Salesmen Wanted

We need a reliable, aggressive, determined specialty man to sell a nationally known household utility direct to the home in Westminster. To a man with the proper stick-to-it-ive-ness, anxious to qualify for a permanent and profitable connection, willing to go along on commission basis and who can furnish bond, we offer a splendid renumerative proposition. In your first letter give age, present occupation and sales experience, if any. The Vital Sales Co., 207 Drovers and Mechanics National Bank Building, 100 N. Eutaw street, Baltimore, Md.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION ASSEMBLED IN NEW WINDSOR ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Preambles.

Assembled in this our 30th session of the Carroll County W. C. T. U. in the Presbyterian Church in New Windsor, with our hearts intent upon the Master's work, we humbly ask His blessing which has aided us in the past, may be with us not only during this convention, but throughout the whole year, and with renewed faith in His power to help, we may be enabled to do greater work in the year to come.

Resolved.

That as delegates to this convention we may be so enthused that we may not only be benefitted ourselves, but be able to carry to our homes and union, inspiration that will lead us all to persevere in carrying on the good work.

Renewedly assured by the word of science that alcohol is a poison, let us with renewed courage continue in the work toward the enforcement of the 18th amendment and the Volstead Act.

Convinced that Law, not War, should be our watchword, let us endeavor to show to the world that the Golden Rule, as taught by the Master, can alone bring peace between nations. Let us earnestly uphold the fathership of God, and the brotherhood of man.

Realizing that obedience to the constitution is the only sure way to bring happiness and prosperity to our country, let us allow principle, not party, to rule our actions in politics and pledge our support to those candidates who uphold the carrying out of laws as laid down in the constitution.

Knowing the evil effect of tobacco upon the child, let us use our earnest effort to keep them from acquiring the habit.

As we desire that our beloved State should rank with those of the highest quality, we pledge ourselves to endeavor to convince our candidates for the legislature of the wrong of race-track gambling, and ask their support in vanishing this evil from our State.

We entend our thanks to our comrades of the New Windsor union, to the members of the Presbyterian Church, and to all who have in any way added to our comfort, and pleasure, and success of this convention.

UNION MILLS

The County Commissioners, after viewing the Deep Run county road last Friday, from Shriver's mill to Oliver Shull's lane, followed by a consultation with some of the property owners residing adjacent thereto decided to have the worst places in the road mended with crushed stone this fall and then in the spring to have Macadam put down between the points named above.

With the exception of the two front wheels and possibly the engine, the Hudson truck of John Corbin, a groceryman of Littlestown, Pa., was consumed by fire on top of Pipe creek hill, about 5 o'clock in the morning of Friday, 27 inst., as Mr. Corbin was on his way to Baltimore for a load of store goods. Two new tires were burned with the machine. Mr. Corbin called on Oliver M. Koontz, who lives nearby, for assistance, but the two men were unable to save the truck from destruction. The fire is supposed to have started from a short circuit in the electrical connections. Mr. Corbin's loss is partly covered by insurance.

George W. Yeiser and Calvin E. Bankert, president and treasurer, respectively, of the Union Mills Savings bank, attended the bankers' convention at Atlantic City, this week.

Mrs. Amelia Starner, Mrs. Savannah Feeser, Mrs. Alice Flickinger and Mrs. Louise Willet and son Lester, of Hanover, Pa., called on the family of George W. Yeiser on the 26 inst. The four ladies are Mr. Yeiser's sisters and all of them have lost their husbands.

BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE

The twenty-fourth session of Blue Ridge College began September 11, with a new record in attendance for the first week. Students began to arrive on every train Monday and by the opening session at 10:30 A. M. on Tuesday the ladies' dormitory was filled to its capacity.

The Convocation services were held in the College Chapel. After rendition of special music by members of the music department, President J. M. Henry conducted the opening devotionals, and then introduced Dr. John A. Garber, of Washington, D. C., who delivered a helpful and inspiring address.

Registration began at 1:00 P. M. and the schedule of classes was announced by Dean E. C. Bixler, Wednesday morning. The gong is now ringing with regularity and another busy year is ushered in with the largest enrollment in the history of the institution for the first week. The largest gain is in the college department. All college classes have an increase except the senior class. The freshman class has a gain of 110 per cent over last year. The total increase in college department is 60 per cent over former years with several students yet to enroll. The total registration in all departments has passed the combined enrollment for last year. The prospect seems assured to reach the 200 mark the first month.

Five new teachers have been added to the teaching staff. Prof. Lewis Brumbaugh, of Chicago University, takes the place of Miss Carrie Hastings, in College history, who is absent on leave for graduate work. Miss Ruth Leyse, a graduate of Columbia University, who spent the summer in special study in Europe, will teach home economics. Mrs. Grace Beard Young will teach public speaking and expression. Mr. I. M. Wagenman and Miss Hettye Myers have been added to the teaching staff in the Academy. A prosperous year is anticipated.
