the person of Gen'l Hancock. Many Democrats will say they are opposed to any one having any connection with the recent civil war. We have frequently heard this objection urged against Hancock, but we do not think this should militate against him. There suits of the war are now accepted and it is too late now to call up the dead issues of the past.

All will remember the wise administration of Hancock during his stay in Louisiana—during the time of the military occupation in the south (after the close of the war) he was acceptable to all, [illegible] The managers of the Radical machine fully intended to treat the Southern States as conquered provinces, and in sending Major and Brigadier Generals to command in those sections it was presumed that they would act with rods of iron and crush out the Southern people.

Not so with General Hancock. He met the people of his "district" and assured them that he did not come among them as a tyrant and usurper. His famous order issued in November, 1867, clearly demonstrated his feelings towards the entire South. He declared "the great principles of American liberty are still "the lawful inheritance of this people, and "ever should be," and that "the right of "trial by jury, the habeus corpus, the liberty of the press; the freedom of speech, "the natural rights of persons, and the "rights of property, must be respected."

For Mr. Bayard we have the highest regard. He is a man of high tone of character and standing as a public and private citizen. We believe him to be an unselfish patriot and one who has served his country from a sense of duty. He has at all times been discreet and economical with regard to the donation of the people's money. This feature in his Senatorial career should commend him to all good citizens.

We would prefer the nomination of Mr. Bayard, positively and unqualifiedly; but if it be found that he is not an available candidate we trust that the name of the great Democratic war-horse, Hancock, will be favorably received by the Cincinnati Convention. CHAPEL.

General News.

Ryan and Goss held their long talked of mill in Western Virginia last week. They fought 87 rounds, and Ryan was declared the winner and the heavy weight champion boxer of the world. Goss is an Englishman and Ryan an American.

George F. Hoar, of Massachussetts was elected temporary and permanent president of the Chicago Republican convention, the Blaine men in the National Committee having elbowed John A. J. Creswell to the wall.

Col. Aydelotte, of Snow Hill, has been acquitted of the charge of having committed an indecent assault upon Mrs. Polk. He was tried by the Court.

53,083 immigrants arrived at New York in May. 135,336 arrived at that port between the 31st of December 1879 and June 1st, 1880. The immigration this year is exceptionably large,—larger than it was in 1872.

It is reported by the Philadelphia Ledger, that negotiations are now pending, and likely to prove successful, for the retirement of John Kelley from the leadership of Tammany, and for the reunion of the Democracy of the State of New York. By the time the Cincinnati nominations are made, it is said the Democratic party in New York will be in a condition to assure the vote of that State for the Democratic ticket.

Roberts' Embrocation.

Rheumatics or sufferers with sprains, cuts, bruises, old or fresh wounds, swellings, burns, &c., will find it to their advantage to use M. B. Roberts' celebrated embrocation, it has been in use over 40 years, and is the most reliable and efficacious remedy known. It does not blister the skin and can therefore be used with much better results than any liniment in the market. It is also good for horses where an outward application is desired, and should be found in every household, and well regulated stable. Price 25 cents per bottle—sold by your druggist.

To the People of Talbot Co.

All good housekeepers know how important it is to have clean Bedding, and it is just as important to have clean Beds. Can you expect them to be pure and healthy when they have been in use for years, having been handed down from grandparents without being cleaned? We know it is impossible for them to be pure, even if there has been no lingering disease, for the body must throw off more or less poisonous gas when relaxed in slumber. But how few have escaped disease of some nature, in view of this fact, will you continue to endanger your health, as well as the loved ones around you, when you may have them, at a small cost, made sweet, pure and clean?

We shall be in Easton for a few weeks, and offer you the best process ever offered to the public. By a pressure of steam, and the manner in which it is applied, together with facilities for drying, we claim to Renovate Feather and Hair Beds, more effectually, and in less time than by any other process ever offered; not only purifying by destroying all animal matter contained in the quills, and removing the disagreeable odor so common to feathers, but destroys all Moths and Worms, and the liability thereto. The Bed is therefore made wholesome, preventing disease. The feathers are relieved from their matted condition, increasing their bulk nearly one-half, making them light, lively, clean and healthy. Cleansing them from all dirt and moths, increasing their bulk and elasticity, making them as good as new.

G. A. McGaw, formerly of Harford county, is owner of the State right for Maryland, and he has been working it at his factory in Baltimore four years with perfect satisfaction. We guarantee all we do.

Articles invented by Traveling Dentists are not generally used by other dentists, nor by themselves except on paper, the only place where some dentists operate skilfully.
Skilfu dentists never have to travel, beg, steal, lie or resort to catch-penny advertising for practice.
T. J. Smithers is the only dentist in this or adjoining counties who has a license to use or make Rubber *P*lates, which is not only the best plate, but the only plate that ought to be used. Cost T. J. Smithers $300 for License.
